TIME WILL TELL—but not this old grandfather's clock; if it could, you'd hear some interesting stories. No, what we mean is this: How is your suit or overcoat going to look a month or two from now?

Hart Schaffner & Marx make clothes that hold their shape as long as they are worn; that require the finest all-wool fabrics and expert tailoring—it's an important thing to consider.

a double breasted variation; the style shows in every line. Others are single breasted; some have belt backs.

We'll show you something to suit your ideas. The prices are low considering the quality you get—$20 and more.

We also have other good coats from $12.50 to $20.00.

A Showing of Exclusive Evening Gowns For Thursday Only

For the benefit of those of our patrons who desire something entirely out of the ordinary for the coming social occasions, we offer for one day only an exclusive showing of Parisian creations. All the most modern style ideas which feature the filmy tulle, metallic and sequin trimming are embodied in their construction.

The variety of color affords considerable latitude for choosing the shade that best suits your complexion.

These gowns will be here Thursday through the courtesy of one of New York's largest costume creators and it will pay you to make their inspection your particular duty for Thursday.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN MRS. D. W. THURSTON BY MOTHERS-TEACHERS' CLUB.

Happy Family Reunion at Home of Mrs. Mary Montgomery—The W. C. T. U. Meets With Mrs. E. E. Geist—Other Newsy Notes.

(East Oregonian Special.)

HELIX, Nov. 15.—The recent cold weather put a stop to seeding and plowing. Monday morning the temperature was 2 degrees above zero. There was a light shipment of wheat last month owing to a shortage of cars.

Rev. D. W. Thurston and family left Tuesday for Elma, Wash.

The last regular meeting of the Mothers and Teachers' Club will be held at the home of its president, Mrs. W. H. Albee, Friday next.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. E. E. Geist Friday last. There was a good attendance, and a new member, Mrs. Minnie Walker, was secured. Reports were made by Mrs. E. E. Geist, and Mrs. J. Griswold, delegates to the state convention, and by Mrs. J. S. Norvell, a visitor. The union will meet at the homes of its members during the winter, the next meeting to be at Mrs. I. Hutchison's.

The farewell party given to Mrs. D. W. Thurston by the Mothers' and Teachers' Club at the home of Mrs. M. L. Morrison Saturday afternoon, was an enjoyable affair. 20 of its members being present. Excellent music was furnished by Mrs. T. W. Drew and Mrs. Victor Mason at the piano and vocal solo by Misses Eleanor and Augusta Stockton. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. D. W. Thurston guest of honor, Mesdames H. Grady, N. Curtis, W. H. Davidson, M. D. Smith, W. H. Albee, E. L. Norvell, L. Clark, J. S. Norvell, A. L. Grover, E. E. Geist, T. M. Cook, R. McConnell, Misses Sarah Montgomery, Eleanor and Augusta Stockton.

There was a happy family reunion at the home of Mrs. Mary Montgomery Sunday. All her children being present except Robert, of King Hill, Idaho. Present were Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Montgomery of Baker, Alex. of King Hill, Idaho, and J. T. and son Lloyd, of Pendleton, Mrs. Lucy Howard and daughter Helen, of Woodburn, and Mrs. W. H. Albee and Miss Sarah of Helix.

Word comes from St. Anthony, Idaho, that A. P. Myrick, well known throughout the country, is improved in health. He suffered a paralytic stroke recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Leroy of Walla Walla, were guests at the Mason home during the week.

Abraham Casey has moved to Ashton, Idaho, where he purchased a farm.

J. Powers was in town a few hours last week, while moving from Weston to Holdman.

Mrs. Minnie Walker is having her ranch house improved and repainted. Mr. Heiles, civil war veteran of Wallula, was here during the week.

J. J. Lewis and J. Griswold were Attala visitors Friday.

J. Slack has returned to Missouri after an absence of two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hicks and Mrs. Ira Scott were guests at the Kern home Sunday.

Miss Opal Rice, a Cold Spring teacher, spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Norvell, motored to Pendleton Friday.

Mrs. J. McLaughlin left Saturday for her home in Condon.

Mrs. J. W. Stockton and Misses Eleanor and Augusta of Ferndale, visited Saturday and Sunday with their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. L. Norvell.

G. Lorenzen and E. Westersund of Juniper were Saturday visitors.

L. D. Owens of Wallula was a Sunday visitor.

Mrs. Norvell Holt and children left for their new home near La. Cross, the last of the week.

Mrs. V. V. Kerley, G. E. Smith, George McGranahan, Charles Alspach and Miss Jean McGregor attended the convention at Milton Saturday for the Rebekahs. They report a splendid session and an enjoyable time.

F. M. Ghormley of Pomeroy, Wash., was in town the first of the week, looking for a location for mercantile business.

Mrs. Mattie Benson of Walla Walla, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Catherine Stanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coyle were Sunday visitors from Walla Walla.

Mrs. W. H. Morrison left Tuesday to visit her parents at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. King and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Timmerman spent Saturday and Sunday in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Furlinger were here Sunday from Cold Spring. Mr. Furlinger left on the afternoon train for Alberta, where he has property interests.

Mrs. B. Fisher of Touchet was in town Monday.

The Thurston family was entertained at dinner Sunday at the Geist home.

J. L. Bayse of Attalia was a Tuesday visitor.

Somehow we can't help feeling sorry for an ex-hero.
