

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

By far the prettiest and most successful Elks Ball that has been given in a number of years was held in Eagle-Woodman Hall last evening. The affair was of a strictly formal nature and no detail that would add to the pleasure or comfort of the dancers was overlooked. Long, graceful streamers of purple and white were looped from the chandeliers to the corners and sides of the hall where they were caught up with clusters of purple and white poinsettias. The stage was especially lovely, the whole platform and seven piece orchestra, being almost entirely concealed beneath a bank of soft greenery and tall palm standards through which soft-colored lights gleamed attractively. A large elk's head surmounted the whole.

The punch bowl was stationed in a corner of the dancing hall while coffee and sandwiches were served in the banquet room, the long tables being aglow with huge bowls of vivid chrysanthemums. As a pretty welcome each woman guest was presented with a monster chrysanthemum upon her entrance into the hall. A large number of dancers were in attendance and some especially attractive gowns were in evidence.

Another dancing party that promises to be of much interest is the one for which Mrs. George Peringer, Mrs. Newton Burruss, Mrs. George Fell, Mrs. Joseph Tallman, Mrs. Charles Greulich and Mrs. Wilson Brock will be hostesses in Eagle-Woodman Hall on Wednesday evening, December twentieth.

HIGH COST OF FOOD PROTEST SWEEPS COUNTRY

With several congressmen and senators enlisted in the fight to procure a food embargo and the Housewives' League advocating a boycott on eggs; the fight to bring about an inquiry or steps to reduce the high price of food stuffs is sweeping the country today.

Representative John J. Fitzgerald, of New York, is leading the movement in the house for an embargo on food. It is his contention that Americans should be fed first, and that if there is anything left over it may then be shipped to the warring nations. In this he is now supported by Representative Frank Buchanan, of Illinois, and Senator Martine, of New Jersey.

The American Federation of Labor, of which Samuel Gompers is president, has just gone on record as favoring a food embargo to cut prices. This action of the labor federation was taken by unanimous vote, with the suggestion that the embargo remain in effect until "prices are restored to normal."

George W. Perkins is chairman of the New York City Food Commission, and has just assured Mayor Mitchell, of New York, that he can count upon the necessary financial support to set the City of New York up in the coal business, a step the mayor threatened to take unless the price of coal is reduced. It is planned to have the wagons and trucks of the street cleaning department deliver the coal.

Mrs. Julian Heath is president of the Housewives' League.

G. E. Merwin of Salem is a guest of the Pendleton.

Paul Lucas of Klamath Falls is a guest of the Golden Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morrison are in from their home at Helix.

Dr. J. A. Donahue, former veterinary surgeon of this place, has been back upon a short visit from eastern Washington where he is at present located.

BLOOM ON LIPS ALSO JUMPS WITH OTHER NECESSITIES

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Even the cost of beauty is increasing in Chicago. This became known today at a meeting of the Chicago Retail Druggists' association, at which it was announced that Carmine, sometimes used to make lips temptingly red and cheeks bloom prettily, today costs five times as much as it did three years ago.

ARCHBOLD IS VERY LOW

TARRYTOWN, Dec. 1.—Archbold is very weak. Doctors announced that he is "holding his own."

The statement added: "Mr. Archbold spent a comfortable night. He appeared to gain strength this morning. There is still hope for his recovery."

Despite the blood transfusion Archbold's condition has but slightly changed during several days. He has been ill since November ninth. The trouble was originally diagnosed as appendicitis.
