THE CALL

"Stand together, and we win!"
 It was Washington who spoke
 In the days of rebel din,
 When a nation new awoke;
 And, deserting force and field—
 Purpose single, pulses steered—
 Cast aside the ancient yoke.

"Stand together and we win!"
 Lincoln called for unity
 When the wrongs of colored kin
 Racked the heart of Liberty;
 When four years of living hell
 Was the price of principle
 In the country of the free.

"Stand together and we win!"
 It is Wilson's word today,
 When dialogal sons within
 Snicker, sneer and far away;
 When, forsaking Peace's path,
 We arise in Honor's wrath,
 And we join the bloody fray.

"Stand together and we win!"
 North and South and East
 and West;
 Let the slitherer's dastard sin
 Damn alone the traitor's
 breast;
 Let us back the flag again
 As we rallied to it when
 Firm and fearless minute men
 Stood together for the test!
 —James C. McNeilly.

gone forward already for the different branches of the service. It is a good showing under the circumstances, one of which Pendleton may be proud. But that is not all this section will do for Uncle Sam during the war. Umatilla county can and will mobilize a four or five million bushel wheat crop this summer that will accomplish a lot towards feeding our army and the armies of our allies in Europe. Then we have our cattle and our sheep and hogs and wool and potatoes and hay and fruit. They will all be needed and Umatilla county farmers may be depended upon to turn out the maximum production. There are no slackers here.

A TIME FOR FAIR PLAY

IN various parts of the country the spirit of fair play is being invoked towards Germans living in this country. The following editorial from the Boston Post is typical. It should be an axiom that there is little need for the authorities of city or state to demand fair play for German residents in this Democratic wealth. According to all appearances they will certainly get it. We don't think our people of other races or older antecedents in America will be unjust and intolerant enough to visit the sins of the German autocracy on perfectly innocent thousands of miles away from Berlin. It is not our habit to do anything like that. Mind, we said "innocent" persons. If aliens living here prefer to be something else, they can have all the trouble they want. But we are certain that the overwhelming majority of them do not prefer it.

The East Oregonian believes the spirit expressed in the foregoing is the spirit of Pendleton and eastern Oregon. It is no part of bravery to jump onto people when they are handicapped as Germans living in this country now are. At the same time it will be well for Germans who may not approve of our country's course to have regard for the proprieties of the occasion. They will realize of course that loyal citizens will have scant patience with expressions of disloyalty from anyone.

THE NATION FIRST

HERE has been some criticism from Portland because Pendleton boys have joined the Idaho national guard instead of the O. N. G. The explanation is that an Idaho company kept a recruiting officer here, paid transportation to the recruits and kept the local boys together in one company. The Oregon guard put forth no such efforts, consequently the boys went with the Idaho regiment. Had an effort been made to keep the boys from joining the Idaho regiment in the hope they might go with the Oregon troops the net result might have been to keep them at home. Would it have been patriotic to have done that? Should not the national need have preference over state or local pride?

 Mumps are again on the rampage. J. F. Johnson and H. J. Dean are the latest victims.

DAUGHTER IN TERRIBLE SHAPE

Women bear troubles more bravely than men. They smile and suffer pain uncomplainingly where a man demands a doctor and nurse. A. Mitchell, Bagdad, Ky., writes: "My daughter was in terrible shape with kidney trouble. I got her to take Foley Kidney Pills and she is completely cured." Aching back, sore muscles, stiff joints, shooting pains in sides, rheumatic aches are indications that the kidneys are not working properly. Foley Kidney Pills correct bladder troubles.  A. J. Crabbe, a brother of Joe Crabbe of Walla Walla fell through a cellar door at Walla Walla Sunday and dislocated his neck.
 Taylor, Jones & Co. received a carload of choice, juicy nats yesterday consisting of 250 kegs fresh from the east. There is no nothing to prevent any Pendleton man from having a keg of nats for his Sunday dinner.

DO YOU KNOW..

That Webster's dictionary defines the word chicken as "a young woman; a maiden" and that Swift many years ago in one of his poems had the line "Stella is no chicken"?
 That R. Alexander and Tom Taylor served as members of the same council in Pendleton?
 That the Umatilla river early in the last century was called by the Indians Youmaloham, meaning "water rippling over sand"?
 That the government measurements showed over eight feet of snow near Kamela last week?

STILL 5 FEET OF SNOW AT MEACHAM

ALTHOUGH WEATHER IS WARMING UP AND MUCH SNOW HAS MELTED.

Miss Meda Schreckise Surprises Parents and Friends by Eloping With Bob Mathews, Being Married at The Dalles; Now Resides at Kamela. (East Oregonian Special.)
 MEACHAM, April 9.—Last Monday there was a 12-inch snow fall but since then the weather has been warm so there has been quite a change of experiencing lots of rain, which has melted the snow down several feet but there is still 4 1/2 and 5 feet to dispose of. The tracks were bare of snow during the week for the first time all winter but on Sunday morning there was 2 or 3 inches of snow again. There was plenty of welcomed sunshine in between showers all week. A government measurement was taken of the snow depth last week and at that time it was 9 feet 11 inches here and 8 feet 5 inches at Kamela.
 Those who may remember Roy Broz, brother of Mrs. R. Fagon of this place, and who was here for a time during 1914, may be interested to hear that he has joined the National Guards of Palo Alto, Calif., a few weeks ago. Upon notice of war, he was ordered to report to duty and then secretly married Miss Viola Magnuson of Oakland, Calif. They intend making their home at Redwood City, for the present, unless the recruit must serve at once.
 Miss Meda Schreckise of this place surprised her parents, as well as her many friends, by marrying Bob Mathews, of Kamela, sometime last week. They went to Pendleton and then quietly slipped to The Dalles where a marriage license was secured. They are now residing at Kamela where

LATE POPE LEO XIII. READ DANTE IN BED

Secretary Was Obligated to be the Audience Until He Contrived a Ruse.
 NEW YORK, April 10.—The recent death of Mr. Marzoffi, for thirty years secretary to Pope Leo XIII., attending through his service as Cardinal Pucci and as the head of the church, has brought to light an interesting story of the dead pope.
 As cardinal he took his secretary with him on all his religious visits, and on one occasion, at a small out of the way hamlet, the parish priest could only furnish one room for the two. So Mr. Marzoffi slept on a

As it now stands, refined and improved by the Nash Motors Company, Jeffery Six has our unqualified approval.

When we took over the Jeffery plant we knew we had secured a big asset in Jeffery Six.

Inspect the Nash-improved Jeffery Six. Ride in it. Drive it. You'll find it the easiest riding and the easiest handled car you've ever known.

The body lines are right—stream lines. The motor is vibrationless at all speeds. The tire mileage is high and the upkeep low.

sofa in the corner. Each night on going to bed he took out a copy of Dante and read a canto of "Il Paradiso." When he came to a difficult or interesting passage he would read it to his secretary and discuss it with him. The secretary did not take intense interest in Dante as did the cardinal, and often he was sleepy. After a few nights he decided to put an end to it. When the cardinal as usual, read a passage and asked his opinion the only answer he got was a snore.
 "The man has no taste who can fall asleep while Dante is being read," ejaculated the future pope in disgust as he threw his book away and decided to go to sleep himself.

EVEREADY

paid $12,000.00 for this name

Four People Receive $3000 each

In our announcement last fall of the Eveready Contest for a better name than "flashlight," we stated that if "two or more contestants submit the word selected the full amount of the prize will be paid to each."

We have made our selection without regard to the number of duplications. The word chosen was submitted by the four following contestants, to each of whom we are paying $3000.00:
 Mrs. F. C. Grow, 1219 28 St., N.E., Watertown, S.D.
 Katherine W. Hand, 1501 Mulvane St., Topeka, Kan.
 Miss J. M. Schuls, 239 2nd St., Union Hill, N. J.
 Bertha A. Wilson, 413 Park Ave., Medina, N. Y.

The prize-winning word is DAYLO. It fulfills in a masterly way the requirements specified, viz: a coined word that we can register as a trade-mark and a name easy to remember and entirely simple to pronounce. "DAY" suggests perfect light, and "LO" means "Behold!"—"See!"

The true significance, the living ideal of the reliability and service characteristic of our product will hereafter find its expression in the new name, Eveready-DAYLO.

I wish I might personally thank each of the half million contestants and the millions of Eveready friends and users who have contributed so earnestly to the success of our search for a new name.

Sincerely,
 Conrad Hubert
 Vice-President
