The answer is obvious, for the protection of correct and comfortable clothing is a safeguard to one's health, which as you know is the most precious of all possessions.

Our New Coats are not only warm and cozy for these cold days, but also hold in their make-up that undefinable something called "style." Beautiful models cut with either full flare or belted back and front, and featuring the large cape collar that can be worn low or adjusted high as a protection for neck and chin. Some are fur trimmed and others of just the plain rich material such as wool velour, plush, velvet, duvetyne, cheviot, broadcloth and tweed mixtures. All are shown in the popular shades and priced from $12.50 to $45.00.

SOCIAL PERSONAL

Miss Veva Flock of Helix, spent the week end as a guest of Miss Edith Mae Richardson.

The premier event of the month in a social way will be the annual Thanksgiving Ball of the Elks Lodge, which will be held in Eagle-Woodman Hall on Thursday evening, November thirtieth. The dances are always elaborate and enjoyable affairs in every way but this year plans are being made to eclipse all similar events. It is to be strictly formal, but all members of the lodge are urged to attend whether they dance or not, as there will be excellent music and refreshments to enjoy. The committee in charge is composed of Roy W. Ritner, chairman; F. B. Chloupek, F. W. Lampkin, Ray Crystal, Roy Buchanan.

Mrs. J. F. Robinson is entertaining the Duplicate Whist Club this afternoon at her home on Jackson street. The regular program was varied somewhat by having the guests come to luncheon at 1:30 o'clock with the card games following.

Mrs. Fred T. Block has returned from a visit in Portland.

Complimenting her daughter, Edith Mae on the occasion of her birthday, November the twelfth, Mrs. S. M. Richardson entertained with a dinner party on Saturday evening. The color scheme was an attractive arrangement of yellow and white, the centerpiece being yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The guest list included the Misses Helen and Ruth Isaac, Elsa Stever, Juanita Friedly, Veva Flock, Ethel Haw, Hulda Young, Merylin Best, Esther Richardson and Mrs. Charles Fancher.

Preceding the dinner a mock wedding was much enjoyed. The bride (Miss Elsa Stever) charmingly attired in mosquito hair, entered on the arm of her father (Miss Ruth Isaac) to the strains of "Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," played by Miss Esther Richardson, and was given in marriage to the groom (Miss Veva Flock). The Rev. Huoldespedah (Miss Juanita Friedly) officiated. At the critical moment the rival lover (Miss Helen Isaac) rushed in and attempted to behead the groom and was only prevented by a mad rush from the wedding guests.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music.

Mrs. Verna Alexander left Friday for California where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Collins spent yesterday at Hermiton as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dodd.

A. D. Frost, former proprietor of the local Golden Rule Store, came up from Portland this morning.

Ben Burroughs, Pendleton lumber dealer, is back from a business trip to Salt Lake.

Her Son Subject to Croup.
"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
