Particularly interesting and enjoyable was the meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club for which Mrs. John Halley, Jr., was hostess Saturday afternoon in the club room of the library. "Japanese Applied Art, Designs in Lacquer, Enamel, Arms and Embroid, Forms and Screens," provided the general topic and it was interpreted by the following papers: "Metals Used in Japanese Applied Art," "Ensigns and Arms," Mrs. John Vert; "Lacquer, Enamel and Cloisonne," Mrs. Roy Bishop; "The Story of the Mirror," Miss Loree O'Connell; "Swords, Fans and Screens," Mrs. Lina Sturgis. During the afternoon Miss Mildred Berkeley sang several delightful songs, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Vincent and Mrs. F. E. Rodden gave a beautiful piano solo. The room was attractively decorated for the occasion, a quantity of Navajo rugs, Oregon grapes and pink carnations, the club flower, forming a pretty setting. An excellent collection of oak wood, cloisonne and other specimens added an especial note of charm.

The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Vert and Mrs. Bishop.
