

Social and Personal

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Seth Richardson of the birth of an eight pound son at St. Luke's Hospital, Spokane, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Tweet. Mrs. Tweet was formerly Miss Emma Richardson of this city.

A delightful social meeting of the Lady Macabees was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hasset on Garden street. The occasion was in the nature of a birthday surprise for Mrs. T. E. Wheelock and after a business meeting and needlework a dainty two course luncheon was served by the hostess. The presence of Mrs. McKiernan, commander, who has returned from a trip, added greatly to the pleasure of the meeting. There were 31 ladies present, seven of whom were guests, including Julia Chandler, Boss McCook, Mrs. E. C. McCook, Mrs. James M. Paine, Mrs. M. N. Wyrick, Mrs. Jack Berry and Mrs. J. A. Drake.

Mrs. Alvah Shumway of Milton is spending several days in Pendleton.

Mrs. C. S. Terpening, Mrs. W. A. Storie and Mrs. Shepard will entertain the Spiczerinkum Club tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Storie, 201 Coakle street.

Fortnightly Bridge Club members enjoyed a delightful meeting last evening with Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Mable and Mr. and Mrs. Royal Sawtelle as hostesses at the home of the Mabies. High score honors were captured by Mrs. Lester Hurst and Clarence Ash.

The employes of the Pendleton Cash Market were charmingly entertained by Mrs. H. P. Whitman last evening at her home on Lewis street. The prettily appointed dinner was followed by an interesting little "get-together" meeting.

Mrs. S. E. Foster was a delightful hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Lavender Club entertaining them at her home, 514 Thompson street during the afternoon a short program was given Mrs.

C. E. Straub contributing a reading "The Beautiful White Snow" and Mrs. J. L. Rowland "The Soldiers of the Rhine" and "Mrs. E.'s New Spring Suit." The numbers were beautifully rendered and much appreciated. A dainty two course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rowland. Two members were reported to be sick and bouquets of carnations were sent them. Guests other than club members were Mrs. M. J. Peters, Mrs. J. Kornick and Mrs. E. M. Carns.

One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given in Eagle-Woodman Hall last evening by the United Artists for their members, friends and families. About 200 were in attendance and the pleasant pastime was enjoyed until 12:30 o'clock. Excellent music was furnished.

The Missionary Society of the Christian church will meet Thursday afternoon, March 1, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. St. Reetz, 302 Monroe street. A good attendance is urged.

JUST SEE WHAT THEY WEAR AT PALM BEACH

Here you see what fashionable persons with leisure wear when they are at Palm Beach. Mrs. Myron Reynolds startled the crowd when she appeared in a Hawaiian costume for her dip in the ocean. There is no record that she went into the ocean, but she did go on the beach, and she was a heroine. Mrs. John E. Liggett, a beauty, also aroused the blasé there in her pretty costume, from the skirt of which pretty little trouserettes just peeped out. But when Mrs. Frank C. Henderson appeared with a very tight fitting jersey suit and no stockings there was another shock.

D. R. Wood is up today from Prospect Farm.

James M. Kyle of Stanfield has been here today.

H. C. Branstetter and Junius McCoy, well known Echo farmers, are here spending the day.

O. L. Duschee, O. K. Gross and W. H. Kellogg, all of Campbell station, are in the city for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McCutcheon of Nolin were passengers on the incoming motor car this morning.

Mrs. H. M. Warren has returned from Hot Lake where she went in company with Mr. Warren who is still taking treatment at the sanitarium.

W. B. Rhodes, who has been spending the winter in the vicinity of Arlington, was in town today on his way to Pilot Rock where he will remain through the summer.

AEROPLANES IN RAID.
LONDON, Feb. 28.—The admiralty announced that aeroplanes raided the Brebach Ironworks Sunday. There were several air battles. One German machine was destroyed.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

In assembly this morning Virgil Fendall announced there would be a meeting of all men interested in track this evening.

Arnold Reed, track manager, also spoke. He urged all prospective track men and especially freshmen to attend the meeting.

The eastern Oregon track meet is to be held here this year and as the local high school has taken this meet the last two years great efforts are being made to develop a team that will carry off the championship again this year.

FLANKED SIRLOIN STEAK.

Have the steak cut 1 1/2 inches thick. Wipe with a damp cloth. Have ready a hot, well-oiled broiler. Sear the steak over glowing coals or under a gas flame for 10 to 12 minutes, turning often. Dispose the steak on a hot, well-buttered plank, pipe a broad frill of hot mashed potatoes around the edge of the plank, using pastry bag and tube, brush lightly over with slightly beaten egg-yolk, diluted with 1 tablespoon milk. Then set the plank in a hot oven to brown and reheat the potato and to finish cooking the steak. Remove from the oven and fill the space between the steak and the potato with tomatoes, stuffed with creole rice. Spread the steak with maitre d'hotel butter and garnish the top with smothered mushrooms.

TAPIoca CREAM PIE.

Make a rich pie crust, bake and let cool. Filling as following: One and one-half cups of milk, heated to boiling, 1 cup of tapioca. Cook in milk 10 minutes, 1/2 cup of granulated sugar, 2 egg yolks (save whites for meringue); juice of 1-2 lemons, pinch of salt, 1 teaspoonful of butter. Cook about 20 minutes, let cool, and fill the baked crust. Beat the two whites very stiff for meringue and add two tablespoons of granulated sugar. Spread over top of pie and make a delicate brown.

BREAD AND BUTTER PUDDING.

Four slices of bread buttered on both sides 1 pint of milk, yolk of 3 eggs, 1 cup sugar, 4 drops lemon extract. Bake 1-2 an hour, then cover with meringue and bake a little longer.
