TRY "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS IF SICK OR BILIOUS

TONIGHT! CLEAN YOUR BOWELS AND STOP HEADACHE, COLIC AND SOUR STOMACH.

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out Cascares and keep them out with Cascares.

Millions of men and women take a Cascares now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascares clean your stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food, take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascares tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascares because they never gripe or sicken.

MIXED LIVER.

Cut liver into small pieces and fry with salt pork; then cut into small bits, nearly cover with water, add pepper and a little lemon juice. Thicken the gravy with fine bread crumbs and serve.

Beware of people whose politeness is excessive.

But the innocency of a lawyer isn't wise for his clients.

Daily Chats With the Housewife

DICTATES OF FASHION.

Jet is one of the smart hat trimmings this year and so there are many jet ornaments for sale. Tassels of beads are an easy trimming for a hat. They must be placed with skill of course, to look right. There are various little jet ornaments that can be bought for trimming hats. These are especially smart used on velvet hats. A small metal ribbon bow and metal tassel is a pretty hat trimming, it is placed on a ribbon hat band so that the tassel dangles over the crown of the hat.

CHOCOLATE CARAMELS.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar, 1-2 cup of milk, and 1-4 pound of unsweetened chocolate. Put on the fire until melted, stirring only enough to prevent burning. Let it boil until it sugars around the edge; then remove from the fire, and add a teaspoon of butter, a pinch of salt, and 1-2 teaspoon of vanilla. Stir briskly until quite stiff, so that it will barely pour. Ten minutes is about boiling time. Pour on buttered tin plates and cut in squares.

NOUGAT.

Blanch 1 pound of sweet almonds in boiling water. When stripped of the skins, cover them with ice water for five minutes. Take them out and dry them between two cloths, and shave with a sharp knife into thin slips. Put them into a slow oven until they are very slightly colored. Meanwhile, melt 3-4 of a pound of fine white sugar, without adding water, in a porcelain kettle over the fire, stirring it all the while to keep it from burning. When it bubbles up and is quite melted, take off the kettle and instantly stir in the hot almonds. Pour in the nougat; press it thin and flat to the bottom of the pan. If you mean to cut it into strips—to the sides of the mold, if you intend to fill it with syllabub or macaroons. Let it cool in the mold, for the latter purpose, withdrawing it carefully when you want it. If you cut it up, do so while it is still warm—not hot. The sirup should be a bright yellow before putting in the almonds.

PEPPERMINT DROPS.

To 2 level cups of sugar add 1-2 cup water, and cook until it forms a hard ball when dropped in cold water. Have ready the white of 1 egg, beaten stiff; pour in the sugar, beating all the time, then add 1-2 teaspoon of essence of peppermint. Drop by teaspoonfuls on waxed paper or other greased surface.

PENOUCHE.

Boil slowly for 20 minutes 2 cups of brown sugar, 1-2 cup of milk and 2 tablespoons butter. When it makes a soft ball in water, remove from the fire and beat until it begins to grow thick. Add 1-2 cup of shelled pecans or English walnuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring, if desired, and pour on to buttered tins.

MARSHMALLOW DATES.

Cut marshmallows into thirds, using the pink and white ones. Wipe the dates, remove the stones, and insert a piece of the marshmallow. Press together, letting a line of the pink or white show, and roll in granulated or powdered sugar. Pile both kinds on a pretty bonbon dish for serving.

CANNELON OF BEEF.

Pass 2 pounds of round steak through the food chopper several times; add 1-2 cup of bread crumbs, pressed dry after having been soaked in water, 1 well-beaten egg, 1 tablespoon of finely chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1 teaspoon of onion juice, 1-2 teaspoon of mace, and 1-2 teaspoon of pepper. Mix all the ingredients thoroughly, and shape in a roll. Bake on a rack in a small pan 20 or 30 minutes, in a hot oven. Baste frequently with fat from salt pork and hot water, or 1-2 cup butter melted in 1 cup boiling water.

of Pendleton, daughter, on the witness stand yesterday.

At night, a few hours after the funeral of Mrs. Dale last spring, Mrs. Mathews and her husband went to the apartments of Mrs. Mathews' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Tobias of Seattle, at the Benson Hotel, testified Mrs. Mathews. The conversation veered around to the property of the deceased.

"Mrs. Tobias said that if grandmother had left everything to her that she would divide with me, and asked me if I would divide with her if all was left to me," was the testimony of Mrs. Mathews regarding that conversation. "I promised I would."

Nothing was said of the will of March 19, 1916, at that time, said the witness. Mr. Tobias has testified to knowing of the existence of that will, leaving all the property to his wife and daughter, Helen, several months before Mrs. Dale's death.

That her daughter and son-in-law conspired to turn her mother against her, so that they would receive the major share of the aged woman's property, was further testimony of

Mrs. Mathews. She told of a visit to the home of the Tobiases in Seattle in the spring of 1914, in which the relationships were friendly and a proposed building on the Dale property was amicably discussed. Then, two weeks later, when she visited Mrs. Dale in Portland, Mrs. Mathews found her mother "awfully angry" with her. She learned, she said, that the cause was that Mr. and Mrs. Tobias had told her mother before the dying woman was trying to "beat her out of her property." Mrs. Mathews said she went to see her mother every day while in Portland, but that Mrs. Dale refused to talk to her. When Mrs. Mathews returned to Pendleton, she had spoken with her mother for the last time, for the telegram summoning her to the bedside of Mrs. Dale in Seattle last spring came too late for her to reach her mother before the dying woman was unconscious.

Will Never Be Without This Simple Remedy

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN

RELIEVED HER BABY WHEN NOTHING ELSE WOULD. Little Max Pendergrast is now four years old and a fine healthy boy. When but a tiny baby, in fact almost from birth, he suffered a great deal from constipation. His mother, Mrs. Carl W. Pendergrast, Red Key, Ind., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, obtained a bottle of it from the drug store, and with it was able to quickly correct this condition.

Mrs. Pendergrast says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has saved them from calling the doctor many times, and that she will never be without a bottle of it in the house to use when needed. She found it equally effective as a laxative for herself and other members of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, pleasant to the taste, mild in action and positive in effect. It does not gripe or strain and contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is the ideal family laxative, mild and pleasant for baby, yet acting quickly on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective

Max Pendergrast substitutes be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

The Tone You Can't Forget

PASS through an art gallery and how many pictures do you remember? Only one or two stand out distinctly. So it is with pianos.

The Ellington Piano

tone is different, distinctive, remarkable in its richness and brilliancy. It is the masterpiece of piano tones of its class. It appeals to your ear just as a fine painting appeals to your eye. You can't help but remember it. Everyone in the home circle loves it.

No other instrument at the price can equal this marvelous tone—it is the result of unequalled facilities in the making.

We are now showing a large variety of styles. Come, see and hear them. Terms very reasonable.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOYD, 1355 North Gulick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Free confidential advice had by addressing Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

EQUITABLE DIVISION PACT ALLEGED IN THE MATHEWS WILL SUIT

(Oregonian.) Equitable division of the $20,000 estate of the late Anna E. Dale between daughter and granddaughter was always understood up to the time of Mrs. Dale's death, both parties to the will contest in the court of Coun. Judge Cleeton have asserted. The first intimation that his understanding was to have been carried out by the heirs, regardless of the terms of the will left by Mrs. Dale, was given by Mrs. Nannie Mathews

"I have used K C BAKING POWDER for a great many years and have yet to experience a failure in baking with it.

"I believe in the 'safety first' idea and am sure of best results when I use K C.

"Yes, I have used others, higher priced powders too, but have always gone back to the old reliable."

KC BAKING POWDER

is always sure to give satisfactory results. For good, wholesome foods use K C—insist on getting it.
