20 SAVED FROM VESSEL.
Passengers Rescued from Boat Beached on Alaskan Shore.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 5.—Fifteen to twenty passengers on the steamship Prince John were rescued today by other steamers after the Prince John had struck a rock and had been beached on the coast of southeastern Alaska.

The Prince John sent out S. O. B. calls earlier in the day to which several coasting steamers responded.

The Prince John has a crew of 23 and has been plying between Prince Rupert, B. C., and Skagway, Alaska. It is believed here that she is not in great danger.

LA GRAND OFFICERS TO MEET PENDLETON
Police Chief Accepts Challenge of Gurdane to Contest With Revolvers.

If Chief of Police Lou Rayburn and Art Weagle have their way it is now up to Chief Gurdane of Pendleton to follow out his own message, "Put up or shut up."

In answer to Gurdane's letter received yesterday, Chief Rayburn has answered that he and Officer Art Weagle would meet Chief Gurdane and Officer Bill Scheer in La Grande at any time the Pendleton officers say the word. The weapon is to be that named by Gurdane—the automatic.

The original challenge of Police Chief Rayburn and Fire Chief Mackey to meet the police and fire chiefs of any city in the world in a contest with the scattergun still stands. The La Grande chief of police has accepted Gurdane's challenge with pistols though the Pendletonians did not attempt to meet the terms of the original challenge but wanted to "get in" on their own terms. The local officers here now accepted those terms—just to meet the Round-Up city men.—La Grande Observer.

The Best Recommendation.
The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Waynesfield, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

ARTESIAN WATER STRUCK AT ECHO

LOU WATTENBURGER FINDS FLOW WHEN DRILLING FOR WELL ON BUTTER CREEK.

H. Y. Blackwell Receives Seven Cars of Cattle, Will Be Fed at Saylor Place; Son Is Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mannel Todhunter.

(East Oregonian Special)
ECHO, Feb. 5.—Lou Wattenburger, a progressive Butter creek farmer, unexpectedly struck artesian water on his home place fifteen miles west of Echo on Saturday afternoon. Water is shallowly reached on Butter creek at a depth of a few feet but Mr. Wattenburger, wishing to reach a lower strata of water for domestic use was having a well drilled when at a depth of seventy-seven feet artesian water was reached. A true estimate of the flow can not be made until the casing is placed. The diameter of the well is six inches.

H. Y. Blackwell received seven cars of cattle from Crane, Ore., yesterday. Some were stock cattle and some beef cattle. The entire number will be fed at the Saylor place on Butter creek.

H. Y. Blackwell yesterday shipped two carloads of beef cattle to Seattle, Wash. Thirty head of them were purchased from Bond Bros. and driven on Saturday from the latter's farm ten miles above Echo.

Charles Bond of Pendleton was a business visitor here last Saturday. J. R. Saylor came down from his Freewater home today.

F. W. Andrews attended the automobile show in Portland last week. Born on Saturday February 3, to the wife of Mannel Todhunter, a son. Mother and child doing well.

GIRL AT HONOLULU SAYS SHE IS DOROTHY ARNOLD

HONOLULU, Feb. 5.—A girl who called herself Dawn Moore and Dorothy Arnold who was arrested when she arrived here from Hilo, three days ago on the steamer Great Northern and held for investigation, was released today and immediately filed a libel of $5000 on the Great Northern.

According to the stewardess of the steamer, the girl declared that she was the Dorothy Arnold who disappeared from New York in 1916. She was taken, she said, to Shanghai, by a married man.

The police, however, said that there was no resemblance between the girl and descriptions of the missing Dorothy Arnold.

If You Suffer From Catarrh

don't make the fatal mistake of regarding it as a trifling matter. Authorities agree that Catarrh is an infection of the blood. Consequently, sprays, salves and lotions can afford only temporary relief, because they do not reach the source of the disease—the blood. When you depend on these temporary remedies alone your case is likely to grow steadily worse until it becomes chronic and possibly affects the lungs.

spitting and hawking and evil odor of the breath will not only cause misery to you, but will make your presence obnoxious to others. S. S. S., which has been the standard blood medicine for fifty years, will relieve your catarrh, because it will purify your blood and relieve it of the accumulated poisons. S. S. S. contains no mineral or habit-forming drugs. S. S. S. is on sale at all druggists and the advice of our medical department is at your disposal, free of charge.
