NEWS OF PENDLETON

Big Turkey Shoot Today.

Many sportsmen from over the county are attending the big turkey shoot at the local gun club grounds today. Earl Coutts is conducting the shoot.

Moose Head for Lodge.

A fine large moose head, consigned to Pendleton lodge of Moose, arrived here this morning from Edward Dixon, taxidermist, at Unionville, Ontario.

Six Inches at Helix.

The snow at Helix was six inches deep this morning, according to passengers on the incoming Northern Pacific train, the fall there being heavier than in Pendleton.

Obstin Is Upheld.

The supreme court yesterday upheld the decision of the Grant county circuit court in favor of Ben Colvin, prominent sheepman, against Lester Goff on a promissory note.

Broken Wire Causes Alarm.

A broken electric wire near the Blewett Harvester plant, caused by the weight of the snow, resulted in the fire alarm bell sounding at midnight last night. The damage was repaired this morning.

Stanfield Loses Appeal.

Yesterday the supreme court of the state dismissed the appeal in the case of R. N. Stanfield, appellant, vs. James Mahon, an action for replevin brought in Harney county. The opinion was given by the whole court.

Acknowledges Appointment.

Congressman N. J. Sniott has acknowledged his appointment by the Pendleton Commercial association to represent that body at the College of Constructive Patriotism soon to meet. He states he will attend if his official duties allow.

Delayed by Wreck.

Train No. 17, westbound, was delayed at Kamela by a small wreck that occurred there last night and did not reach Pendleton until after 3 o'clock today. At 1 o'clock the train was marked to arrive at 3:05 p. m.

Sixteen Enjoy Big Feed.

Al P. Knight, well known young farmer, entertained fifteen of his young friends last evening at the Hotel Pendleton with a pork feed. Having just finished butchering at his farm, he supplied the tables with country sausage, backbones and spareribs.

Twin Girls Born.

Twin baby girls were born on Dec. 18 at St. Anthony's hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buchi. One of the babies weighed four pounds and the other three. The parents live at 212 1/2 Main street. Mrs. Brandberg being a sister of Mrs. Buchi.

Several Inches of Snow.

About three inches of very wet snow fell in Pendleton last night. The snow began about 7 last evening and continued until well into the night. As a consequence of the snow the streets today have been very sloppy. A small flurry of snow fell during the noon hour today and indications are that there may yet be a white Christmas in Pendleton.

Baby's Leg Broken.

Mrs. L. D. Howland of La Grande, formerly of this city and who has been visiting her parents in Walla Walla for some time, slipped on the steps of the Howland home in Walla Walla yesterday morning and fell. She was carrying her nine months old baby at the time and the baby's leg was broken by the fall. Mr. Howland was formerly watermaster of Umatilla county.

Round-Up Films to Be Shown.

At the 1917 convention of the Greater of America, to be held in Boston in July, the motion pictures of the Pendleton Round-Up and of the Columbia Highway will be exhibited to the hotel clerks of the nation through the courtesy of the O-W. R. & N. Co. Oregon apples will also be distributed. This is part of a campaign to secure the 1918 convention in Portland. The Round-Up films will be shown tomorrow at the Star theater in Portland.

Many Wires Down.

The wet snow of last night caused many telephone and electric wires to break under the weight. The entire lead of the telephone company which crosses the N. P. tracks at Star street came down as did the lead crossing the O-W. at Post street. In addition there were about 75 service wires out of commission. One toll line between here and Athena was out but was repaired by 10 this morning. Quite a number of electric wires were also down.

Charged With Gambling.

Walter Roberts, W. Miles and G. Colburn, three of the colored men participating in the card game at the Umatilla Club early yesterday morning which ended in a shooting affray, were charged in police court this morning with gambling and their case has been set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. They have pleaded not guilty and have retained Judge S. A. Lowell to defend them. William Rogers, the man who did the shooting was brought back from Echo yesterday and lodged in the county jail.

Will Clean Docket.

In order to clean the docket of deadwood before Clerk Frank Saling leaves office, notices are being sent to all attorneys to appear in court Dec. 27. All cases stricken from the docket but not yet dismissed will be called and the attorneys asked to explain the disposition which is to be made of them.

Sues For Damages.

Peter Wiedert today brought suit against Anna Mortimer, administratrix of the estate of G. W. Mortimer for $155 alleged to be due as a claim against the estate and $320 damages alleged to be due for defendant's stock grazing on plaintiff's land and for loss of stubble and grass by fire. J. W. Brooks of Walla Walla is representing plaintiff.

Alleged Horse Rustlers Taken.

Sheriff Taylor has received word that Roy Clark, a resident of the Gardena section of the county and wanted in Astoria, Wa., on a horse stealing charge, has been apprehended in San Francisco. His brother, Sank Clark, is already held in Astoria. It is alleged the former drove 14 horses from Washington into this county two months ago and that recently his brother sold three head to Johnson and Linde, farmers. All of the horses have been recovered.
