Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

Women who have tried everything for shortening and frying adopt Cottolene finally because they get better results with it than with anything else they can use.

Cottolene is a pure food product, possessing wholesome qualities that are important.

It requires no preparation; mixes easily with flour—is not absorbed by fish, meats or vegetables fried in it.

Your grocer supplies it in large or small pails. Give him your order today.

Why Shamed by Blotchy Skin

If you are a sufferer from Eczema or unsightly pimply skin, you know just what it means to have that humiliating, backward feeling about meeting strangers and offending friends. Many a time you have looked into the mirror and wished that your skin would be like other people that you know, "without a blemish." This wish can be yours for the asking. If you will go to the drugist and procure a bottle of D. D. D., the greatest of all skin remedies, apply it according to directions, in a short time your skin will be as soft as velvet. Come in and ask for a bottle today on our money-back guarantee. Ask also about D. D. D. Soap, that keeps the skin healthy.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Shirley Peters, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Peters, 613 Mark street, was a delightful young hostess on Saturday afternoon when she entertained six of her little girl friends in honor of her sixth birthday. A very pleasant afternoon was spent with games and refreshments.

A very enjoyable surprise party was tendered Iva Beeman on Sturday night by a large number of her friends who gathered at her home on Lincoln street for a delightful evening of dancing. At 9:30 o'clock delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Alberta and Marjorie McMonies, Nellie Nagel, Gladys Griggs, Mary Clark, Mable and Iva Beeman, Gertrude Longmeyer, Emma Gordon, Ruby Bybee, Genevieve Phelps, Helen La Fontaine, Wesley Woodworth, Gilbert Struve, Segal Parlett, Wayne Field, Ned Strahorn, Francis and Paul Peck.

Miss Mayree Snyder, popular young bride-elect, whose wedding is to be an event of the not far distant future, was the inspiration for a charming "shower" for which Miss Marie Parlett was hostess last evening at her home on Madison street. About forty guests were in attendance, a short program and a mock wedding providing much enjoyable diversion. A cleverly arranged fish pond in one corner of the dining room concealed a host of pretty and dainty gifts for the honor guest. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Round-Up Meeting Tonight.

This evening the annual meeting of the Round-Up stockholders will be held for the election of a 1917 board of directors and to receive a report of the 1916 board. One of the present directors, H. W. Collins, exhibition director, has handed in his resignation but the board has not acted upon it. Several other directors wish to resign because of the sacrifices serving on the board entails but it is believed they will be prevailed upon to remain. A number of other matters will be discussed and a full attendance is desired.

SHE LIKES IT!
ASK any housewife who has changed the family table drink from a harmful coffee to helpful INSTANT POSTUM whether the change has been a success.

The answer may well induce you to make the change yourself.

Less "nerves," better temper, clearer complexion, improved digestion and steadier heart after a trial, demonstrate conclusively that the change from coffee to POSTUM is a wise move for the whole family.
