A Dissected Plateau.
Standing on a hilltop almost anywhere in New England on a clear day, and looking around at the horizon, one notices that the high-level surfaces of one hill after another approach the plane of the circular sky line. It requires but little imagination to recognize in the successive hilltops the remains of the even and continuous surface of what was once a great plain, from which the valleys of today have been carved by the erosive action of flowing water. This is most easily recognized from a considerable elevation especially if the broad upland high-level areas of western Massachusetts at Whitcomb Hills on the Mohawk Trail. This is termed a dissected plateau. (U. C. Geol. Survey, Dept. of the Interior.)

BERG-O'NEILL BOUT AROUSING INTEREST AMONG LOCAL FANS
Number Will Probably Go to La Grande to Witness Match Friday Night.

Considerable interest has been aroused among Pendleton wrestling fans in the bout to be staged in La Grande Friday evening of this week between John Berg of Spokane and Jack O'Neill of La Grande. A number will probably go over to take in the event.

Berg is one of the best known wrestlers on the coast and claims the championship at 175 pounds. He is a veteran of over 1000 bouts and before he began his mat career was a strong man. He has met some of the best men in the country, including Frank Gotch.

O'Neill claims to be northwest champion at 175 pounds. He has wrestled all over the country and has a long string of victories dangling from his belt. He is a great favorite in La Grande and he expects to add to his prestige Friday night by defeating Berg.

LORDS RELUCTANT TO PUNISH PRINCES
Bill to Deprive Enemy of British Titles Passes Its Second Reading.

LONDON, March 20.—The house of Lords today passed the second reading of the bill to deprive enemy princes of British titles and dignities, after the government had promised to refer the bill to a special committee for further consideration. This promise was made as the outcome of the peers who desired to shelve the bill on the ground it was absurd to regard certain princes as traitors. The Marquis of Lansdowne agreed that the bill was only intended to apply to the Duke of Albany, the Duke of Cumberland and Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein, all of whom are related to the British royal family and who, he agreed, could not possibly be regarded as traitors. The Marquis admitted the bill was a mere concession of public opinion.

The bill, said Earl Curzon, leader in the house of lords, was supported by all parties in the house of commons and its rejection would expose the government to misrepresentations and probably provoke a public outcry which would interfere with the conduct of the war.
