

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Current Literature Club will meet Friday afternoon in the club room of the library with Mrs. Charles Bonny and Mrs. Samuel H. Pothman as hostesses.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Vincent of Pendleton, who have been visiting in this city for the past few days, will leave this evening for a brief visit in Salem and Eugene. Upon their return they will spend some time in Portland visiting relatives and friends and many social affairs are being planned in their honor.—Portland Telegram.

The engagement of two well known and popular young people, Miss Katherine Mumm and Charles Milne, was announced yesterday at a charmingly appointed shower for which Mrs. John Mumm, sister-in-law of the bride-elect, was hostess at her ranch home. Both Miss Mumm and her fiancée have a host of friends in Pendleton, who are showering them with good wishes. Miss Mumm is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jergon Mumm. Mr. Milne is a son of William Milne and a successful young electrician. The wedding will take place some time in the spring. The rooms of the Mumm home were attractively decked for the "shower," quantities of hearts and kewpies making a pretty and appropriate arrangement. Many beautiful gifts were presented Miss Mumm. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. Those who participated in the enjoyable affair were Mrs. Jergon Mumm, Mrs. Joe Snyder, Mrs. L. S. Bentley, Mrs. Arthur Hinton, Mrs. Jack Gibson, Mrs. Charles Gritman, Mrs. E. O. Williams, Mrs. Will Wyrick, Mrs. Helen Boite, Mrs. John Eggers, Mrs. Lyle Boynton, Mrs. B. E. Estridge, Mrs. H. J. Rosenberg, Mrs. Henry Huder, Mrs. John Rosenberg, Mrs. John Marshman, Mrs. Carl Breeding, Mrs. Herman Suhl, Mrs. Carl Huderman, Mrs. J. J. Woodruff, Mrs. Hans Pahl, Mrs. C. W. Howell, Mrs. John Meinert, Mrs. Miss Caroline Rosenberg, Miss Anna Lorenzen, Miss Rosalee Rhode, Miss Josephine Rhode, Miss Erna Mumm, Miss Amanda Mumm, Miss Pauline Jones, Miss Minabel Jones, Miss Alvina Roelk, Miss Frances Saling, Miss Alpha Black, Miss Martha Huderman and Miss Pauline Breeding.

Tagore, the Hindu poet, provided an engaging subject for the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club yesterday when they were entertained by Mrs. Westbrooke Dickson and Mrs. E. E. Judd in the club room of the library. An interesting character sketch of the poet, being followed by a group of vocal solos by Mrs. J. R. Dickson, "Sleep That Sits on Babes' Eyes," "Pick This Little Flower" and "Bird of the Wilderness" (Tagore). An exceedingly clever review of "Chitra" by Mrs. Mary Lane was much enjoyed as were the two "Pusan" duets by Miss Eloise Anita Hall and Mrs. Dickson. A group of delightful readings, "The Crescent Moon," "The Gardner" and "Song of Kabir," by Mrs. W. D. McNary and two charming songs by Miss Hall concluded the program. There were a number of guests in attendance in addition to the club members. Mrs. J. R. Dickson and Mrs. C. S. Jackson presided at the tea tables.

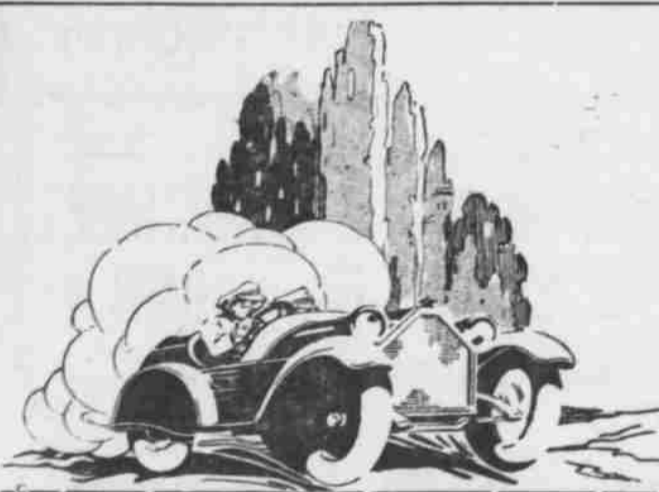

PURITY AND POWER

Necessary to Overcome Impure Blood and Weak Conditions.

The recent trying weather, exposure to storms, the grip, hard colds, pneumonia, fevers, diphtheria and other blood-poisoning prostrating diseases leave the whole system sub-normal—below par—weak and slow—blood depleted and thin, with that tired feeling, poor appetite, delicate digestive power or almost none at all. The ideal treatment is Hood's Sarsaparilla—to be taken before meals—thoroughly to purify the blood and expel poisons, and Pepton Pills—to be taken after meals—to put power into the blood, give strength, increase red corpuscles and restore normal health-tone. Hood's Sarsaparilla has for 40 years won and held the favor of the people. Pepton Pills are named from peptin and iron—and include nux and other good blood and stomach tonics. Be wise and begin on this sensible, reliable course of medicine today.

Vice-president, Mrs. Horace Mann, second vice-president, Mrs. R. H. Horne, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Norris, treasurer. The ladies are planning the most active year in the history of the society.

Golden jonquils combined in pretty effect with dainty yellow birds and gilt hearts formed an attractive decoration for the one o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. J. F. Robinson and Mrs. Charles Hamilton presided yesterday, honoring Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Mrs. J. R. Dickson and Miss Eloise Anita Hall, the much entertained Portland visitors. Covers were laid for twelve.

The following interesting program was given Wednesday evening at the second annual social of Eureka Lodge No. 32, Integrity Lodge No. 22 and Pauline Rebekah Lodge No. 12.

Miss Sibel Farley, Instrumental Solo.
Miss Hazel McCulley, Reading, "Spartacus."
Miss Ada Decker, Song, "Good Night and Good Bless You," "Can't You Hear Me Calling Caroline?"
Miss Flora Hall, Reading, "Aunt Rhoda's Dream."
Mrs. Hager—Song, "Alone in Love's Garden," and "The Sunshine of Your Smile."

After the program was completed dancing and a banquet followed. About 200 were present and an enjoyable time was spent.

From a nuptial mass at 8:30 this morning, Daniel Hiri and Miss Susie Rudd were married at St. Mary's Catholic church, the Rev. Father Brown officiating. A few friends and relatives were in attendance at the ceremony. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue with a white hat and was accompanied by Miss Mary Doherty as bridesmaid, while Michael McLaughlin acted as best man. The newly married couple left on the noon train for Portland and California, expecting to return to Pendleton to reside about March 1. Mr. Hiri is a Butte creek farmer and his bride is also from that section though she has been living in Pendleton recently.

P. E. Fletcher was in from Pilot Rock yesterday.

Lou Dockstetter came up yesterday from Portland to spend a few days.

C. S. McNaught, prominent Hermiton resident, was an overnight visitor in Pendleton.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy McDaniel, who have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Thompson for a few days, left last night for their home in Portland.

CRUEL COMMITTEE AFTER MAJOR MOORHOUSE SALARY

Major Lee Moorhouse, Pendleton deputy clerk of the supreme court, may feel the cruel hand of the budget trimmers at Salem. By action of the joint ways and means committee of the two houses the salary of the major as Pendleton deputy has been reduced from $900 to $300 per annum. The position calls for much work, according to Major Moorhouse,

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the system thereby restoring the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Assembly Hall was the scene of one of the prettiest dancing parties of the season last evening when the Boys' Bachelor Club entertained a large number of friends and members. An artistic arrangement of red streamers and hearts proclaiming the fact of St. Valentine's Day made a charming background for the dancers and acted as an effective foil for the many pretty gowns in evidence. The orchestra was stationed on the stage behind a forest setting. Dancing started at 8:30 o'clock, the first number being a grand march led by the presidents of the Boys' and Girls' Bachelor Clubs. They were preceded by little Miss Hampton dressed as a Valentine and carrying a basket of programs. During the evening punch and candy was served. The guests went down in autos.

Jim Roach is in from his ranch. J. Kinny of Echo spent the night in the city.

Marshall Hooper of Salem is at the Pendleton.

Essie Jones of Gibbon is at the Golden Rule.

C. B. Johnson of La Grande is a guest of the St. George.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bunch of Adams was here yesterday.

E. L. Hoppel, traveling agent for the N. P., was here yesterday.

C. J. Miller, well known resident of Pilot Rock, was at the Bowman last night.

Sam D. Peterson, Milton's member of the bar, is transacting business here today.

J. W. Spencer of Hermiton, was up from the west end of the county yesterday evening.

HER NEW YORK AT THE ALTA TODAY

Phoebe Lester, a little country girl, whispers to her pet hen, "You've laid an egg for a man from New York. Aren't you proud?" and while making breakfast to Philip, the new boarder, who came from that distant place, she gazes at him as if he has come from an unknown land. Returning to the city with a new-found love and regained health, Philip struggles to sell his poems to bring his "egg" girl to her New York. In the meantime, Phoebe's brown hen proves to be a golden one, and her egg money buys a ticket to Philip and her Wonderland.

On the train, Laura, a fashionably-dressed woman, meets Phoebe and, tempting her with a nice new dress, takes her to her home. There, Owen, a former employer of Philip, is fascinated by her simplicity. Such grandeur and strange, "fuzzy" drinks overwhelm her, but Providence intervenes when the little brown hen hops outside the street with Phoebe scrambling after. A big-hearted policeman finds her and takes her to Philip, and acts as "bridesmaid" at their wedding.

Their little home, built on much love and little food, is brightened by the adoption of Johnny, an abandoned baby, that Philip finds on the dumbwaiter. Johnny brings good luck and Philip secures a good job through Owen and in nicer quarters their cup of happiness seems to be full, when Owen, to further his end, strives to get Philip to gamble with borrowed money. Phoebe, convinced by trickery, that Philip is unfaithful, is heart-broken and believes that love and her New York are unreal after all. But, the yielding, grief-stricken country girl awakens Owen's better self and with his help the unhappy household is reunited.

St. Paul's ice carnival received a frosty reception only from the weather man.
