NEWS OF PENDLETON

Commercial Club Meeting. The January meeting of the Commercial association will be held Wednesday evening in the club rooms.

Enlarging Building. The Pendleton Hide & Junk Co. is enlarging its building on West Webb street and will have double the floor space when the improvements are completed.

Will Reopen Market. Boucher & Raines, whose butcher shop location on West Webb street was recently damaged by fire, are putting up a new frame building on West Webb and expect to reopen their market soon.

Installing New Furniture. William Goetten, factory representative of the Lutke Mfg. Co. from which Bond Bros. secured the fixtures and furniture for their new store, is here to superintend the installation of the equipment.

Exams Begin Tomorrow. The semester examinations in the Pendleton schools will be held tomorrow and Wednesday, promotions will be made Thursday and the pupils will be signed up for their second semester work on Friday, according to Supt Park.

Takes Position Here. L. A. Menton, for nine years with the Blodgett Rubber Co. of Portland, has arrived in Pendleton to take a position with the Pendleton Rubber & Supply Co. He will have charge of the tire adjustments, salesroom and shop.

New 50 Cent Pieces Here. Half dollars of the new design reached Pendleton banks today in limited quantities from the San Francisco mint and it is expected the supply locally will increase gradually until the new coin is in general circulation.

Warning Bell Installed. The O. W. R. & N. Co. has completed the installation of a warning bell at the Franklin street crossing. The bell, which is operated electrically by upon the approach of a train from either direction, sounds a warning by ringing and at the same time an arm waves up and down. At night a red light shows at the approach of a train.

Published in 1846. George H. Himes, of the state historical society, who is here today, has a copy of the Oregon Spectator, published at Oregon City on September 3, 1846. It is a little four page paper devoid of advertising and was printed on news paper brought around Cape Horn. The issue contains a story about a proposed mail route to Oregon and estimates the population of the state at that time at 10,000.

Promoting Excursion to St. Paul. L. B. Tierney, traveling passenger agent of the Great Northern, is in Pendleton today in the interest of an excursion from Pendleton to St. Paul for the big midwinter carnival of sports the latter part of this month.

and the first of next. If a large enough party can be made up here, a special car will be run out of Pendleton to connect with a special train at Spokane on the morning of January 27. Quite a number have already signified their intention of making the trip. The Great Northern already has five special trains made up from different parts of the country. It is anticipated that the Spokane special will leave on the return trip February 4.

Eclipse of Moon. Those who happened to glance skyward last evening between 10 and 11 o'clock saw the moon lost in the shadow of the earth. The eclipse was a total one by 11 o'clock and the sky was clear so that those who were watching had a good opportunity of seeing the phenomenon clearly.

Mrs. McKenzie Very Low. Mrs. Frank C. McKenzie, wife of the mayor of Hermiston and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George O'Daniel of this city, is reported to be in a very critical condition at St. Anthony's hospital to which she was brought last week. It is reported that she received an injury to her spine as a result of a fall, and the injury has left her paralyzed.

Elmer Knight is Dead. Elmer Knight died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, corner of Court and Franklin streets Saturday morning, death being due to tuberculosis. The dead man was 39 years of age and was the last of seven children born to the bereaved parents. He had never married and followed railroading. The funeral is to be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon from the Church of the Redeemer.

Coyote Had Rabies. Report was received this morning by E. F. Averill from Dr. D. N. Roberts, state health officer, stating that an examination of the head of the coyote sent in through Mr. Averill from Malheur county proved that the animal had rabies. Mr. Averill this morning also received another report from Redmond relative to rabid coyotes in that vicinity. It was from R. A. Wood of the biological survey and stated that a cow had recently died there of rabies and that the coyotes were growing very bold.

Circuit Court Session Begins. The January term of the circuit court opened this morning with the case of Maltida Woodruff vs. O. W. Carpenter from the east end of the county up for trial. The opposing attorneys are S. D. Peterson of Milton and J. C. Hurspohl of Walla Walla.

SOCIAL PERSONAL. The annual meeting of the Umatilla County Historical Society was well attended by pioneers and friends who are interested in the organization. The lantern which had been secured and placed in the auditorium of the library was not suitable for Mr. Himes' pictures, so the pictures are to be shown at the high school tonight. Mr. Himes gave very interesting reminiscences of "Crossing the Plains" after which the company passed into the club room. Old time songs were sung by all. Especially interesting were the musical numbers given by Mrs. Phelps and her father, Mr. Hart, on the piano and violin. Bishop Paddock gave a short address. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening passed in spite of the disappointment over the pictures. The social. Col. J. H. Raley was elected president and Mrs. Alice Hartman, secretary, for the ensuing year.

Mrs. L. M. Wicklund was a delightful dinner hostess yesterday entertaining in honor of her birthday. Entertaining the beautifully appointed table were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Creswell and son Donald and Miss Vivian Ehrhart.

Mrs. C. Straub will be hostess to the Lavender Club tomorrow afternoon at her home 520 Thompson street.

The W. C. T. U. which had adjourned during the holidays, will again meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. Tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock the meeting will be held in the club room of the Library. The subject will be the "Anti Cigarette Law."

Parents and friends of education are invited to attend the Hawthorne Parent-Teacher meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Musical numbers by Mrs. Bert McDonald, Miss Ada Decker, Miss Kessel and Mr. Bert McDonald, together with other interesting numbers will constitute the program.

Mrs. J. H. Danham and Mrs. Kim Morton will entertain the Busy Bee Club tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morton, 170 West Webb street.

Miss Merle King and Miss Irene Spreckangle entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party on Saturday evening. Covers were laid for eight.

The Right Rev. Bishop R. L. Paddock, D. D. visited Pendleton on Saturday and met with a very enthusiastic reception from his friends. The congregation which greeted him yesterday morning at the Church of the Redeemer was large and appreciative. The bishop left on belated 17 for Tacoma where he goes to participate in the celebration of the 15th year of Bishop Frederic W. Keator's consecration as bishop of Olympia.

The Yakima Morning Herald in speaking of the Washington State Music Teachers' convention in that city gives high praise to Miss Malen Burnett a teacher who is well known in Pendleton musical circles. It says in part: "A delightful feature connected with the paper on 'The Child and Its Early Training,' given by Malen Burnett of Walla Walla, yesterday afternoon at the session of the Music Teachers' convention was the playing of Bethel Stack, who accompanied Miss Burnett from her home city. Little Miss Stack is not yet 19 years old and demonstrated in a remarkable way how the sense of interpretation and musical understanding may be developed in the child. This pupil has been studying for 19 months and played from memory six compositions with the poise, command and ease of a mature person of concert experience."

Mrs. Fred Bloch returned yesterday from Portland where she has been visiting for a week en route home from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moore and Mrs. Ross Carney left today for Portland and Astoria where they will visit until Wednesday when they will be joined by Mr. Carney and the party will sail on "The Great Northern" for a trip through California.

A wedding of interest was solemnized December 2 in Vancouver, B. C. when Mrs. Frances Estes Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Estes of Pendleton, Or. was married to Carleton M. Dodd of this city. The ceremony took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weaver, Rev. W. H. Smith of the Vancouver First Presbyterian church, officiating. Mr. H. B. Avery of this city, and Miss Gertrude Luna, of Spokane, were the attendants. Mr. Howard E. MacDonald and Miss Margaret McDonald, both of this city, went to Vancouver to attend the wedding. In the evening Mr. Harry T. Hanover gave a dinner dance for the partly at the Vancouver hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Dodd went on a short trip, and will be at home in Seattle after April 1, at 1874 Twenty-fourth avenue. Mrs. Dodd has visited in Seattle frequently, and has a wide circle of friends here. Mr. Dodd is a member of the Arctic Club. -Seattle Times.

Mrs. James H. Sturges is visiting in Portland.

Mrs. Antone Vey and daughters left Saturday for a visit in Portland.

The night class in domestic science will not meet until January the 15th.

John H. Bauer, Walla Walla lawyer, has been here today on a professional trip.

Mrs. John Vaughan has returned from Spokane where she visited several weeks.
