A Reliable Remedy for Kidneys and Bladder

Foley Kidney Pills Also Do Remarkable Work Where There Are Urinary Irregularities

Mr. J. M. Hayes of Spring Place, Ga., R. F. D. No. 3, writes us: "I suffered with a terrible backache in the small of my back, and urinating was irregular and excessive in quantity. It was very red and I suffered a terrible stinging and burning sensation. I could hardly stoop over and it interfered with my work. I began taking Foley Kidney Pills, and after awhile my urine became regular, the stinging and burning stopped, and my backache disappeared entirely."

Irregular, painful bladder action is another convincing evidence of kidney trouble. The urine becomes concentrated, causing great irritability of the bladder. There is a desire to pass water frequently with a painful burning sensation. This irregularity becomes a serious nuisance at night, causing loss of rest and sleep to one already weakened by kidney trouble. There is also the added danger of chilling the body, a condition to be very carefully avoided at such a time.

Foley Kidney Pills control this situation promptly and effectively. They cause a normal, healthy flow, relieving the concentrated condition that produced the irritability and burning sensation. The bladder action is regulated to avoid the too frequent calls, and easy restful nights, without pain or backache, without loss of sleep or bad dreams. It is a quick result.

The Weakly Bulldogger

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1916.

The Birth of An Order.

Levi Youngren has been commissioned organizer of the Pendleton branch of the National Brotherhood of Post-Election Sobbers and he is ready for the initial meeting. He has appointed Henry Rosenberg, Jr., Supreme Suffering Sobber, Hans Collins, Exalted Waiter; Sol Baum, Chief Clerk of the Crying Room; George Peringer, Liquidator of Losses; Frank Carl, Prophet; Bat Nelson, Provider of Alibies, and Newt Burgess, delegate to the national convention.

Making the Losers Pay.

On the day after election Ray Humphrey, master tonsorialist, hung a sign in his window, "Long Faces 19 Cents Extra."

A Critical Case.

Clark Nelson was an unmitigated Hughes supporter and everybody knew it. When the returns had made it plain that Wilson had been elected, a yell for Woodrow expressed a desire to hunt up Nelson. "You can't see him," said Horse Turner. "Why not?" said the other. "The doctors won't let anybody in," said Horse.

Well, Isn't That What Frank Carl Predicted?

Anybody that chances to stray into a certain office on the corner of Main and Court these days is almost sure to be met at the door by Judge Marsh all achuckle. The judge promptly produces from a vest pocket a dollar coin wrapped in a piece of paper. While John Montgomery busies himself with his work, the judge explains that the dollar is not an ordinary dollar at all but one that he intends framing and hanging in the curio room of the county library. He then presents the paper in which the coin is wrapped. On it is written, "This is one dollar won from J. E. Montgomery on the post-elect political bet ever made." It seems that John had bet that Umatilla county would give Hughes a 1500 majority over Wilson.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

ular chord in his solo work during the last year, making more noise than music as it were, and he was released. Lou Hodgen was hired in his place, and it would seem that a man who can carry a county can baritone.

A slip of the subtracting Machine. Tribune report Saturday. "Final count in Umatilla county. Hughes 3662, Wilson 4696. Majority 744." And yet they say figures don't lie.

Post-Election Poetry. Election day is o'er And some are mighty sore, But many more are happy as can be, For Wilson is the man. Take his place? Why no one can, He with honor has maintained neutrality.

He will keep us out of war, Just as he has done before, And we'll help those suffering nations get their bread, For we can always brag There's no stain upon our flag, Not as long as Mr. Wilson's at the head.

While excitement was intense, True Americans they proved, more than a few, And we got the president, Who is truly heaven sent, For just such times as we are passing through.

We have all been greatly blest, By our good old loyal west.

Who said that number thirteen was unlucky? For old California's vote Was what captured Charlie's goat, And re-elected Woodrow, who's so plucky.

Some, of course, can't take defeat And acknowledge that they're beat, For they haven't learned yet how to smile and lose. So they get some little runt To pull some meazy stunt Just because we didn't pick out Mr. Hughes.

That "Golden Special" joke At which much fun we poke, And the ladies, too, who cannot vote themselves, Have gone upon their way And we hope that they will stay And lie upon their own respective shelves.

If we cannot sell our pigs We will travel on our twigs, As we did when we went out to cast our ballot. Which kept Woodrow on the job, And not that Wall street mob Whose whole campaign was managed with a mallet.

So forget that pesky song, "All that Wilson does is wrong," And help the one who does his best for you. Forget about this fight, Say that "Wilson will do right," For he's the man who always proves true blue. ALICE B. ROE

MUTTON AND LAMBS STRONG

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—With little price change in the general quotation list, the market for both mutton and lambs continues strong at North Portland. Receipts during the week were liberally increased over the preceding six days but as heretofore little stuff is being forced upon the open market. Killers continue to secure the bulk of the current requirements from their own feed lots in the country.

General mutton and lamb market
Select spring lambs 8.75
Ordinary lambs 8.25
Best yearlings 7.50@7.75
Good to common wethers 5.75@6.00
Best ewes 5.00@5.50
Heavy to common ewes 4.00@4.50
Increased run of hogs and sheep were shown in the North Portland yards for the week, but there was a decrease of offerings in both cattle and calves.

In general considerable strength was shown in the hog division of the local market. Sales were made at fractionally better prices. The best of all was that the demand continues excellent with outside buyers in constant attendance here to secure supplies.

As compared with this same period a year ago the run of hogs into the North Portland yards is showing a very heavy decrease. This is due entirely to the fact that holdings in the immediate Portland territory are smaller than last year and that the eastern markets are getting additional shipments from the interior.

General hog market:
Choice light weights $9.55@9.60
Good light weights 9.40@9.50
Medium weights 9.25@9.35
Rough heavy 8.00@8.50

Cattle Situation Stronger. Much stronger situation is showing in the cattle market at North Portland. While no sales of steers have been made here at the extreme price quoted—$7.25 for tops, the market indicates that if such quality was available, killers would gladly pay it. The fact of the matter is that practically no small fed stuff has been arriving in the North Portland yards this season. The price here is not high enough at the moment to bring forth any response from country shippers. There is too much spread between the local price and that available in the east and in consequence all first class shipments are not coming to the coast yards.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR.

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HER HOME NO LONGER CHILDLESS

Operation not Necessary after Taking the Great Medicine for Women.

Miller's Falls, Mass.—"Doctors said I had displacement very badly and I would have to have an operation. I had a soreness in both sides and a pulling sensation in my right side. I could not do much work the pain was so bad. I was also troubled with irregularity and other weaknesses. My blood was poor. We had been married four years and had no children."

After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I became well and strong and was saved from the operation. We are now the parents of a big baby girl and I praise your remedies to others and give you permission to publish my letter."—Mrs. JOSEPH GUILBAULT, Jr., Bridge Street, Miller's Falls, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is famous for restoring women to normal health and strength. When this is done wives no longer despair of having children.

A woman should be reluctant to submit to a surgical operation until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. If you have a case that needs special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.
