SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Westbrooke Dickson and daughter Mary Louise, left today for Portland to spend the holidays with relatives. Mrs. Dickson will return immediately after Christmas.

Miss Mary Corrigan and Fred Hoskins, both prominent young people of the Butter creek country, were quietly married last night at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. B. E. Gornall. Mrs. Hoskins is the daughter of the well known stockman, while Mr. Hoskins was one of the most prominent athletes of the Pendleton high school and is a son of J. H. Hoskins. The young couple will make their home at Echo.

Miss Hazel Rader, formerly of this city, and now one of the athletic instructors at the University of Oregon, arrived in Pendleton this morning en route to Athena to spend the holidays as a guest of Miss Ruth Rothrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell L. Rogers and daughter, Miss Lola Rogers, will leave Christmas night for San Francisco from where they will sail for Hawaii to spend several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. John Adams are now in Portland and will join the Rogers on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young left today for Portland to spend the holidays with Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cord Semstake. Before returning they will go on to Eugene to visit Mr. Young's parents, Prof. and Mrs. F. G. Young.

Carl Peringer left last evening for New York, where he will visit with friends for a month or six weeks. En route home Mr. Peringer will stop off at Akron, Ohio, to spend some time with his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dolph, who have been making their home in the eastern city since their recent marriage.

Pendleton Review met Tuesday afternoon in Eagle-Woodman hall for a delightful Christmas session. A short business meeting preceded the affair, after which a musical program by Mrs. Guy O'Melveny, Mrs. W. D. Humphrey and the Misses Edna and Thelma Saling was much enjoyed. The feature of the occasion was a handsomely decorated Christmas tree bearing a dainty gift for every Lady Macabee in attendance. During the afternoon a delicious two course luncheon was served.

Miss Nelly Anibal will leave in a few days for Portland where she will be in attendance at the State Teachers' Association which convenes there next week. Miss Anibal will appear on the program in the music department, having been asked to present a folk song and dance to a class of sixth grade pupils chosen from the Portland schools.

Miss Kathleen McPaul, who has been attending Reed College at Portland, arrived home last evening to spend the vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. McPaul.

Miss Jeanette Jack arrived home last evening from Portland where she has been visiting with relatives and taking musical instruction.

Miss Angela Bowler, who is attending the University of Oregon, is spending the day with her brother, James B. Bowler. She will go on tomorrow to spend the holidays with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Hampton.

Clem McCoy, who is attending North Pacific dental college in Portland, is home to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. John Greulich.

HELP FOR BRONCHIAL COUGHS.

The simplest and quickest way to get rid of wearing, racking coughs is to take Foley's Honey and Tar. You get the curative influence of the pine balsam and other healing ingredients together with the mollifying and laxative action of honey. Editor C. T. Miller, Cannelton, Ind. (Enquirer) writes: "I was troubled constantly day and night. I took Foley's Honey and Tar and got relief. It is great for bronchial colds and coughs." La grippe and bronchial coughs, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, yield readily to its healing influence.

The Baldwin Piano

ALTHOUGH its creator was unknown, the Venus de Milo was hailed immediately upon its discovery as the world's greatest sculpture. Likewise, the Baldwin Piano when exhibited at the Paris Exposition was the product of comparatively unknown makers but it was awarded the Grand Prix. It is the only American Piano ever so honored. True genius proclaims itself. It needs no pedigree. Ask for The Book of the Baldwin

But the Going is Still Good

Everyone Delighted With Our Assortment of

Christmas Candies

One man found it so hard to decide which box of candy to buy—they all looked so good to him—so he bought a dozen dollar boxes, each one different. We did not ask him if all were to be given one girl.

B. AND M. TAMALES—the big ones; CHILI CONCARNE—made by E. J. Morris, Pastmaster in the Art.

The Kopper Kettle

Our Specialty, "Pleasing Particular People"

"HE WHO STEALS MY PURSE STEALS"

But when you steal the good name of a sweet, simple girl that's a different matter. Her good name did not appeal to his rich father.

But when the boy confronted his daddy with a square jaw and a check with which father sought to buy the girl's name and right to be called wife, you have a climax scene of striking potency and power.
