"See How That Corn Comes Clean Off!"

"GETS-IT" Loosens Your Corns Right Off, It's the Modern Corn Wonder—Never Fails.

It's hard to believe anything could act like that in getting a corn off. Why, I just tried that corn right off with my finger nail. "GETS-IT" is certainly wonderful! Yes, "GETS-IT" is the most wonderful corn cure ever known because you don't have to feel and pucker around with your corns, burn them up with bandages or try to dig them out.

"GETS-IT" is a liquid. You put on a few drops in a few seconds. It dries. It's painless. Put your stockings on right over it. Put on your regular shoes. You won't slip or have a corn "twist" in your face. The corn, callus or wart, will loosen from your foot—off it comes. Glory hallelujah! "GETS-IT" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world. When you try it, you know why.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25¢ a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by: Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Pendleton and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Tallman & Co., Pendleton Drug Co. and Thompson's Drug Store.

SOME ARTISTS DESERVE ARREST, SAYS MR. BRUSH

Many Modern Paintings Would Have Been Suppressed Ten Years Ago, He Declares.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—"Artists are producing canvasses today for which they ought to be arrested. Ten years ago if an effort had been made to exhibit some paintings being shown today the police would have been called in. Real art is on the wane; it has become so enmeshed in the mad whirl and swirl of modern times that true artistic sense is deadened."

That, in substance, is the opinion expressed today by George De Forest Brush, one of the foremost artists of today who is honor guest tonight at a reception by the department of fine arts of Carnegie Institute in the galleries of the institute.

Today real artists are few and far between, Mr. Brush declared. People are rapidly losing their appreciation of the artistic and almost everything is machine made.

"HIGH COST" POOR PLEA

Boy's Excuse for Sealing Bathing Shoes Falls in Court.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—"The high cost of living made me do it. My mother can't afford to buy me shoes now," said thirteen-year-old Thomas McCarty of No. 1925 Second avenue when arraigned before Magistrate Groeshl in the night court last evening on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from Harold Rothman of No. 194 Rivington street from the public bath, No. 342 East Fifty-fourth street.

The magistrate did not seem to be impressed with the "high cost" excuse and held the boy in $500 bail for special sessions.

UKIAH GETS LONG NEEDED RAINFALL

WELLS THAT HAD GONE DRY ARE NOW FILLING; STAGE DRIVER HAS HARD TRIP.

Small Blaze in Gip Huston's Home Is Put Out by Quick Work of Fayette Mettles Who Discovers Fire While Riding by House.

(East Oregonian Special.)

UKIAH, Dec. 1.—The long needed rain began falling Friday night which continued all night, all day Saturday and Saturday night, which will be appreciated by all as several wells have gone dry and the rest are very low.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Laurance left Thursday for Pendleton, taking their son Irwin down for medical treatment. When they reached Pendleton they decided to take him on to Portland.

The stage driver met with all kinds of hard luck in the mud Saturday. Started from Pilot Rock with the truck but had to go back part way and get horses and wagon and did not reach Ukiah until 4:30 Sunday morning.

Mrs. J. A. Bolin and son Clark who have been visiting on Butter creek for a week returned home Friday.

Mrs. Robert Moore left for Gurdane Saturday to remain till after Thanksgiving with her son and daughters and their families.

An excellent program was rendered by the Literary Society last Friday night at the church. A dialogue by the ten following ladies, Mrs. Childers, Miss Alice Huston, Bell, Clara and Helen McKenna, Yesta and Irene Kirk, Myrtle Wachter and Frankie and He Sturdivant was one round of laughter from start to finish, after which the society adjourned till after Christmas owing to other entertainments.

There will be a Christmas tree and program given at the church in Ukiah on Christmas which will be free to all. A small blaze was discovered in the roof of Gip Huston's house by Fayette Mettles when riding by Monday night. He leaped from his horse and was on top of the house in short order, and with a few buckets of water soon had the blaze under control.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson is seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia, at their home in Ukiah. Dr. DeVaul is attending her.

William Meenz was in town Saturday with beef which he soon disposed of.

A birthday party was given on the 11th of this month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant in honor of their young son Claves' 14th birthday, when about thirty of his friends and school mates were royally entertained till midnight with music, games, dancing and a lunch.

Walter Allison returned from Pendleton Monday evening.

J. H. Mettles is building a large new house on his farm one mile west of Ukiah.

J. H. Lucke of Pendleton was in town Wednesday buying horses.

George Stuart, of Hatten, Washington, was in town Wednesday and purchased seven head of work horses for his wheat ranch from Mossie and sons.

Paul Clark of Alba and Clyde Helmick of Bridge Creek, left for Cannon City Thursday where they were subpoenaed as witnesses.

George Caldwell left for Ritter Monday with a bunch of horses which he intends to have wintered there.

Alex McKenna returned from Pendleton Tuesday evening leaving Mrs. McKenna at the hospital where she was doing nicely after her operation for tumor.

Noel Warden of Portland arrived Tuesday to remain here during the winter.

Mrs. S. J. Helmick left for Bridge Creek Wednesday to be absent several days.

Ed Thrasher who has been ill with typhoid fever for several weeks is now able to sit up and is getting along as well as could be expected, and will soon be out and around town.

Lloyd Stuart of Pilot Rock was in Ukiah this week selling lamps.

Mr. Cummings the creamery man, left Friday morning for Halfway, where he will work in the creamery there until Christmas, when he will remain until the first of February when he will return here to get things ready for spring, as Mr. Emigh intends to make cheese here. Mrs. Cummings will have charge of the creamery here during Mr. Cummings' absence and will receive and ship the cream to Walla Walla.

D. G. Smith who took Mr. and Mrs. Laurance to Pendleton Thursday had to return in the mud, but says the little Ford gave him no trouble whatever and he arrived all O. K. Saturday and is ready to go again.

C. B. Sturdivant who has been visiting in Portland for the last two weeks, returned Saturday or Sunday, as he was a passenger on the stage which did not arrive till Sunday morning at 4:30.

Frank Gilliland who is hauling freight for the Ukiah Mercantile Co. left for his home at Gurdane Saturday for a few days visit with his family. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mettles left for Pendleton Friday to attend the funeral of their grandchild, the Chapman baby.

The many friends of Miss Dickey DeVaul will be pleased to learn that she has become a homesteader, having filed on a homestead southeast of Pilot Rock and will become a permanent resident of eastern Oregon.

The building purchased by J. D. Kirk to be used temporarily as a drug store, has been moved on the ground where the former drug store stood and Sanford Chilton is putting in the shelves and getting it ready for the stock of drugs which will arrive soon. Mr. Canfield was in town Monday on business.

private homes, clubs and boarding houses. Several men said they willingly would go to Poughkeepsie. Most of the more than 100 hotels in the association turned away more than twice their capacities during the day. Men who should know said it looked as if 10,000 persons with money in their pockets would go hotel-less in New York last night.

Amusements

What the press agents say about Pendleton's present and coming attractions.

The One and Only "Everywoman" Company in America.

Theatergoers who have been misled by managerial pretensions of alleged New York productions which are presented by companies of actors which have never played in the metropolis, with the scenery and costumes cut down to meet the requirements of "the road," will surely appreciate the efforts of Henry W. Savage, who is sending the big dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," to this city where it will be offered at the Oregon theater on Tuesday, December 5.

This is the only company presenting "Everywoman" in America, just as it was the only company presenting "Everywoman" in America last season. The company is just as nearly the same as it was possible for the managerial skill to make it. In a company requiring thirty-seven speaking characters it is next to impossible to keep exactly the same cast from season to season. Actors are only human; they die, change their profession, advance, retrograde, like other human beings. Yet as near as possible the cast of "Everywoman" is the same this year as it was last year, and the same last year as it was the year before. Some of the original creators of the various roles are still playing the characters and have done so since the opening performance five years ago. The scenic equipment is just as elaborate and in every way an exact duplicate of that used at the first performance. Everything was made new this season. It is fresh and spick and span. The costumes are

1,800,000 INSURANCE ON AUTO MAN'S LIFE

H. T. Dunn of Toledo Will Have to Pay About $1000 a Week in Premiums.

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—Life insurance totaling $1,800,000 has been taken out by Harry Thatcher Dunn of Toledo, O., president of the Pisk Rubber Company and vice president of the Willy-Overland company. A story to this effect in the Eastern Underwriter, a trade paper, in its issue of today, was verified by the World last night.

Part of the insurance is for a term of an average of ten years to protect Mr. Dunn in a business way, and the balance is for a monthly income for the protection of his wife and daughter. An official of one of the companies in which Mr. Dunn is insured told a reporter for the World that Mr. Dunn will pay an annual premium of about $50,000.

Frederick N. Fuller of Springfield, Mass., general agent of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, placed the insurance. Mr. Dunn once lived in Springfield. Mr. Dunn was examined by five doctors, representing 12 companies and the business was concluded in four days. A number of companies assumed their limits, the Mutual Life carrying $248,000. Mr. Dunn is forty-one years old.

Mr. Julian S. Myrick of Ives & Myrick of the Mutual Life said last night that three or four other men carry more life insurance than Mr. Dunn, among them Rodman Wamaker, who is supposed to be insured for $4,000,000.

7000 HEROIN TABLETS FOUND IN WOMAN'S ROOM AT HOTEL

Guest at Jefferson Arrested by Federal Authorities; Her Companion Is Hunted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Wearing a small fortune in diamonds, and plentifully supplied with money, a young woman was arrested in her room at Hotel Jefferson last night at the request of the federal authorities. More than 7000 heroin tablets and a small quantity of morphine was found in the room.

The woman gave the name of Helen Andrews. With George Andrews she has been living at the hotel for the last four days. Attention first was directed to her when two sets of furs were missing from the room of a traveling salesman, and in the search for the furs the drugs were discovered. The house detective notified the federal officials, believing the pair were operating in violation of the anti-drug act.

Andrews was not at the hotel when the young woman was arrested and city and federal police are hunting for him.

HOTELS ARE CROWDED FOR ARMY-NAVY GAME

Victors Are Reluctant to Taking Anything South of Poughkeepsie or East of Newark.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Scene: Lobby of Anyold Hotel in New York yesterday. It is thronged with men and women with pockets full of money and nowhere to sleep. Dramatis Personae: A man looking for a room. A clerk.

Note—The authors, the Army-Navy game and the Yale-Harvard game of today, who collaborated with Al-ready Crowded Conditions, of course, are not seen.

Man—Got room?
Clerk—Where would you like it, sir?

Man (having heard others in the same fix, and having visited thirty-eight other hotels)—Oh, anywhere south of Poughkeepsie, north of Trenton, west of Hicksville, L. I., or east of Newark.

Clerk—Well, many persons have got rooms in Brooklyn and Newark. I'll see what I can do. (Telephone ring) Give me Madison Square 6230. Hello! Hotel Men's Association? This is Anyold Hotel. Can you dig up a room?

This one-act sketch was played thousands of times in New York yesterday. The Hotel Men's Association found many lodgings for the overflow in Newark and Brooklyn, in
