Wants Others to Know Remedy That Helped Him

CAN'T UNDERSTAND HOW HE WAS CURED SO QUICKLY AFTER SUFFERING NINETEEN YEARS.

For nineteen years, Mr. Chas. Froelich, R. F. D. No. 2, Gorham, Kansas, suffered from stomach and kidney trouble. He tried all the doctors for miles around but got no relief, and had about given up, when Mrs. Froelich read in the Kansas City Post about Fruitola and Traxo and what it had done for a man with stomach trouble. He says, "She sent for Fruitola and Traxo and from the first I felt better. I only took two bottles and am well now and can eat and work like a young man. Fruitola and Traxo did it and I'll do all I can to get others to try it."

MR. CHAS. FROELICH at the Pinus laboratories in Monticello, Ill., and can be purchased in Pendleton of Tallman & Co., 623 Main street; a doctor's prescription is not necessary. Fruitola is a pure fruit oil that acts as an intestinal lubricant and disintegrates the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, discharging the accumulated waste to the sufferer's intense relief. One dose is usually sufficient to indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a tonic alternative that is most effective to rebuild and restore the weakened, rundown system. A booklet of special interest to those who suffer from stomach trouble can be obtained by writing to the Pinus Laboratories, Monticello, Illinois.

CELERY STICK SALAD. Wash celery well with a brush, crisp it in ice water, and dry. Select well grooved stalks, remove strings or threads, cut in uniform lengths, and fill the grooves with cold tomato jelly just before it hardens. Serve with two stalks on romaine leaves, with a teaspoon of mayonnaise on the side of the plate. Eat with the fingers, dipping the celery ends in the dressing.

GRAPEFRUIT JELLY. Two tablespoons of gelatine, 1-2 cup of water, 1-2 cup of lemon juice, 3-4 cup of sugar, 1-2 teaspoon of salt, 2 cups of grapefruit pulp. Soften the gelatine in cold water. Mix lemon juice, salt, boiling water and sugar; bring to the boiling point, and add softened gelatine. Cool and, when the mixture begins to thicken, add the grapefruit and turn into a mold. Chill, serve with mayonnaise dressing or French dressing, made with the grapefruit juice instead of vinegar.

ALMA CAKES. Beat together 2 ounces of butter and 2 tablespoons of caster sugar; then, in the following order, beating well between each ingredient, 3 tablespoons of flour, 1 tablespoon of ground rice, 1-2 teaspoon baking powder, 1 tablespoon of milk. Charles R. Flint, banker and merchant, with wide international relations and experience, believes from information in his possession that the peace offer made by Germany was due to the fear of famine. He said that while Germany has highly developed agriculture it has been by means of fertilizers.
