Suit Is Dismissed.

On motion of Attorney E. E. Heckbert for the plaintiff, circuit Judge Gilbert W. Phelps has dismissed the case of J. H. Gray against William B. White, Luella L. White and Fred Jensen.

Bundle Day Dec. 14.

Thursday of this week will be Bundle Day in Pendleton and on that day all people are asked to donate clean clothing, furniture, food or anything else which can be used by the needy. Delivery wagons will call for the bundles if notification is sent to Mrs. E. C. Anibal.

Arctic Owl Passes Away.

The Arctic or snowy owl which has been in captivity at the office of Major Lee Moorhouse for the past four or five days, died late yesterday afternoon. It had refused everything offered it to eat during its captivity. It was skinned by Stanley Jewett of the biological survey and the skin will be preserved as a biological specimen.

Funeral of Pomeroy Resident.

At 11 o'clock this morning at the Folsom chapel was held the funeral of Mrs. Jane Davison of Pomeroy, Wash., who died there on the 9th of bronchial pneumonia at the age of 72. Her husband was buried in the local cemetery about two years ago and her body was laid to rest in the same plot. Rev. Charles Quinney of the Church of the Redeemer conducted the funeral and members of the Masonic order acted as pallbearers.

Women to Have Big Class.

Pendleton Camp No. 41, W. O. W., is closing its big membership campaign and on the 18th will hold a class initiation. At the present time a class of 28 is assured, and this will bring the membership up to 425. Another campaign will be started at once, to close during the latter part of January and it is hoped to bring the membership up to 500. John F. Hoyt of Walla Walla, district manager, will remain to assist in that campaign.

Bear Killed Near Town.

A black bear was killed this morning about noon by William McCormach a short distance above Havana station eight miles from town. The bear had evidently been driven out of the mountains on account of lack of food. It was first noted at the McCormach ranch by one of the men and the dogs freed the bruin while Mr. McCormach was notified. Mr. McCormach, W. R. Wilkes and J. W. McCormach went to the farm and the bear was brought to earth by a shot fired by Will McCormach. The animal was brought to town.

Rabies Gets 14 of 15 Cattle.

Indicating the seriousness of the rabies situation in eastern Washington is a letter received this morning by E. F. Averill from A. W. Coffin, prominent North Yakima stockman, in which it is stated that in the Crab creek country east of Ellensburg one stockman has lost 14 out of a herd of 15 cattle. The stockmen are much alarmed at the situation, the letter states.

George Daubner, former well known Umatilla county boy, is here from his home near Gooding, Idaho, visiting friends. Mr. Daubner says that the farmers in his section enjoyed good crops this year and are in a prosperous condition.

Suit on Note.

Anna Mortamer, administratrix of the estate of George W. Mortamer, has brought suit against Marion Marks to collect on an alleged note of $500 executed by defendant to deceased. Fee & Fee represent the plaintiff.

Power Is Shut Off.

Pendleton was without electric power most of the morning on account of a pole burning down on the Walla Walla river near the power plant. The power was shut down again about noon when another pole took fire near Athena. In both cases fire was caused by ignition from the wire off an insulator.

Would Avoid Conflict of Dates.

R. Alexander is in receipt of a letter from Edith Tosier Weathered, one of the directors of the state fair asking for the dates of the Round-Up and expressing the hope that they will not conflict with the state fair. She thinks avoidance of a conflict would result in many Willamette valley people coming up here.

Ask to Adopt Child.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Sanford of Stanfield have petitioned the county court to adopt Allen Kirkreth, a baby who was a year old last August. They represent that the child is under the guardianship of Dr. Edward J. Labbe of Portland who has consented to the adoption. They wish to change its name to Milnor Sanford.

Ford Causes Suit.

Edith M. Fraker today filed suit against the Round-Up City Auto Co. asking for $450 damages. She alleges the company took possession of a Ford car of the value of $300 belonging to her and converted it to their own use. She asks for the value of the car and $150 damages for being deprived of its use. S. A. Newberry is her attorney.

Bootlegger Bagged in Transit.

A stranger giving the name of J. E. Montgomery, carrying a suit case laden with juice of the corn, made the mistake yesterday of getting drunk while on a short stay in Pendleton en route from Salt Lake to North Yakima. He was picked up by the police and, upon the discovery that he was well supplied with liquor, a charge of having liquor in a public place was filed against him. To this

PENROSE SEEKS FEDERAL CONTROL OF NATIONAL ELECTIONS.

SEN. BOIES PENROSE.

Boies Penrose, United States senator from Pennsylvania, who is conducting the fight in congress for the "force bill" which he introduced, designed to give the control of national elections into the hands of the federal government.

What is more appreciated than a diamond ring? Small or large, it's a diamond just the same. Why not start with a small diamond this year and increase the size each year. We will allow full value in exchange each time.

Come in and let us show you a $1000 stock ranging from $1.50 to $100. Don't put it off. Come NOW.
