

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Among the out-of-town guests at the dancing party given last evening by a number of young ladies at Eagle-Woodman hall were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whans and Mrs. Francis Pope of Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vincent, Miss Jessica McEwen and Duvois McEwen of Athena; Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Athena; Miss Louise Gray of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Slusher of Nolin and Lloyd Riches of Stanfield.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Woodward and three children of Adams and Mrs. Laura Woodward and Miss Eva Woodward of Walla Walla left today by auto for Los Angeles where they expect to spend the winter.

For the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Ferguson, whose birthday it is, Mrs. George Peringer is entertaining this afternoon at a delightful little informal sewing party. The guests include Mrs. William Blakely, Mrs. A. J. Black, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Ellen Bond, Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Mrs. Mary Dismore, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. L. C. Rothrock, Mrs. H. Wray, Mrs. B. S. Waffle, Mrs. William Matlock, Mrs. Thomas Thompson, Mrs. Mary Boyden, Mrs. Thomas Tweedy, Mrs. P. J. Hegerman, Mrs. Alice L. Hays, Mrs. N. E. Despain, Mrs. Ida Fowler and Mrs. T. A. Lieualien of Adams.

Thursday Afternoon Club members listened with much attention and appreciation to an especially interesting club program which was arranged by Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., yesterday afternoon. The meeting was held in the club room of the county library which was made typically oriental by the use of many wonderful rugs and quantities of potted plants. "Religious Japan, past and present," was the topic for discussion, the following numbers being presented. Vocal solos, Mrs. B. L. Burroughs; "Shintoism, the ancient religion," Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt; "Buddhism," Mrs. E. T. Wade; "The Japan National Air sung in Japanese by Mrs. S. H. Forshaw and "Christianity, the religion of Civilization," by Mrs. S. A. Lowell. A very pleasant social hour was enjoyed after the program, Mrs. A. J. Owen presiding at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gray of Spokane are being showered with congratulations upon the birth of a son who arrived yesterday. Mr. Gray is a brother of Harry Gray and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sheard and Miss Lizzie Sheard are spending the day here from their home at Helix.

Mrs. Lowell Rogers, Mrs. D. N. Swearingen, Mrs. T. D. Taylor and Miss Lola Rogers again extended charming hospitality yesterday afternoon when they entertained a large number of friends at bridge. The Halloween motif was developed in the appointments of the affair and made an effective decoration. High score honors were captured by Mrs. James B. Perry and Mrs. Will Clarke. During the afternoon, Mrs. Carl Power sang several charming solos.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson are dinner hosts this evening, their guests being the board of Round-Up directors.

A wonderfully artistic combination of Halloween and harvest emblems in all their vivid colorings marked the dancing party for which Lester Hurst, Miss Claire Raley, Miss Mildred Berkeley, Miss Beth Smith, Miss Sydney Somerville, Miss Evelyn Somerville, Miss Jenny Perry and Miss Lotta Livermore were hostesses last evening in Eagle-Woodman Hall, as one of the prettiest ever given in Pendleton. Huge stalks of dull gold corn, gleaming yellow pumpkins, crimson apples and bright coverings of orange and black all harmonized into a most effective setting for the throngs of dancers. At one side a quaint and realistic barn entrance served as an attractive punch room, while the stage was piled high with jack-o'-lanterns. Many beautiful new gowns were in evidence and attracted much interested comment. Excellent music added much to the pleasure of the occasion and the affair was enjoyed until a late hour.

Pendleton delegates returning from the state convention of Royal Neighbors at La Grande are enthusiastic in their praise of the hospitality and courtesy of their La Grande hosts. An open meeting held in the B. P. O. E. Hall on Wednesday evening was largely attended, as were the two secret meetings and the two banquets which marked their stay. Nothing that could add to the pleasure of the visitors was left undone and many high compliments are being paid the La Grande lodge. Wildwood Camp, 2322, from this city, registered a dis-tion hit, the La Grande Observer saying: "Positions of the Pendleton quarter hundred came early but the main delegation came on the noon train. May Jones is the oracle and Mrs. Horton recorder of that vigorous group of women. The Pendletonians made their presence known with catchy yells and were very much the life of the whole convention."

Those who attended from here were Mrs. Bertha Childreth, Mrs. Mary Finney, Mrs. Fern Patten, Mrs. Minnie Tenney, Mrs. Zetella Bybee, Mrs. Ethel Heiman, Mrs. Mabel Hutchinson, Mrs. Hazel Tryon, Mrs. Claude Boyd, Mrs. Jennie Brammell, Mrs. L. Dunlap, Mrs. H. E. Cook, Miss Lena Horne, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Mary Phillips, Mrs. Ida Elder, Mrs. Fanny Carney, Mrs. Hattie Ferguson, Mrs. Charles Rude, Mrs. Christensen, Mrs. J. W. Horne and Mrs. Van Peymbrooch.

Preceding the dancing party last night several exceptionally pretty dinner parties were given, among them being the dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen presided at Hotel Pendleton, honoring Mrs. Frances Pope. A color scheme of yellow was developed in all the appointments, covers being laid for twelve. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collins were also dinner hosts, entertaining a party of ten at the hotel.

A. J. Parker of Athena has been in the city today.

A. M. Wagner of Enterprise was an overnight visitor here.

F. A. Clarke of Enterprise is a guest of the Pendleton.

J. A. Stolp of Weston, was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Lloyd Riches, editor of the Standard, was up last evening.

L. C. Lens, head of the Pendleton Flouring Mills, is down from Spokane.

Mrs. C. Pollon and Carl Pollon of Monmouth are guests of the St. George.

County Commissioner H. M. Cockburn came down from Milton last evening.

Mrs. S. N. Robertson and Mrs. Albert Hoppe spent last night in Pendleton. They are residents of Pomerville.

H. C. Burrell of Walla Walla, western manager of the Burrell Engineering Construction Co., arrived in Pendleton yesterday from Portland. His company is putting up the grain elevator here.

The young people of the Christian church will give a Halloween party tonight. Meeting at the Caillion home on Jackson street they will depart for regions unknown, passing through the Cave of the Winds, Haunts of Departed Spirits and Witches' Dens, en route.

The Baptist Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Gideon Brown, 503 Madison St., Thursday afternoon. The subject for study was "Chinese Missions in America and an introductory review of the Chinese nation and their religion." These subjects were ably given by Mrs. J. Glenn Miller, Mrs. Dorothy McKiernan and Mrs. Virgil Fendall.

Musical numbers were given by Miss South to vocal and Miss Nozzen, instrumental. Both responded with encores several times.

At a short business session plans were completed for serving meals during the teachers institute. About 40 ladies attended.

During the social hour refreshments were served. House and table decorations were suggestive of Autumn time and Halloween. The hostesses were: Mrs. Gideon Brown, Mrs. James Furnish, Mrs. S. L. Nichols, Mrs. J. H. Neil, Mrs. Walter McCormach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lisle of Echo are in the city upon a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Prendergast of Helix have been visiting here today. J. B. Saylor, prominent Miltonite with heavy interests at Echo has been transacting business here today.

In the world's extremity it discovers that wild oats have no nutritive value, except perhaps as food for thought.

BIG NEW YORK PAPER IS OUT FOR WILSON

ELMIRA, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The Elmira Star Gazette, the leading newspaper of southern New York and northern Pennsylvania, independent in politics, today came out for President Wilson after maintaining an absolutely neutral attitude in the campaign. The Star-Gazette bases its decision on President Wilson's record and the absence of any particular issues against "now that the arguments of both sides are all in."
