THE NEW DROP SLEEVE.

A feature of some of the newest sleeve models shows a tendency to return to the old fashioned "bell" sleeve that was in vogue some years ago. Many of the blouses and frocks show sleeves that drop just below the elbow into a pocket of fullness, sometimes caught in at the wrist but often left open, with the cuff of the sleeve closing together below the opening. A handsome velvet coat showed this same sleeve, the opening giving a glimpse of the light satin lining. Presumably the gap would be closed up by the ends of the muff, when the arms were plunged into it.

DIXIE RELISH.

One quart of cabbage, 1 pint of white onions, 1 pint of sweet red pepper, 1 pint of sweet green pepper, 5 tablespoons of salt, 4 tablespoons of mustard seed, 2 tablespoons of crushed celery seed, 3-4 of a cup of sugar, 1 quart of vinegar. Chop fine and put in a kettle. Cover with vinegar and cook slowly until ingredients are tender.

MOCK RASPBERRY MOUSSE.

Soak 1-4 package of gelatine, usually 1 envelope, in 1-4 cup of cold water for half an hour; then dissolve in 1-2 cup of boiling water. Add 1 cup of sugar and stir until dissolved.

then strain into a dish standing in ice water. When cool, add 1 cup of raspberry juice and pulp (raspberries put up in the summer will do,) and the juice of 1 lemon. Beat until light and continue beating until the mixture will hold its shape. Pour into a chilled mold and put in a cold place until firm and ready to serve.

OYSTERS A LA WATTS.

Dip oysters in beaten egg, then in sifted cracker crumbs, season with salt and pepper, then roll in slices of bacon with strips of red and green peppers. Pin together. Broil in a grill.

RICE CREAM.

Scald 2 cups of milk, add 1-4 teaspoon of salt. Mix 1 tablespoon of cornstarch with 1-4 cup of cold milk and add to the hot milk, stirring constantly while making them. Cook 10 minutes. Separate 2 eggs, beat the yolks slightly and add to the cornstarch. Cook 5 minutes. Remove from the fire and add 1 teaspoon of vanilla. Put 1 cup of cooked rice in a pudding dish, pour the cream slowly on it, mixing it well into the rice. Make a meringue by beating the whites of the 2 eggs stiff and dry. Add 2 tablespoons of sugar, beat well, flavor with 1-2 teaspoon of vanilla, and 1-4 teaspoon of lemon extract. Drop in small spoonfuls over the top of the pudding. Brown delicately and serve cold.

PRESERVED GINGER.

Pare the roots of green ginger and lay in cold water 15 minutes. Boil in 3 waters, changing the hot for cold every time, until tender; then drain and lay in ice water. For the sirup, allow 1 1-4 pounds of sugar for every pound of ginger and a cup of water for ever pound of sugar. Boil and skim until the scum ceases to rise. When the sirup is cold, wipe the ginger dry and drop it in. Let it stand 24 hours. Drain off and reheat the sirup. This time put the ginger in when only warm. Do not look at it again for two days. Then reboil the sirup, and pour over the ginger scalding hot. In a week drain off once more, boil, and add again while hot to the ginger. Cover closely. It will be fit for use in a fortnight.

PORTLAND TO SEE HEADLIGHT

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 20.—How to get a permit to drive a horse that does not need reins to guide it is a puzzle that kept Floyd Gevin, a member of the Spokane police department, ment, in hot water here for several hours.

Mr. Gevin drove the horse, Headlight, from the east without a rein, and in Spokane it is a familiar sight to see Mr. Gevin "driving" his pet equine.

"I want to get a permit," said Mr. Gevin when he went to Mayor Albee's office, "to drive Headlight without reins through the streets." Mayor Albee referred Mr. Gevin to Police Chief Clark. "And have the horse run away with you and kill somebody," the chief said. "You'd better see Harry P. Coffin, chairman of the public service board."

Mr. Coffin was seen and he gave the long-sought permit. Tomorrow Mr. Gevin will drive his reinless equine.

GIRL WIFE OF 15 FAINTS ON STREET HUNTING HUSBAND

Penniless Child, About to Become Mother, Collapses Looking for Runaway Mate.

DENVER, Dec. 21.—Penniless, a stranger and on the verge of motherhood, Labata Agureta, a 15-year-old Mexican girl, who came to Denver several days ago in search of her husband, who deserted her six weeks ago collapsed at Tenth and Champa streets yesterday. She was removed to the maternity ward of the county hospital and the police took up the search for the delinquent mate.

According to the story she told Sergeant Patterson and Police Surgeon McKelvey, she was married at Trinidad last January. In the latter part of October her husband disappeared from their home leaving her practically destitute. With money obtained from friends in Trinidad she trailed him from one coal camp to another in the vicinity of that place, arriving at each successive camp just too late to overtake him. A week ago she came to Denver in hope of finding him here. She had only enough money to pay a week's rent for a room in a cheap lodging house. When the week elapsed she was invited to seek lodging elsewhere but there was nowhere she could go, so she walked the streets until weakness brought about the collapse which resulted in her removal to the hospital.

WOMAN IS ROBBED OF $300 IN DARING DAYLIGHT HOLDUP

Highwayman Presses Revolver at Her Side As She Gazes in Shop Window.

DETROIT, Dec. 16.—Mrs. Wiener of San Francisco was robbed of $300 within a block of her hotel here yesterday. Mrs. Wiener was gazing into a shop window on Washington boulevard wondering what she could buy as a Christmas present for her invalid husband, after holding out enough to pay her hotel bill and her transportation home. Just as she decided on what to purchase a young man appeared on each side of her and a third placed the muzzle of a revolver against her side. She was told to keep quiet or be killed. The men at her side went through the side pocket of her coat and took an envelope containing the $300. Persons passing not far from her evidently believed the four were merely holding a conversation. The holdups sneaked away one at a time.
