The Weakly Bulldogger

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1917.

Maybe It Was Die-Vest.
Jim Estes characterizes Judge Poe's attack upon John Vert as an o-Vest act.

The Lake in the Mirror.
Those who attended the recent style show will remember that there were two tall, slender, dark-haired male models who had a marked resemblance to each other. They were Ray Snyder and Weston Lake. As an evidence of the similarity of their looks, we submit the following: Young Lake acted as escort to a high school girl the other evening at a picture show in the Temple theater. Facing the center aisle is a large mirror which gives the effect of the outgoing audience meeting another coming in. As Lake and his lady passed down the aisle, their reflections came toward them. Lake glanced at the approaching man and lifted his hat. "Who were you speaking to?" said his lady. "To Ray Snyder," was the reply.

It Ripens Enroute.
Said a young miss in the P. H. S. cooking school, "Why is it that Columbia river smelt sell for 7 cents a pound in Oregon and for 7 cents a pound when they get back east?" Answered Miss Butler, teacher of cookery, "It's because the farther they get away from home the more they're smelt."

She Must Have Heard Them Try It.
Editor Bulldogger:

War is an awful thing and I sincerely hope this county will keep out of it. If we do get into the war, I know what a toll of money and human life will be exacted, but nevertheless, I will not consider that the terrible cost has been a useless sacrifice if, spurred by patriotic fervor, the Pendleton musicians learn to play the national airs.

Yours for harmony,
MISS E FLAT.

Ask to See the Picture.
Senator Steiwer, in addressing the banqueters the other evening, characterized the homecoming of the legislators and the excursionists as the return of the prodigals, and made some reference to the "fatted calf" which seemed to amuse him mightily. Most of those present failed to get his point, but some, who had seen a certain picture taken at St. Paul and depicting George Peringer on a horse with a short-skirted queen on behind him, thought they saw his allusion. If that is what he had in mind, we think it would have been more appropriate to have referred to the "fatted calf."

It Can't Be Did.
(Stanfield Periscope.)
There is no use tryin' to tickle the humor of Kernal Klark Wood. Last week the Bulldogger presented a very clever little pun:

"As a result of the visit of Doc Lytle Umatilla county has a quarantine on her East End."
And the astute Kernal had to spoil it with this:

"Atrocious! One could almost wish that the Umatilla would go on a helluva tear and that the county would get her seat wet."

Doc and Tom.
(This ditty was inspired by the recent split between Mayor Best and Chief of Police Gurdane.)
There was a time within our ken,
When Doc called Tom his bosom friend,
When each would share his final cent
To help the other pay his rent.

When each one felt a mutual trust
Nor'd stand to hear the other cussed,
Ah, yes, they were like brothers then,
And boasted friendship to all men.
But times have changed. Behold them now,
They pass with neither word or bow,
Each turns on each a baleful eye,
If speak they must, they pass the lie,
Doc's sworn to get his old friend's goat.

Tom's fingers itch to grip Doc's throat.
Ah, me, 'tis sad to see such hate
As separates these two of late.

An yet, methinks 'tis no surprise,
And few would have it otherwise.
They never were birds of a feather,
And sheep and wolves can't live together.

'Tis not for me to more explain,
Go take your pick, Best or Gurdane.

Answer to Queries.
Mellicent—Your idea of a trap-shooter is all wrong. It has nothing to do with a hunter who shoots beasts caught in traps.

Miss Modesty—Those stories you heard at the community banquet were quite proper. The toastmaster is the chairman of the board of censors.

The Two Doctors.
If it is proper to refer to Senator Lane's participation in the filibuster as "The End of the Lane," why would it not be equally proper to refer to Mayor Best's predicament as "The Last of the Best?"

How to Prevent Croup.
When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable everywhere.

CHARGED WITH SHIPPING LIQUOR INTO THE STATE.
PORTLAND, March 10.—First Officer Peter Peterson, Second Officer N. P. Jensen and Boatwain John Richardson of the steamer Breakwater, were arrested on a charge of being implicated in an attempt to ship liquor into Oregon from San Francisco. They were released on five hundred dollars bail each.

FRENCH CONTINUE ADVANCE ALONG A MILE FRONT.
PARIS, March 10.—It is announced the French continue to advance on a mile front in the Champagne district. A German counter was defeated between Eulle Meuse and Malancas Champagne. The French maintained all their gains.

When to Take Chamberlain's Tablets.
When you feel dull and stupid after eating.
When constipated or bilious.
When you have a sick headache.
When you belch after eating.
When you have indigestion.
When nervous or despondent.
When you have no relish for your meals.
When your liver is torpid.
Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

CHICK EVANS
Professional Golfer

BOTH MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Relieved From Pain and Suffering by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"For three or four years I suffered a great deal of pain periodically, so I would have to lie down. My back would ache and I would feel very weak and miserable."

Remember how my mother relieved from pain by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I decided to try it, and thanks to the Compound it helped me just as it did my mother, and I am free from pain, backache and that general weakness that was so hard to bear. I am able to do my work during such times and am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends who suffer as I did.—Miss META TIEDEMANN, 1822 Jefferson Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

All sorts of reasons are given by various famous athletes as to how they came to select the particular branch of sport in which they have established their reputations but Chick Evans, national amateur and open golf champion, gives the most novel or reasons. Chick says that he might have become a baseball player after having pitched a no-hit game for his high school in Chicago several years ago had it not been for a torn ligament of the shoulder sustained while playing the national game. Again, Chick says, he might have gone in for football if he hadn't suffered a broken leg in a high school game. After these misfortunes Chick took up golf.

New Spring Suits

Young women, their older sisters and mothers, are all enthusiastic over SPORT SUITS AND COATS. Dame Fashion has decreed. "It's a sport clothes season and every woman will have at least one garment of sport style in her wardrobe." So the designers and makers have given this much study and we have received some of their best creations. These are now ready for you to see, to try on and to buy now that you may receive the benefit of a full season's wear.

Suits and coats in sport styles are shown here in wool jersey, pastel wool velour, country club cloth, khaki kool, fancy plaids and stripes and others.

Each garment has a distinguishing style feature—this one a novel pocket—another one is heavy stitched in an exclusive design and then there are those made of unusually bright colored materials, and you'll see styles with particularly new collars. There's a coat or suit for you among them.

PRICE FOR SPORT SUIT $17.50 to $37.50
PRICE FOR SPORT COATS $7.50 to $45.00

First Long Trousler Suit

That first long trouser suit should be very carefully chosen. You don't want your boy to become a man over night. You don't want him to look too mature. We've brought a world of good sense and experience to bear upon the matter—our

"GRADUATE" AND "VIKING"
HIGH SCHOOL SUITS

are very youthful—just a bit more manly than the last knicker suit.

Sparkling patterns, rich colors, smart weaves and clever models, pinch-back, belted or regular sack styles.

Priced $12.50 to $25.00
