What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

Pastime Presenting New Film Company Today, Jane Grey in "The Flower of Faith."

The Pastime's offering for Sunday-Monday will present to Pendleton theatergoers a brand new film company. The International Film Service, William Randolph Hearst, owner of the largest chain of newspapers in the U. S. A. is at the head of this company. Their first offering, "The Flower of Faith" with Jane Grey and Frank Mills is a pretentious picture and one that the Pastime management guarantees to please.

"The Flower of Faith" shows seductive love scenes in daisy field and woodland. Thrilling adventures with beautiful scenery, the tragedy of an evangelist father's misconception of a secret visit by his daughter to the cabin of an unbeliever, flaring torches aloft against the night to mark the gathering of a band of night riders, self appointed executioners of a grim frontier justice. The final triumph of faith and love, all this culminating with the most sensational storm scene ever shown in pictures.

Charlie Chaplin in His Very Latest Picture at Pastime Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the Pastime Theater is presenting "Behind the Screen," featuring the one and only Charlie Chaplin in his latest picture. Critics the country over pronounce this feature one of Charlie's best. The $500,000 comedian has spared no pains in making "Behind the Screen" full of laughs.

In addition to this Chaplin picture will also be shown Helen Holmes in "The Lass of the Lumberlands," a virile, red-blooded drama of the lumberlands with the giant red-wood trees for a background.

There are many sensational and thrilling scenes in "The Lass of the Lumberlands" and lovers of the daring will see Helen Holmes in many hair-raising stunts in this picture.

World Famous Hypnotist Coming to Alta Theater.

Dr. Herbert H. Travelutte who is heralded as one of the greatest living hypnotists, always plays to packed houses and receives favorable press notices. The following was clipped from the Lethbridge Herald, Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, where he played several weeks ago.

Tonight will be your last chance to see the great Dr. Travelutte, who for the past week has been giving hypnotic performances at the Orpheum. During the entire week his performances have been greeted with packed houses and have been excellent in every detail. He is said to be the creator of a million laughs, and if those that he secured while in the city be counted in we would guess that the total will soon reach a million and a half. Tonight he has reserved for the ladies and he expects a very large class as he has hypnotized many young ladies at private parties that have promised to come on the stage and he also announced last night he had reserved the best for the last so the people in Lethbridge would be laughing when he is gone, but not forgotten.

MOTHERLY ROLES STILL PURSUE NORMA TALMADGE

After Two Single-Blessedness Pictures Triangle Star Again Appears As Youthful Matron in "Fifty-Fifty" at the Temple.

Norma Talmadge, Triangle star, just simply can't keep away from young matron roles. After getting into all kinds of adventures in "Martha's Vindication" through mothering two children not her own and appearing with a flock of little ones in "The Children in the House" and "Going Straight," she settled down for a time to single blessedness in the "Devil's Needle" and "The Social Secretary."

It could not last, however. In her newest play, "Fifty-Fifty," she appears in the opening scenes as an unmarried girl, but the story has not progressed very far before she is married, and subsequent episodes show her with a tiny infant in her arms. In this play the baby plays a big part in the story, the heroine perishing herself by denying that her husband is its father than allow him to have the custody of it when he seeks to divorce her, through an unjust accusation, in order that he may marry another woman.

Miss Talmadge has always made an appealing mother and is said to give a particularly touching characterization in this play. In her supporting cast are J. W. Johnston, Dodson Mitchell, Marie Chambers, Ruth Darling, H. S. Northrup, Frank Currier and W. P. Richmond.

Today is the last day of "Fifty-Fifty."

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

The public speaking class of the high school will stage "The Sophomore," a well known college play, on the 15th of this month. It has been agreed that the tickets will be sold at a low price, so that every one will be able to attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the high school to help in the purchasing of the football sweaters. If a good crowd is on hand, the money secured added to that taken in from the Thanksgiving football game, should be enough to entirely purchase the sweaters.

Explanations of the coal shortage will not help the public to keep warm when zero weather comes.

LA GRANDE SNATCHES VICTORY
 LA GRANDE, Ore., Dec. 4.—By running back and recovering a missed pass, "Lynx" Larsen saved La Grande high school from seeming defeat in the last few minutes of play Saturday between Elgin high and La Grande and scored a touchdown. McDonald kicked goal and La Grande won, 7 to 6. Elgin scored early, but missed goal. Gehnt, Adcock and Holmes were Elgin's stars, while Larsen, Johnson, Collier, Reynolds and Ash played best for La Grande. Elgin jumped to a real contender for football honors in one season under the coaching of Amonino, a graduate of Michigan.

30 PLUMBERS ARE FINED.
 DES MOINES, Dec. 4.—Federal Judge William Pollock fined thirty plumbers twenty-five to a hundred and fifty dollars. They were convicted of fixing prices and violating the Sherman anti-trust law. The judge told the prosecutor: "These men are not criminals. They merely come within the scope of a regulatory law. The longer I sit on this bench the more lenient I grow. I realize these people are part of this country's business. To take them from their business world would be removing something from the country it vastly needs."

 Four other defendants failed to have Pollock reduce thousand dollar fines imposed last summer. In assessing the fines, the judge asked the defendants: "Will the fine impoverish your families and cause hardships?" Many said yes and had their fines lowered.

LONDON'S FIRST WIFE WELL PROVIDED FOR OAKLAND, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Bessie London, the first wife of Jack London, said the property settlement agreed upon years ago amply provided for herself and children. London's will left her only five dollars. She said: "This five dollar bequest means nothing. My daughters and I will continue to live in the family home at Oakland. We have ample means for the support of all of us. Under no circumstances whatever will I surrender the custody of my daughters."

Representative Fitzgerald's plan to place an embargo on food at least will not encourage further unnecessary pegging up of food prices.
