McCarroll and Hackenschmidt Will Meet at Alta Theatre Tonight at 8:45 O'clock.

Indications today point to a full house this evening at the Alta theater for the McCarroll-Hackenschmidt wrestling bout. Seats have been selling lively and women as well as men are the buyers.

The brother of the Russian Lion is confident he can put McCarroll's shoulders to the mat twice within an hour but Ray is just as confident that his shoulders will never be pinned down even once. To win the match "Hack" must justify his confidence.

The main event will start about 8:45 and will be preceded by two good preliminaries and some motion pictures.

GOT ANY TROUBLES? OH, WELL, CHEER UP

If Dr. Keath Can Be Happy With All His Woes, Why Shouldn't You?

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—Dr. James Keath, start patient at the Jefferson Hospital, has been unable since Sunday to take any nourishment except a cup of coffee today and one yesterday because of kidney trouble.

He is still bright and happy, and his only regret is that he has no appetite.

When he was twenty-six years old and had almost completed his course at Jefferson Medical College, in December, 1914, Dr. Keath was taken to the hospital with a broken back, due to a fall from the third story window of his fraternity house. He became paralyzed from the hips down, and both legs eventually had to be amputated. He completed his studies, however, and received his diploma as a physician in June, 1915.

CARNIVAL VISITORS GET BIG SEND OFF

Band Plays, Sixshooters Pop and Cheers of Big Crowd Mark Noisy Farewell Given Round-Up Excursionists to St. Paul.

With the band playing, six-shooters popping and a crowd of several hundred people cheering, Pendleton's excursion to the St. Paul midwinter carnival got away about 5:30 last evening. The Round-Up boaters were given a characteristic Pendleton send-off.

The O-W depot grounds were packed a half hour before the train pulled out with people who had come down to participate in the send-off. The excursionists were easily identified by their sombreros and, if further identification were necessary, it was furnished by smoking revolvers.

The band played until the train pulled out and the pseudo cowboys shot many holes in the air and pavement.

The special Pendleton car bore a full-length banner reading, "Pendleton Round-Up Special 'Let 'er Buck'" with the dates of the 1917 Round-Up.

The party reached Spokane this morning and, barring any delays, will pull into St. Paul Friday, a day before the big parade. This will give them plenty of time to organize for their demonstration.

After the carnival many of the party will go on to Chicago, New York and other eastern points.

LIVE NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MOSSCO, Idaho, Jan. 24.—Juryman in the Latah county district court object to getting "cricks in the joints" on account of having to sit on hard chairs while hearing cases. They complained to Judge Steele. He promised them swivel seats at the next term.

SALEM, Jan. 24.—Closing a three day session, the 14th annual Oregon state labor convention will adjourn tonight. The 100 delegates are interested in the passage of a law consolidating the industrial accident commission and labor boards.

BIJUNES, Ore., Jan. 24.—Lawen district farmers today are organizing a farm loan association to get government loans under the rural credits act. They will deal with the rural credit bank at Spokane.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Jan. 24.—Incorporated for $40,000, the Oregon-California Box Co. will begin operations in the old Savidge brothers' plant here within a few weeks. Fifty thousand boxes a day will be manufactured if the factory runs to capacity. Fifty men are to be employed at the start.

LAKEVIEW, Or., Jan. 24.—Stories about jackrabbit pelts being worth real cash took concrete form today when ranchers learned that a St. Louis firm offered 15 to 18 cents a pound for such skins, according to quality. There is also a five cent bounty on the jacks in this county. Shipping pelts to St. Louis would cost 6 to 4 cents a pound.

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—It was clearly indicated today that the mohair market this season would open at 5 cents a pound, the highest opening price on record. This means big money for the Willamette valley, where the mohair industry thrives. Last season the price reached 51 1/2 cents for a limited period late in the season.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 24.—The elements—our old friend J. Pluvius superintending matters—did more to affect the egg market than all the combinations of housewives organized to bear down prices. When the weather changed, eggs broke 6 to 7 cents on the Portland market during 24 hours.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 24.—William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, has written a personal letter to H. P. Hartman, professor of Spanish at the University of Oregon, urging him to popularize the study of Spanish there. McAdoo says a good knowledge of Spanish is necessary if the United States hopes to successfully promote trade relations with Mexico and South American republics.

You Need Not Suffer From Catarrh

You have probably been in the habit of using external treatments to relieve your catarrh. You have applied sprays, washes and lotions to the mucous surfaces of the nose and throat, have been temporarily relieved, and then wondered a short time after, why you were troubled with another attack of catarrh.

You should realize that catarrh is an infection of the blood. This fact has been agreed upon by specialists in catarrh troubles, and has been proven in the laboratories of the Swift Specific Co., 305 Swift Building, Atlanta, Ga.

SKETCHES HIS COAT-OF-ARMS ON INFANT DAUGHTER'S WRIST

German Military Attache at San Francisco In Panic Over Numerous Other Babies at Hospital.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—His coat-of-arms sketched in indelible ink on the wrist of his baby daughter gives assurance to Lieut. G. W. von Brincken, military attache of the German consulate here, that his young wife will take away no other couple's child when she leaves the hospital where their first child was born yesterday.

In a panic at the sight of numerous other infants in the hospital nursery, Von Brincken, lately convicted of complicity in the munitions plots involving the German consulate here, catechized the nurses on their methods of identification. Not satisfied with their answers, he called for ink and pen and made the sketch.

How to stop dandruff and loss of hair with Resinol

Here is a simple, inexpensive treatment that will generally stop dandruff and scalp itching, and keep the hair thick, live and lustrous:

At night, spread the hair apart and rub a little Resinol Ointment into the scalp gently, with the tip of the finger. Repeat this until the whole scalp has been treated. Next morning, shampoo thoroughly with Resinol Sampoo and water. Work the creamy Resinol lather well into the scalp. Rinse with gradually cooler water, the last water being cold. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Ointment.
