NEWS OF PENDLETON

Son to Jewett. A son was born in Portland yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Jewett of this city.

Paying Celebration Bills. Bills of expense for the municipal Christmas celebration are being paid now and the committee believes it will have enough money to cancel all debts.

C. B. Adams Passes Away. Word has been received by friends of the death of C. B. Adams, formerly a resident of this city.

Big Mortgage Foreclosed. A mortgage for $3300, interest and $500 attorney fees against property near Hermiston is ordered foreclosed and the property sold in a decree of the plaintiff signed today in the case of W. J. Warner vs. Mary C. Teague et al.

Weather Clear and Cold. Today has been clear but the sun has not been warm enough to thaw the snow.

Lien is Foreclosed. Woodage & Ardrey, local plumbers, have been given a default judgment for $87.32 against DeLoos Belts and wife and H. H. Nolen and wife, and a lien against lot 9, block 2 of Switzer's addition to Pendleton is ordered foreclosed and the property sold to satisfy the judgment.

Halfway Wants Help. An appeal for aid in fighting the rabid coyotes in Baker county came from Halfway this morning to the office of the biological survey.

Train 36 Hours Late. Westbound No. 5 of Dec. 27 arrived in Pendleton shortly before noon today, 36 hours late as a result of the blizzards which have been sweeping Wyoming.

One-Legged Indian Drunk. George Talucky, a one-legged Indian, was arrested last evening by Officer James Hall for being too full of bootlegger booze.

To Attend Grain Conference. An effort is being made to secure a representative delegation of farmers from this county to attend the first annual grain conference to be held at Corvallis January 3, 4 and 5.

Alleged Deed Was Forged. Alleging that Walter Harr has forged a deed to land belonging to her, Lulu Behrman today brought suit against him to restrain him from claiming any interest in the property.

Automobiles in Collision. The automobiles of Tom Thompson and Dr. P. E. Boyden met last evening at 6 o'clock in a collision at the intersection of Main and Water streets.

Stockmen to Ask Aid. The stockmen of Washington will ask the Washington legislature to appropriate a sum equal to the amount spent by the federal government in that state in the warfare against coyotes.

direction of Mr. Averill and the stockmen will ask that the state appropriation be turned over to the biological survey.

WRIGHT NOW SECRETARY OF SERVICE COMMISSION. Announcement comes from Salem that Change Will Soon Be Made in Staff.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 29.—Changes in the staff of the public service commission are soon to be made when Edward Ostrander, who is now secretary, becomes examiner and Edward Wright, county clerk of Union county, who was Commissioner Corey's opponent at the recent election, becomes secretary.

LOST STEAMER SAFE. BOSTON, Dec. 28.—Coast guards received word at noon that the lost Clyde steamer Omaha, Portland to New York was safe in Block Island harbor.

DRY VIRGINIA WET BY TRICK OF STORM. Open Gulleys on Willoughby Spit Hide Joy Juice Flotsam From Powhatan.

NORFOLK, Dec. 29.—Even the ill wind that caused the storm that caused the Merchants' and Miners' steamer Powhatan to be rammed and sunk by the British steamer Telena near Thimble Shoals Light brought joy to many dry persons.

The Powhatan has a hole in her side about fifty feet long. Through this considerable freight drifted out into the Chesapeake Bay, most of it cast upon the beach at Willoughby Spit.

In the freight were several barrels of whisky, and in Virginia, with the state dry just two weeks, whiskey is received with open arms and open mouths.

The authorities have been unable to find any whiskey that floated ashore, because those that found it did not permit it to remain long on the beach.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Dec. 29.—Deputy Sheriff Barry arrested Leo Brabson on a charge of receiving a shipment of liquor from California labeled "honey." He was fined $50 and cost.

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 29.—B. M. Clements, 79, cousin of Mark Twain and his comrade in steamboating on the Mississippi, died today at a hospital.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—The police here today found Guy Oliver Ward of Bellingham, Wash., who about November 21 sent letters telling of his suicide to his wife and an insurance company; tied his clothes to a railroad trestle and disappeared, according to detectives, who found him very much alive.

AUBURN, Cal., Dec. 29.—N. H. Wiley, second governor of Idaho, now lies in a lonely cot in the Placer county hospital in this city, where he was brought destitute, from a distant mining claim in the Blue Canyon district.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 29.—Why all this fuss and worry about the 6 percent tax limitation, so far as state affairs is concerned? It is needless and useless.

In effect that is the question and the answer presented by Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott in a statement issued by him today.

BAKER, Ore., Dec. 29.—What is believed to be a rich copper strike has been reported from the Blue Jacket and Queen mine at Landers, Idaho; just across the Snake river from Baker county, John C. Rogers, of Huntington, who has a lease on the mine, is said to have uncovered a chute of high-grade ore.

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 29.—The Tournament of Roses Association announced last night the East-West football game to be played following the annual Tournament of roses has been insured against rain by Lloyd's.

BEND, Ore., Dec. 29.—The first step to fight the quo warrants proceedings brought by Gus Stading of Lower Bridge against the members of the county court of the new DeChutes county were begun Wednesday by District Attorney H. H. DeArmond and V. A. Forbes of Bend when they appeared before Judge T. E. J. Duffy with a motion to quash service of the proceeding.

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 29.—The fate of the Hotel Spokane, a landmark, and for many years the finest hostelry in eastern Washington, will be sealed in January. The receivership will be terminated, the $200,000 mortgage held on the
