FAST STUFF.

One of our readers sends in this recipe for reducing the high cost of living. In the morning don't eat anything. For dinner don't cook anything. For supper, warm up what was left over at breakfast and dinner.

Another Coincidence.

Judge Marsh and John Montgomery arrived home from California yesterday. The bone-dry measure is to be passed upon by the legislature today. Possibly there is no excuse for mentioning these things together.

The Lam Hope.

If the peace commission appointed to settle the library controversy falls of its purpose, we favor having Bob Simpson suggest a peace expedition to Henry Ford. With a million dollars Ford ought to bring about an amicable settlement.

Mother Goose Localized.

Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn. There's a row in the library, the schools are strife-torn. Where's the little boy who could quell all this riot? He's gone over to Europe where things are more quiet.

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe. She had so many children she didn't know what to do. So she sent them to war to be the king's pawns. And now she's as childless as Jimmy S. Johns.

Hark hark, the dogs do bark. And wake up all the babies. Mayhap the poor brutes hungry are. Nay, nay, they've got the rabies.

Sing a song of sixpence. Pocket full of rye. Prima facie evidence. He's not a strict prohi. When the eye was opened. The foot began to sink. Paced the judge next morning. Charged with bootlegging.

His Answer.

Editor Bulldogger: I read in your issue of last week that some of the girls are peeved because some young men who have accepted their hospitality have not repaid the courtesy. I can only speak for myself, but I wish I understood that hereafter I intend confining my social activities to the Saturday night dances. Better to attend a pay-as-you-enter party than one which brings obligations which you never get through paying.

Yours,
A MAN UNAFRAID.

You Don't Pay An Income Tax Unless You Have An Income.

One of these big farmers was complaining the other day of the big income tax he had to pay.

"Serves you right," said his friend. "It's your own fault."

"How's that?" asked Mr. Broad-acre.

"If you'd sold your wheat for 90 cents instead of when the market was $1.55, you wouldn't have had so much income tax to pay," wherest the farmer was perplexed.

Salemanship.

When G. I. La Dow conducted a sporting goods store at the corner of Main and Alta he issued fishing licenses. He sold out to the Allen-Ward Co., which disposed of the sporting goods and has since been carrying an exclusive line of automobile accessories. The other day a man strolled into the store and asked for a fishing license.

"Well, what am I going to do if I can't get a license?" asked the angler. "You might buy one of our 'License Applied For' tags and wear it on your coat when you go fishing," suggested Ward.

Man's Lament.

The following verses were mailed to the Bulldogger from Umatilla and are reprinted without comment: "There's a little city in Oregon, On the north side of the state, Where the women hold big offices, And the men don't stay out late."

It's a pretty little city Out upon the desert sand, Where the Columbia rolls by quietly, On to the promised land.

The women who run the city Are fat, short, lean and tall, And you'll find them in their offices, Most any time you call.

I can't see what's the matter, I sure must be in bad, For the women all ignore me, And they do the same to Dad.

I am not afraid of women, But they're awfully up, fit to kill, So I'm going back to Echo— So good-bye Old Umatilla.

ATHENA IS VICTOR IN DOUBLEHEADER GAME

WINS VICTORIES FROM ATHENA TEAM; PLAYS BASKETBALL WITH WALLA WALLA FRIDAY.

Miss Fay Barnes is confined to home with illness; other news and social notes of interest as gathered by the East Oregonian Correspondent.

(East Oregonian Special.) ATHENA, Jan. 29.—Athena won a double header game of basketball from Hermiston on the local floor Friday night. The boys score being Athena 45, Hermiston 21, and the girls score, Athena 42, Hermiston 4.

Athena showed superior teamwork throughout the game, especially the girls, the first half ending 35 to 9. However, in the second half Hermiston made one field basket and two fouls. The lineup was for the Athena girls, Kathryn Proom and Evelyn Hurd, forwards; Eloise Bergvein and Marguerite McLennan, guards; Frances Pehr, running center, and Hazel Sanders, jumping center. For Hermiston girls, Pearl Sullivan and Elinor Cassery, forwards; Elinor Shotwell and Nina Brassfield, guards, and Doris Percy, jumping center.

The Athena boys' lineup was, McPherrin and Tharp, forwards; Dudley and Booher, guards, and Martin at center. The Hermiston boys' lineup was, Todd and Garner, forwards; Chilcote and Sullivan, guards, and Madden, center.

After the game the visitors were entertained with games, after which refreshments were served.

Next Friday night Athena clashes with Walla Walla, the boys playing the second team of Walla Walla but the girls are playing the first team. The boys were defeated by Walla Walla's second team two weeks ago by a score of 54 to 23 but they hope to make a better showing next week. The strength of the Walla Walla girls' team is not known but the Athena girls are confident of winning.

ROSES PROLONGED LIFE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Alice Bennett, who died yesterday at the age of 105, attributed her good health to the exult of roses.

The garden was her hobby. It boasts of a grape arbor which was her summer house, and in the spring and summer it was a riot of color, with roses and all kinds of sweet smelling flowers.

"Stay out of the rocking chair. Get out in the fresh, open air, if you want to live to a ripe old age," she said.

FOOD THEORY KILLS HIM.

Author of "How to Live Cheaply" Dies of Undernourishment.

DOVER, Jan. 29.—David Hartman, 63, who once won a prize for an article on "How to Live Cheaply" died here of undernourishment, according to physicians.

For a time Hartman lived on 3 cents a day, but recently rising prices forced him to increase his allowance to 10 cents.

When told he was going to die Hartman sent for an undertaker and made arrangements for a coffin and funeral services as cheap as possible. He is believed to have been worth $15,000.

LIVE NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 29.—W. L. Thompson of Pendleton has been appointed by Mayor F. C. Harley as admiral of the 22nd annual Astoria Regatta. The regatta this year will be held earlier than usual if present plans mature, possibly around July 4. Mayor Harley was chairman of the last two regattas, and has started the machinery in motion for the biggest and best year for this year.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Jan. 29.—A county fair will be held in Walla Walla this year, if the farmers of the community have anything to say about it. Plans were taking form today for a brick campaign to finance the project. There was no fair last year. The fair association may be financed by the sale of bonds.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Jan. 29.—The possibilities of Idaho as a potato growing country have been called to the attention of farmers here by E. H. Bennett, field horticulturist of Idaho university. He says the soil should make this state the biggest potato producer in the country.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 29.—Rep. Halsey's "bone dry" bill came before the house today for final action. It was considered certain that it would pass easily.

If Your System Is Poisoned

with acids, you cannot know what it is to be healthy. Acids poison the blood and are the source of many diseases affecting the heart and arteries, skin and mucous surfaces, joints and muscles, and the brain and general nervous system. Some of these diseases are Rheumatism in various forms, Catarrh, Eczema, Pimples, boils, rashes, and other skin diseases, Malaria, Scrofula and general blood troubles. In order to restore yourself to a healthy condition, you must drive these acids from your system and purify your blood. S. S. S. has been purifying and revitalizing the blood of thousands for fifty years. It is a purely vegetable remedy, and is the most efficient agent known for cleansing the blood and building up the system. Get it at your druggist's, and don't accept a substitute. ### PRINT PAPER MAKERS FACE PROSECUTION

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Print paper manufacturers face prosecution under the federal anti-trust laws, Joseph E. Davis, member of the federal trade commission, intimated at a conference of 100 publishers and manufacturers of papers here.

Davis said that the commission has turned "certain evidence," secured by the commission's investigation of the print paper situation, over to the department of justice.

The conference was called by paper manufacturers in an effort to appease the wrath of publishers. A resolution calling for the appointment of joint committees of publishers and manufacturers, which will hold further conferences, was passed.

J. H. Rothwell of the Brompton Pulp & Paper company of Quebec predicted that the Canadian wood pulp supply would run short by October, due to "war conditions."

Several publishers indicated the determination to ask congress for relief, if manufacturers continued their "barbaric" methods.

Omar

That's an unusual word—what is it? Omar and aroma mixed up together—Omar-aroma, in happy combination.

And the aroma in the Omar cigarette is just as happily distinctive as the aroma in the name. It is soothing and ripe, smooth and rich—a supreme triumph of blend.

Omar—the perfect Turkish blend!
Even the words blend.
