Synopsis of Dulcie's Adventure. Dulcie ... Mary Miles Minter ... Aunt Emmie ...

Dulcie lives at the old family home in the south with her two spinster aunts, Aunt Emmie and Aunt Netta.

Then Aunt Emmie dies and the slight family resources of the Randolphs are further depleted.

Stephen Rocco, a notorious adventurer, is visiting Santa Barbara.

The plans for Dulcie's marriage to Rocco proceed apace and it is about to be consummated when Harry reaches Santa Barbara.

It is a story that abounds in pretty situations of which Miss Minter takes the fullest advantage.

In addition Helen Holme in "The Fight at Camp One," from the sensational "Lass of the Lumberland Play" at the Pastime today.

"The Sunbeam" Is a Love Story That Lingers in the Heart.

A love story that lingers in the heart, is "The Sunbeam," the great Metro-Rolle production with Mabel Taliaferro as the star, which will be seen at the Alta theater on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Taliaferro is seen at her best in this delightful play, which shows her as a living sunbeam, shedding warmth and happiness amid the chills and shadows of poverty. The story of "The Sunbeam" was written by Shannon Fife, whose splendid fiction tales have won world-wide prominence for him. It was pictured by June Marthas, one of the greatest of scenario writers.

No production could bring out the wonderful artistic ability of Miss Taliaferro stronger than does "The Sunbeam." As a sweet, pure, generous working girl of the tenements of New York City, the part of Prue Mason, taken by Miss Taliaferro, calls for emotional acting of a delicate and subdued type at one time, and extreme vivaciousness at the next. These varying degrees of her art Miss Taliaferro brings out with tremendous effect.

Vaudeville and Big Feature at Temple Today and Wednesday.

The scenes of "A Gamble in Souls," new Triangle-Kar Bee drama, which will be seen at the Temple theater tonight and Wednesday, are laid in San Francisco's notorious Barbary coast region and on a desert island in the Pacific, where a dance hall girl and a young missionary are cast ashore when the ship on which they are voyaging is burned. The leading roles are in the hands of William Desmond and Dorothy Dalton with P. D. Tabler as third member of an "eternal triangle" group which works out its salvation with fists and clubs and in which the fittest of the two men survives, the minister proving the fittest, much to his own surprise as well as the girl's.

The Temple theater has secured the exclusive use of Big-Time Hippodrome Vaudeville for Pendleton and will start the season tonight with two acts of the best clean entertaining acts. Walter Gilbert comes with a national reputation as an entertainer of the different sort. While the other act is Murray and Hall in a comedy, singing, talking and dancing act chuck full of "pep" from start to finish.

Army Atmosphere in Military-Mystery Serial. An army concentration camp ablaze forms the background for a stirring climax in the fourth episode of Pathe's military-mystery serial, "Pearl of the Army," which under the title, "War Clouds," will be presented at the Cosy theater Tuesday and Wednesday.

The shroud of mystery is drawn closer about the strange figure of the Silent Menace, who aims to overthrow America. Pearl White as Pearl Dare, the American Joan of Arc, is given further opportunities to reveal those qualities of reckless courage and resourcefulness which equip her admirably for the role of a daughter of the army.

THE GREAT CONFLICT OF MORALS AT COSY. The latest Red Feather feature production, "The Morals of Hilda," which will be seen at the Cosy theater Tuesday and Wednesday, presents a problem that is apparent to even the most cursory student of the problem of immigration. Every year thousands of immigrants come over from the other side and are thrown into the communities of this country. They all have entirely different ideas of the right way to do things, of the proper way to live, ideas that differ radically from our own.

In this case it is an idea that seems to come from Scandinavia. Over there it is thought to be the proper thing for a couple to live together for a year before marriage. If there is a child born they marry, but if there is not there is not thought to be any occasion for the ceremony. There is nothing of the licentious in all this, as this is done by all and the couples are as true to each other during this period of probation as they would be if they were married. So when a couple like this comes to America they are naturally criticized for the way that they live, although to them there is nothing wrong in the relationship. When they are told that they must marry they are both frightened and the conflict of the morals of the two countries causes a great tragedy. The husband commits suicide and the wife is forced to desert the child which has been the cause of so much misunderstanding.

POPULACE ANGRY AT FIREMEN WHO SAVE OLD JAIL AT ALBANY

ALBANY, Jan. 23.—Someone set fire to the dilapidated city jail here Friday night and now the fire department is being censured by the populace for not letting it burn to the ground. The blaze started in a woodshed next to the main building about 1 a. m. It had a respectable start but was easy work for the firemen. The city carries $250 insurance on the building, which is an old two-story structure, unsanitary and decidedly uncomfortable for the unfortunate who are confined in its cells. Escapes from it have been numerous.

PREPARE FOR WATCHING WHITE HOUSE GATES

Because the weather in Washington Saturday, Jan. 13, was chilly, too chilly to remain out with comfort, warm and keep the rain off. They also were given hot bricks to stand on, and coffee was sent to them.

The building, which is an old two-story structure, unsanitary and decidedly uncomfortable for the unfortunate who are confined in its cells. Escapes from it have been numerous.
