For the last time today the Pastime is presenting the international feature, "Jaffery," a pretentious six act offering featuring C. Aubrey Smith and Eleanor Woodruff. The picture is taken from Harold Locke's great novel and is very interesting and pleasing.
In addition Selig Athletic Pictures showing world champions in action is also on the program.

E. H. SOTHERN MAKES MOTION PICTURE DEBUT

E. H. Sothern, the world's most famous actor makes his debut in motion pictures in the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, "The Chattel," which is the attraction at the Pastime on Sunday and Monday.
Mr. Sothern was born at New Orleans and is the son of the late E. A. Sothern of "Lord Dundreary" fame. He was educated in England and following his father's footsteps he appeared first in Boston in a play-let called "Brother Sam," which the elder Sothern was producing. He then played with the late John E. McCullough for a season, later going to London and appearing in productions there.

Returning to the United States, he toured the country in a repertoire of plays, following which he was seen repeatedly in New York theaters in various plays as leading man, mostly in romantic dramas.
In 1899 he became co-star with Julio Marlow, under the direction of Charles Frohman, which was practically the beginning of his career as a Shakespearean star. Beginning about 1906 he was under the direction of the Schuberts. His industrious career included several European tours and also many revivals of his earlier successes.

The three motion pictures in which Mr. Sothern appears for Vitagraph of which "The Chattel" is the first, will form his last public appearance. When he is through with his work at the Vitagraph Mr. Sothern will retire to private life, taking up his abode in England with his wife, Julia Marjore.

Starting Fear to Be Stated Tonight and Saturday.
"Mighty Bush," one of America's foremost escape artists, a member of the great Travelite Company, will attempt and to attempt with him means to succeed in escaping, from a regulation insane straightjacket while suspended by his feet head downward from a height of about 90 feet in front of the Alta theater. The jacket is the same as used in the large asylums throughout the United States for the restriction of the dangerous insane and will be on exhibition in front of the Alta theater all day.

Saturday afternoon Dr. Herbert I. Travelite will present his much talked of blindfold automobile street drive. Starting in front of the Alta theater at 4 o'clock he will be blindfolded by a local committee. Then he will enter his car and drive over the same course previously driven by a committee of local men and produce an article hidden by them any place in your city.

At the Alta.
As a harum-scurum child of nature, light-hearted and carefree, Blanche Sweet will be seen at the Alta on Friday and Saturday in the thrilling Lasky production of "The Storm," a Paramount Picture. The scenes of this unusual drama were laid in the Main woods and Miss Sweet is seen as a daughter of an absent-minded, retired old professor. How she walls in love—a cloud is cast over her life, only to be dispelled by the man her heart desires in an intense and interesting manner.
Miss Sweet is surrounded by a cast of famous players, headed by Thomas Meighan who recently scored such a success as leading man for Marie Doro in "Common Ground," and who is one of the most popular of the Lasky players. America's leading character actor, Theodore Roberts, and other members of the all-star Lasky organization including Richard Sterling and Chandler House are also included in the cast.

Big Bluebird at the Cosy.
When Jerry Marston found a real poppy on his desk one evening, he knew that he had been marked for death by Hop Li's tong. Years before Jerry had played a crooked business trick on Hop Li, and in temporary reprisal one of the Marston twins then an infant, had been kidnapped. When the red poppy came to Jerry, he knew his end was at hand and frantically fled his weak heart. He was stung dead when Alvin Marston, with his bride, just back from their honeymoon, entered the room and found the old man in the chair where he had just expired. Reared with hatred of the Marstons in his heart, "Chang," the kidnapped twin, who had been raised as a Chinaman by Hop Li, now began further reprisals, and in a series of exciting episodes, fraught with mystery and adventure, "The Sign of the Poppy," to be exhibited at the Cosy tonight only in Bluebird photoplays will conclude the story.

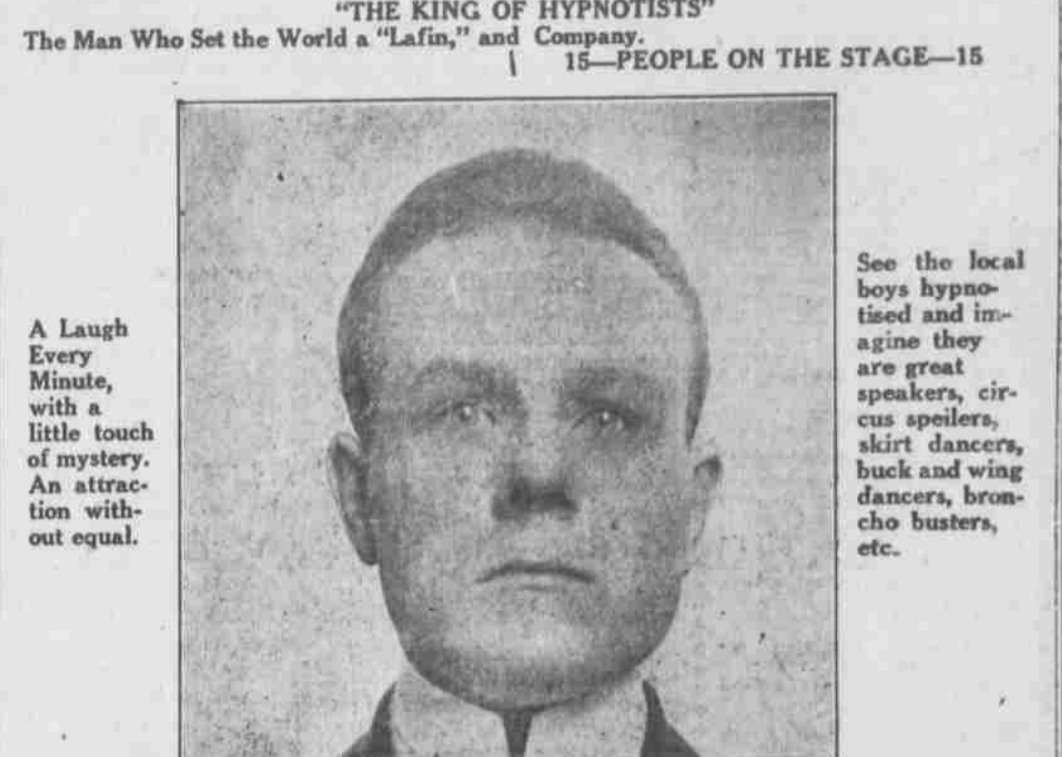

"The Pillory" at the Temple Today and Tomorrow.
In olden times the woman who violated the moral code was placed in a public pillory as a warning, unmindful of the sayings of the gentle Nazarene who they professed to follow, who once said, "Let he that is without sin cast the first stone."
The ancient pillory of the market place has passed, but in its place a new one has been erected—more cruel and unrelenting than its predecessor—the Pillory of Social Opinion.
This is the story of the modern pil-
