SEVEN SLAIN AND 37 HURT IN I. W. W. RIOT AT EVERETT

Battle is Fought Between Large Posse of Armed Citizens on Shore and Workers on Boat

BUSINESS MEN MOBILIZE

Leaders of I. W. W. Declare They Will Bring Men from All Parts of the Country and Precipitate An Industrial Revolution.

SEATTLE, Nov. 6.—Jeff Beard, former sheriff of Snohomish county, died of the wounds received fighting the Industrial Workers of the World at Everett yesterday. This makes a total of seven dead. E. P. Buehrer, janitor of the Everett high school is dying.

I. W. W. leaders have planned a charge of murder against the Everett posse. Red Doran declared he would bring men from all parts of the country and precipitate an "industrial revolution" in Everett. A hundred armed businessmen are mobilized at Everett, ready to guard the city. Leaders wired Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, former chairman of the federal industrial relations commission, asking him to defend the arrested members. They also wired an appeal to W. D. Haywood of Chicago, to come immediately and asked that Haywood hire able lawyers.

SHERIFF TELLS OF FIGHT

EVERETT, Nov. 6.—Sheriff Dan McRae who was shot in the leg described the I. W. W. battle. He said, "Probably a hundred and thirty five armed deputies were at the dock and others lined the shore. When the boat came close I yelled for their leader. They replied they were all leaders. I told them they could not land. They began firing. Probably fifteen shots came from the boat before we replied. My clothing was bullet riddled. I cannot understand how I escaped without more serious injuries."

I. W. W. WOULD BURN EVERETT

Mayor Merrill said the I. W. W. intended to kill McRae and burn Everett. They had purchased phosphorous in Portland.

Mrs. Edith Frenette was arrested when she attempted to assault McRae when he was wounded and being carried to the hospital. The coroner is dragging the waters around the dock hunting for corpses of rioters who fell overboard after being wounded.

Starts When Boat Arrives

The battle was precipitated when the steamboat Verona, which reached Everett at 2:30 p. m., attempted to tie up at the city wharf so as to discharge her passengers. The line had been thrown out, but as it was about to be made fast Sheriff McRae, a force of many deputies and hundreds of citizens, with seemingly one voice, warned the vessel's officers and those aboard that no one would be allowed to come ashore.

Hardly had the warning been given when the battle began. Two shots rang out in quick succession. Then came a fusillade. Men began to drop on the decks of the Verona and on the wharf. Some say as many as 2000 shots were fired.

PORTLAND LAD KILLED UNDER BIG MOTOR TRUCK

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—Charles Hardesty, seventeen, a delivery boy, was killed when his bicycle skidded on the wet pavement. The boy fell under a two ton motor truck and died in the ambulance.

UKIAH HAS DISASTROUS EARLY MORNING BLAZE

(East Oregonian Special.) UKIAH, Ore., Nov. 6.—Ukiah's business district was in danger of being wiped out by a fire that early Sunday morning destroyed the Kirk drug store and pool hall, the Wagner & Caldwell hardware store, the stage office, occupying a residence adjoining, and a barn. The blaze started in the pool hall owned by J. D. Kirk. The drug store and pool hall burned to the ground as well as the barn adjoining. Inside of an hour from the time the fire was discovered at 5 a. m. all the buildings mentioned above had been destroyed with most of their contents. It was impossible to do much in the way of fire fighting and had it not been for the fact there was some snow on the ground it is probable the blaze would have been even more disastrous. The Lawrence store was in danger for a time. The buildings destroyed were owned by the occupants with the exception of the stage office, which was owned by Miss Sarah Mossie. The loss from the fire will be heavy but is partly covered by insurance.

BIG CROWD HEARS STIRRING ADDRESS OF MRS. THOMPSON ON MERITS OF WILSON REGIME

Addressing herself particularly to the women and in a fair, logical way explaining why the record of Woodrow Wilson entitles him to the support of women voters, Mrs. Alexander Thompson of The Dallas Saturday evening closed the local campaign for the president. Despite a cold, disagreeable rain, the main floor of the Oregon theater was crowded, more than twice the crowd being present that attended the republican speaking of Wednesday evening. Mrs. Thompson was frequently interrupted by applause as she made a telling point. She was introduced by Mrs. E. T. Wade as a candidate for the legisla-

RUNAWAY FREIGHT TRAIN KILLS 6 MEN

HARRAH SOLD CLUB $1.50 PER BUSHEL F. O. B. THIS CITY

For a price of $1.50 per bushel, W. W. Harrah sold 10,000 bushels of club wheat in Kansas City on Nov. 2. The wheat was sold to the Terminal Elevator of Kansas City and the price is for the wheat f. o. b. Pendleton, unshelled. According to Mr. Harrah, the Portland price for sacked wheat on Nov. 2 was the same as he received for his wheat here unshelled. Consequently he feels he made a good sale. He had 30,000 bushels for sale but declined to sell more than 10,000 bushels although he could have disposed of the entire crop at $1.50 per bushel.

AGUILAR MAKES A SHARP ANSWER TO BRITISH PROTEST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Aguilar replied to the British note demanding that Mexican neutrality be enforced against German submarines. He said Mexico would enforce neutrality against all belligerent warships and sarcastically suggested that the British prevent misunderstandings by preventing submarines from leaving their bases. He reported the Germans had established a base on the Mexican coast. With wheat at $2 a bushel the staff of life is worthy to be set with diamonds.

GERMAN COUNTER FORCES BRITISH TO GIVE GROUND

Portion of Recently Made Gains Near Warlencourt and Sailly is Lost, French Ready for New Attack. POSITIONS ARE CONSOLIDATED

ALLIES USE STRONGEST FORCES AND WHOLE FIRING CAPACITY OF ARTILLERY IN ATTACKING GERMAN GENERALS BUT ARE DEFEATED.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Haig reported the Germans had forced the British to evacuate a portion of ground recently won near Butte Warlencourt. The British consolidated new positions east of Lesboues and raided trenches at Armentieres and Ypres. The French are ready to start a new attack on the crown prince. The Damloup victory has straightened the front and advances north of the Somme were made possible by flanking operations against Bouchavesnes and Biaches. British victories along the Ancre made the German positions at Grandcourt and Pys most dangerous.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—It is admitted that German counters were partially successful between Saint Pierre Vaast woods and Sailly village. They were repulsed elsewhere. There is violent cannonading at Damloup but no infighting.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—(Via Sayville.)—It is announced the British and French used their strongest forces and who whole firing capacity of their artillery in attacking General's Marschall, Deimling and Garnier. The Germans were unshaken and the allies severely defeated.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 6.—It is announced the German violent offensive against the heights west of Shlyevnits is continuing. The result is doubtful. Advanced Roumanian detachments forced an enemy retirement at Dobrudja. The Teutons set fire to three villages.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON FALLS IN SHERMAN COUNTY

COUNTY CHAIRMEN MAKE PREDICTION

"Woodrow Wilson will carry Umatilla county tomorrow, despite the heavy republican majority of the county. From information received from all sections of the county, I feel safe in predicting that the president will receive a majority of 250 when the count is completed. There will be no defections in the democratic party and Wilson will receive many votes from the progressive faction of the republican party. I also feel safe in predicting that Oregon will be found in the Wilson column by a good margin."
J. W. MALONEY,
Chairman Democratic Central Com.

BOTH PARTIES CONFIDENTLY WAIT RETURNS

Election is Conceded to Rest Probably on Illinois, New York, Indiana and Ohio.

CANDIDATES ARE OPTIMISTIC

Hughes Admits Wilson Will Carry South—Democrats Declare Hughes Will Have Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania and Iowa.

ASBURY PARK, Nov. 6.—President Wilson's official family predicted he would receive 387 electoral votes. Their optimism is unrestrained. Wilson, his friends and family receive the returns at Shadow Lawn. He goes to Washington on Saturday to take up the Marina case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Candidate Hughes said: "I expect to be elected." He conferred with William C. Sullivan, who turns at the Hotel Astor telephone from republican headquarters. He plans to vote early.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Hughes concedes that Wilson will carry the solid south. The democrats concede that Hughes will carry Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania and Iowa. The election probably depends on New York, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

There are eight hundred thousand new women voters in Illinois. Politicians are unable to predict how they will vote. Republicans are facing a big problem in keeping down New York city's normal democratic majority and boosting the normal upstate republican majority. The republicans claim New York by a hundred thousand. The democrats claim the same majority. New York betting still favors Hughes, ten to eight. On account of the heavy Illinois registration officials do not expect to complete tabulation until Wednesday noon.

HIGH PRICES FOUND DUE TO CONSPIRACY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—District attorneys throughout the United States tightened the official nation-wide investigation of the food shortage and high prices. Sufficient evidence has already accumulated to warrant the declaration that the high prices are "abnormal and suspicious." Attorney General Gregory officially said: "We hear increased prices have been due to conspiracy and other unlawful action. The justice department will invoke the severest penalties against offenders."

The investigation is principally in bread, coal and milk increases. If indictments are obtained, they believe that it will have a wholesome effect on all producers. Department officials feel able to make particularly a good case in the coal situation. It is reported facts were uncovered showing conspiracy by coal producers and railroads to force up prices. Federal investigators are willing to accept the railroads' coal shortage as a plea.

We feel confident that Umatilla county will give Mr. Hughes and Mr. Fairbanks, republican nominees for president and vice president a majority of from 600 to 1000 votes over the democratic nominees, and we would not be surprised to see this majority increased to 1200. This estimate is made after a careful and painstaking check of every precinct in the county and is in our opinion very conservative.

Chairman Republican Central Com.
