SPRING IN THE STUDENTS' QUARTER.

- Winter is passing, and the bells for ever with their silver lay
- Murmur a melody that tells
- Of April and of Easter day.
- High in sweet air the light vane sets.
- The weathercocks all southward whirl.
- A son will buy his violets
- And make Nini a happy girl.
- Pilgrims from ocean and far isles
- See where the sun is reddening.
- The flocks that fly a thousand miles
- From sunset to sunset.
- Look up, look out, behold the swallows.
- The throats that twitter, the wings that beat;
- And on their song the summer follows.
- And in the summer life is sweet.
- Henry Muncer (Andrew Lang's Ballads and Lyrics of Old France.)

IN THE HANDS OF HIGHWAYMEN

THE people of the United States should see to it that the filibuster Saturday night is the last spectacle of that sort ever to be witnessed in the United States senate.

Shackled by its old rule permitting unlimited debate the senate is a menace to the nation. The filibuster was used for disgraceful purposes this time, yet it is nothing new. Twice before under the Wilson administration have filibusters abused their privileges in order to defy the will of the majority and sacrifice the interests of the country. They did so when the first ship purchase bill was talked to death. They did so once on the rivers and harbors bills.

There is not an atom of sense in a rule allowing unlimited debate. The rule is used to defeat the very purpose for which it was intended. It turns the senate from a deliberative legislative body into an organization at the mercy of highwaymen.

The senate should change its rules and become a legitimate legislative body or it should be abolished. The senators who participated in the filibuster Saturday deserve retirement to private life.

STILL CRYING?

AT an hour when President Wilson is entitled to the confidence and genuine loyalty of all the people because of the courage and clear headed ability with which he guides the ship of state the East Oregonian's local contemporary blinded by partisanship carries an editorial from which the following is taken:

In each election he was the child of accident, of luck, perhaps of destiny, when he fell heir to the honors resulting to his party from republican franchises. Now he is continued because of national timidity, a lack of virile patriotism, and a waste of yellow patriotism. To preserve his place history would be folly. To prophesy the failure or triumph of his second term would be impossible. The man is unfortunately a follower, not a leader.

In other words the Tribune view is that not only is president Wilson unfit but worst of all the people who elected him are no good. They represent "national timidity and a lack of virile patriotism." Quite a slur on those who voted for the reelection of Wilson, the people of Umatilla county included.

What is your view as to the calibre of a newspaper that will express such sentiments, on inauguration day, toward a president confronted by foreign dangers and exasperated by the unjust and contemptible action by the senate filibusters?

IF WAR SHOULD COME

THE immediate effect of war would be increased taxes, large bond issues, heavy orders for military supplies, the rushing forward of naval construction and recruiting of large numbers of men for the army, who would be thus withdrawn from various employments and add to the problems of the labor situation. Several months must elapse before any considerable military force could be dispatched to Europe, and it is not known in what direction our naval forces would be employed, though defense would naturally receive first attention. Meanwhile we could still offer considerable aid to the allies, since our munitions capacity is probably much ahead of our own requirements and could be readily enlarged. In many directions preparedness is well advanced as to first steps, simply because the mobilization of finance, industry and transportation had been planned ahead sufficiently to render execution comparatively easy.

Just how the stock market will behave in event of hostilities it is difficult to estimate. The prevalent opinion is that war has been discounted and that after the first shock, which may cause a fall, there will come a general recovery owing to relief from suspense and expectation of war inflation. This market has been well liquidated during the last two months, and there is a great abundance of capital awaiting investment when confidence revives. On the other hand it would be hazardous to overlook the effect of impending heavy government issues, domestic and foreign, which will increase the demand for funds and cause frequent shifting of high priced investments yielding low returns to some of the new government issues which offer safe and more attractive returns. Then there is always the possibility, increasing each day, of an early and unexpected ending of the war which would of course precipitate a fresh readjustment in business affairs throughout the civilized world. For these and other reasons, no engagements entering into the future can be made with any reasonable assurance, and the only safe policy is step by step and day by day. At the same time the country must and will quickly accommodate itself to the new conditions. Troubles will be faced steadfastly and accepted with composure.—From the Clews Financial Review.

DO YOU KNOW...

- That the first bridge over the Umatilla river where now is the Main street bridge was a toll bridge built and operated by Moses E. Goodwin?
- That Bill Humphrey was dubbed "Raspberry" in the days when he used to like to shoot a quiet little game of craps in an amusement place called The Raspberry?
- That Doc Vincent is one of the former mayors of Pendleton?
- That Joe Blakely, who has been deputy sheriff of Umatilla county for 18 years, was the first sheriff of Gilliam county, receiving an appointment from Governor Moody?
- That Senator Harry Lane seems to have gotten in bad in his native New Jersey?
- That Pendleton has the poorest commercial club quarters of any city in the northwest?
- That Dr. Alexander Bied of Hermiton is said to be slated for appointment as physician at the state penitentiary?

29 Years Ago Today

- (From the Daily East Oregonian, March 6, 1888.)
- Moorhouse & Co. have just received from New York, coats, aprons and vests for use of barkeepers, hotel waiters and barbers.
- The snapping of being replaced under the bridge which was knocked out by the ice last winter.
- E. R. Parke's little three year old boy wandered away from home and mother today and was lost for several hours.

Farmers are advised not to allow their dogs to follow them to town, or the dog catcher will get them.

The Sisters are having two large fountains put in the yard in front of their school.

There are now four or five prominent sheepbuyers stopping at the Villard house. They can also all play whist, a little bit.

A stranger while handling a pistol in Wheeler-Greene & Co's hardware store this morning accidentally discharged it, the ball passing through the glass of a large show case, flattening itself against the mirror in the back of the case, smashing the mirror.

WOMEN MECHANICS.

The Jeffery Six Combines Dependability, Power and Comfort

DEPENDABILITY is the first quality you seek in a motor car.

You demand power, too—ease and comfort—all the luxury you can get. But most of all you want a car that can be depended upon to take you there and back whenever you want to go.

The Jeffery Six motor, which develops 53 horse power, insures all the power and speed you want without vibration or side-sway. With amazing flexibility its acceleration on high gear ranges from two to sixty miles an hour without effort.

From an economical standpoint its fuel consumption is low and its tire mileage high. Mechanically sound, repair bills are almost negligible.

The hammock-slung body is streamline softened by lateral roll edges. Both the tonneau and driving compartment are comfortably large, affording ample room for seven passengers. Divided front seats is an attractive feature. You will find it exceptionally strong value at $1465.

Jeffery Sixes are priced as follows: Seven-passenger Sedan, $1650; Sedan Combination, $1690; seven-passenger touring car, $1465; roadster, $1435.

Four: Seven-passenger touring car, $1095; seven-passenger Sedan, $1260; Sedan Combination, $1320.

MAMMA! DON'T YOU SEE YOUR CHILD IS SICK, CONSTIPATED

LOOK AT TONGUE! MOVE POISONS FROM LIVER AND BOWELS AT ONCE.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, rumbling, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Pines" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermented food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Pines," then look and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

AND NOW ICE GOES UP

Chicago Dealers Announce Advance of 20 Per Cent.

CHICAGO, March 6.—Beginning tomorrow, the retail price of ice will be raised 20 per cent by the largest ice company in Chicago. The new price is to be 27 1-2 cents a hundred pounds. In announcing the reason for the increase, the company says "everything that enters into the cost of the ice production has gone up."

LITTLE GIRL HAD CROUP.

Every mother knows and fears croup. Mrs. R. M. Haney, R. F. D. No. 2, Elmore, Ky., writes: "My little child was having croup every few nights. I began to give her a few drops of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound every two or three hours, and that night she slept well, never coughed any, and the next day her cold was gone. To all of my friends I am saying, Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar for a grippy cough, cold and croup. A genuine cure."
