Turkeys for Employees.
The Smythe-Loneragan company has presented each of its employees with a turkey and a box of apples as a Christmas gift.

Fancy Ropers Here.
Stanley Whitney, who claims the championship of Canada, and his wife who goes under the name of Rose Raymond, are here putting on a fancy roping act at the Alta. Whitney is well known in the cowboy world.

Seek Life Certificates.
J. S. Danforth of Freewater, J. D. Harrah of Adams and Mrs. Lillian Downs Dobson came in to take the examinations for life teachers' certificates. The teachers' examinations close today with the life subjects.

Hypnotist Arrested.
Dr. H. I. Travulce, a hypnotist who recently appeared in a local theater, was arrested yesterday in Baker on a charge of issuing no fund checks. The complaint was sworn out at Walla Walla and he will probably be returned to that city for trial.

Delegates to Convention Named.
President W. E. Brock of the Commercial association has named J. N. Burgess, R. N. Stanfield, O. D. Teel of Echo and Col. H. G. Newport of Hermiton as delegates to the state irrigation convention which will meet in Portland on January 4.

Two More for Stanfield.
Two more representatives are reported to have pledged their votes to R. N. Stanfield of this city for the speakership of the house. Representative Ben C. Sheldon of Jackson county and Representative Frank A. Rowa of Tillamook county have sent him signed pledges.

Carload of Aliens.
B. E. Gowan of Eastport, Ida., inspector for the U. S. Immigration service, is here today with an alien who is ordered deported. He will be placed aboard the special car attached to No. 18 this evening which is taking many aliens of the Pacific coast to New York for deportation.

Buy Belgian Horses.
E. M. Ackerman, who is running the A. D. Sloan place four miles east of Pilot Rock, has returned from the Willamette valley with a carload of purebred Belgian horses purchased in that section. The band contains one stallion and the other animals are brood mares. The horses range from two to seven years in age and are now at the Sloan ranch.

Former Oregon Coach Here.
Louis H. Pinkham, Jr., former star football player of the University of Oregon and later coach at the same institution, was in Pendleton a short time this morning enroute to Spokane to spend Christmas with his parents. He has been in charge of government survey work in Arkansas, Louisiana and Florida.

Many See Indians' Christmas.
The chapel at the Indian agency was packed to the doors last evening by the audience that witnessed the Christmas exercises prepared by the pupils of the agency. The program was exceptionally fine and was thoroughly enjoyed. After the program, Santa Claus, who was Rev. J. M. Colwell in disguise, appeared and distributed candy among the children.

Killed Pet Deer, Alleged.
Luke Lane of Milton, who is charged with shooting a deer out of season, pleaded not guilty this morning before Justice of the Peace Parkes and his trial has been set for next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. He is represented by R. D. Peterson. It is alleged that Lane killed a deer which was being raised as a pet by Fred Sams.

Delinquent Voters Notified.
County Clerk Saling is today sending out notices to all registered voters in the county who have not voted for two years to the effect that unless they report their residence unchanged within the next ten days that their names will be stricken from the register. There are between 1100 and 1200 of those registered voters who have not voted for two years.

R. A. M. Elects Officers.
Pendleton Lodge No. 23, Royal Arch Masons, last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: S. A. Newberry, high priest; Thomas Robertson king; Sam H. Forshaw, scribe; George Tonkin, captain of hosts; Edmund Mable, secretary; R. Alexander, treasurer. These officers and the newly elected officers of the blue lodge will be installed jointly at a meeting to be held December 27.

American Express Gives Bonus.
Not to be outdone by the P. T. & T. Co., or the Western Union, the American Express Co. has also announced that it will give a generous bonus to its employees as a Christmas present. Manager R. Parlett of the local office this morning received a message from the superintendent stating that all employees who had been with the company a year or more will receive a full month's wages as a Christmas bonus.

Beware Fire Danger.
Owing to the fact the Christmas business leaves much combustible material in local stores, Fire Chief Ringold today issued a warning that business people take proper precautions against fire during the time business will be suspended Sunday and Monday.

Postoffice Service.
It is announced today by Postmaster Tweedy that the general delivery and the money order windows will be open all day Sunday for the accommodation of the public. There will be no carrier service tomorrow excepting that all parcels post packages will be delivered. Other mail may be had at the windows.
