Shortage of Rain.

While March was unusually cold and windy, it was not even normally wet. The weather records show that there was a shortage of one inch for the month, making a total deficiency for the wet season of 2.45 inches.

Injured His Arm.

William Coffman of this city is wearing an arm in a sling as the result of an accident at Fulton the other day. While piling sacks in a warehouse, he tripped and fell, a sack of wheat catching his arm in such a way as to tear the ligaments.

Fell From Loft.

James O. Hales, prominent farmer, suffered a severe shaking up and many bruises Saturday in a fall from the loft of his barn to the concrete floor below. At first it was thought he might be seriously injured but an examination showed no bone broken. Today he is much improved.

W. O. W. Defeats Colored Giants.

The W. O. W. team of this city, having defeated the Colored Giants yesterday 16 to 4, will meet the Echo team next Sunday, according to an announcement made today. The Woodmen have a strong battery in Ed Darling, captain, and Booney Hayes and their entire team is well balanced.

Three Are Naturalized.

Three foreign residents of Umatilla county were today made citizens of the United States by Circuit Judge Phelps when they qualified for final papers and took the oath of allegiance. They were T. C. Elliott of Milton, who came from Canada, Luigi Bellomo of Freewater, formerly a subject of the king of Italy, and Malcolm C. McIntyre of Adams, formerly of Canada.

Idaho Battalion Coming Through.

This evening at 6:45 a special train bearing the first battalion of the Idaho National Guard is scheduled to arrive in Pendleton enroute to Boise to mobilize. The battalion consists of the companies in the northern part of Idaho. Several of the Pendleton members of the I. N. G., including Charles Clum, Charles De Haas, George Perry and Pat Siddons, will join the battalion here.

Special Services This Week.

Special "Passion Week" services will be held each night this week at the Methodist church. The series of narrative sermons began yesterday morning the subject being "A Day of Triumph." The subjects for the week are as follows: Tonight, "A Day of Judgment"; Tuesday, "A Day of Speech"; Wednesday, "A Day of Silence"; Thursday, "A Day of Farewells"; Good Friday, "A Day of Suffering"; Saturday, no service, Christ in the tomb; Sunday, "The Resurrection." These services are meant to be informing and really devotional. The public is invited to worship with the church. The services are from 7:30 to 8:30.

Funeral of Rev. Quinney's.

The Church of the Redeemer, where at 3 o'clock this afternoon is being held the funeral services over the body of the late rector, Rev. Charles Quinney, is a mass of beautiful flowers.

ers. All day bouquets and elaborate floral pieces have been arriving at the church, tokens from the hundreds of friends of the man whose faithful labors during a decade in this community had endeared him to all, regardless of church or creed. The church is crowded to the doors this afternoon. Bishop Robert Paddock is conducting the services.

Easter Six Days Off—

Are you ready to join in with the promenade of beautifully dressed men and women on that day? Have you purchased your new spring attire as yet or are you holding back on account of the enormous "before Easter" prices that are being asked at all the stores. You do not have to wait until after Easter to buy that suit, because our prices today are lower than you can buy them at other places after next Sunday. The "snap" and "style" found in our Ladies' Suits cannot be equaled anywhere. We never reduce an article or hold special sales, but we undersell everyone at all times, so you can rest assured that if you buy from us now the price will remain the same after Easter.
