What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

Mary Miles Minter in "Youth's Endearing Charms" and Helen Holmes in "A Deed of Daring." Pastime Today.

In "Youth's Endearing Charms," the famous screen beauty, Mary Miles Minter gives a fascinating interpretation of the role of a desolate little orphan bound out to the family of a brutal farmer, but saved from a life of sadness by a keen sense of humor, which, with her wonderful beauty and winning personality, raises her from a life of poverty and hardship to the very lap of luxury.

From the drudgery of the farm the pretty child works out her own salvation and the end of the absorbing drama finds her a beloved member of a millionaire family in a great metropolis—all of which she accomplishes by her unconscious understanding of human nature, her natural cleverness and her youthful exuberance.

No more ingenious plot was ever conceived for the exploitation of a talented actress than this intensely interesting Mary Miles Minter starring vehicle. The rare beauty and exceptional talents of the little star are shown to excellent advantage as the drama gives free play for both artistic emotional work and refined light comedy, at the same time emphasizing the everlasting magnetic charm of youth, so typical of the screen's youngest and most beautiful artist.

Presented by a splendid company of well known players, Mary Miles Minter in "Youth's Endearing Charms" is an exceptionally meritorious production. In addition "A Deed of Daring," with Helen Holmes. This is one of the sensational "Lass of the Lumberlands" plays and is the most thrilling up to date. There are sensations upon sensations in this wonderful play. The Pastime is presenting a big 3-reel program today and the management would like for all who can to come afternoons.

Manager Cooper of the Alta theater has booked an extraordinary attraction for Thursday in connection with "The Valley of the Moon," by Jack London, having secured Louis Kaufman, the phenomenal 10 year old boy violinist, Beatrice Pelz, noted soprano soloist, and Philip Pelz, cornet soloist formerly of the Russian court, for a grand concert. Young Kaufman recently gave a concert at the Helix theater. The Oregonian of December 3rd, said:

Young Kaufman was heard in concert at the Helix theater October 25 and made such a good impression that his name was put on the Orpheum's emergency list. His orpheum engagement is his first recognition by vaudeville, and the fact that the youngster begins with the "big time" is regarded as a high honor for one of his years as it is customary for young artists to go through a probationary period in the "small time."

The boy musician will be heard in a repertoire calculated to show his great talent as a violinist. His selections will include a classical number or two and several popular pieces.

FILMING FIRE FOR "THE HERITAGE OF HATE"

The climax of "The Heritage of Hate," a Red Feather feature production which will be seen at the Cosy theater on Tuesday and Wednesday, is the burning of a whole dock and ship that belong to John Bradley. It is the culmination of the run that has been planned so carefully by his illegitimate child and it breaks him entirely. Director Burton George delivers a great deal of credit for the way that he has handled this very difficult scene. He could not get a picture of an actual fire, as there would not be enough light to photograph the conflagration with the desired effect. Besides, no one was kind enough to burn up a ship or so
