What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

Margarita Fischer in Miss Jackie of the Navy.

Pastime today. As Jackie Holbrook, the beautiful daughter of Nouveau rich parents in Alfred Solman's fascinating story "Miss Jackie of the Navy," the versatile star, Margarita Fischer gives a splendid performance of one of the most unusual characters she has ever been called upon to create. From the center of attraction in an exclusive circle of high society she suddenly finds herself on board a United States battleship dressed in the fancy dress ball costume of a sailor and forced to pose as one of the crew. From this exciting position with its accompanying thrills and clever comedy situations, the charming little actress is transported to Venezuela where among the savages of the interior she is the leading figure in an intensely interesting series of sensational events which bring this extraordinary drama to a thrilling climax.

Margarita Fischer in "Miss Jackie of the Navy" is an elaborately staged production in which the talented star is surrounded by a splendid cast of notable players.

In addition the clever comedian George Ovey in Jerry's Strategy. This is a program that comes highly recommended and Manager Matlock guarantees it to his patrons. Your money back if you don't like it. Adults 15c, children 5c.

Viola Dana Found Many Admirers When Appearing in Mining Scenes For Play.

Many of the strongest scenes in "Threads of Fate," the new Metro feature with Viola Dana as star, which will be seen at the Alta theater Friday, were taken in the famous coal mining district around Wilkesbarre, Pa. The pictures taken there depict the life of the coal miners and their struggles with capital. Before going to Wilkesbarre, Director Eugene Nowland anticipated difficulty in obtaining permission to work around the mines. He went to one of the owners and told what he wanted.

"You say the pictures have Viola Dana as the star," asked the mine owner. "Why, she can have anything she wants here. She's our favorite. We'll blow up a mine for her if she wants it." When the company reached Wilkesbarre, Miss Dana was besieged by her admirers. One of them was an old miner who told her that there were fourteen children in his family and that all of them admired her and her screen work.

CRIMINAL GIVES HIS LIFE TO SQUARE HIMSELF

After fighting lions and leopards, escaping the devastating feet of the Universal City elephant on the rampage, and "riding the rods" for miles on a freight car for his last Red Feather feature, "Love Alame," Jack Mulhall returns like a giant refreshed as a New York gunman, in the fine picture directed by Raymond Wells, and called by the promising title of "The Terror."

Jack is the terror, and when you see the calm fashion in which he disposes of the lives of four men and undertakes the killing of the fifth, you will agree that his title was well earned. But Jack loved a girl, and she had aspirations toward a better life. She drew him along with her, but when she tried to tell him about what he called "that religious stuff," he was unable to understand how just saying a few words could square all the wrongs he had done. "The Terror" was the kind who goes in to anything, even killing, with all his heart and soul, and when he decided to "square himself," he did not hesitate at the sacrifice of his own life, which he cheerfully gave in reparation. This remarkable story of the regeneration of a city rat is convincingly told in the Red Feather photoplay, "The Terror," which comes to the Cosy theater on today.

Temple Tuesday and Wednesday.

The principal role in "The Last of the Ingrams," Triangle-Kay Bee play from the studios of Thomas H. Ince, which will be seen at the Temple theater Tuesday and Wednesday, is allotted to William Desmond. The story has to do with one Jules Ingram, the last of a family of well known settlers in a bleak Cape Cod community. Jules has inherited a genial and pleasure loving disposition from his French mother, but his inhospitable surroundings depress him so thoroughly that he becomes a drunkard just to be different from his neighbors. Mercy Reed, a girl who has made one great mistake which has led to her estrangement, shows her sympathy with Jules when his home is sold at auction. They become friends and in facing the abuse and hatred of their fellow townsmen finally achieve a victory that leads to the better things of life.

Secretary General Jules Cambon Believes Military Aid Would be Welcomed.

PARIS, March 28.—"We wish to see America's troops here as soon as possible," Secretary General Jules Cambon told American correspondents. "The public has confidence in American military aid and such aid will be enthusiastically welcomed. The new government's policy is more active. Germany is actually in hard straits."

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

WHEN MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT BRINGS BACK ITS BEAUTIFUL LUSTRE AT ONCE.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

TAKE SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF BLADDER IRRITATION OR BACKACHE.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. The famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage, and belongs in every home because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

William Desmond in "The Last of the Ingrams"

A race of hard driving, hard hearted New England fishermen. But Jules is a dreamer with the blood of his French mother, and he loses, to his grasping townspeople, every penny of his inheritance, even the ancestral home. Then he finds a girl, who needs this man as he needs her, and together they combat the world with a strength born of love and righteousness and regeneration.

A play that you will remember.
