$200,000 TUMMY OF 'DIAMOND' Relatives Deny Rumor New Digestive Apparatus Has Failed Brady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Friends of James Buchanan Brady are disturbed at the report that his $200,000 stomach has gone back on him and that he is seriously ill. According to the rumor, a specialist had been summoned from Baltimore to attend "Diamond Jim."

At the Brady home it was said the report was greatly exaggerated. Brady arose feeling "under the weather." It was said, decided to spend the day indoors resting and reading. No doctor had been summoned, it was said.

Four and a half years ago Brady entered Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore to be treated for chronic stomach trouble. After an operation he left the hospital with what he described as "new stomach."

A few months later Brady gave $200,000 and an annuity of $15,000 to found and maintain the James Buchanan Brady urological institute as a special unit of the hospital.
