

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Clara T. Lyle was the inspiration for a charmingly appointed reception yesterday afternoon for which Mrs. Laura Nash was the hostess at her attractive home on Bush street. Fragrant hyacinths in tones of red, white and blue provided a patriotic and springlike floral decoration that was further emphasized in the arrangement of the tea table where the pretty blossoms vied with softly shaded lights and red, white and blue candles in artistic effect. Mrs. W. E. Brock, Mrs. R. D. Sayres, Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mrs. E. T. Wade presided at the samovars, while Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. James Johnson, Sr., Mrs. Sylvan Cohn and Mrs. George Haslett assisted about the rooms. Three pretty young maids, Miss Dorothy Newberry, Miss Mary Alice Shanard and Miss Helen Idelman assisted in serving. The invitational list included Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Schaefer, Mrs. N. Berkeley, Mrs. John Vaughtan, Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. C. M. Stipe, Mrs. James Johnson, Sr., Mrs. George Shanard, Mrs. Charles Heard, Mrs. C. W. Tullis, Mrs. John Halsey, Jr., Mrs. O. T. Ladlow, Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Miss Shaw, Mrs. Charles Norris, Mrs. S. A. Newberry, Mrs. Simms, Mrs. George D. Haslett, Mrs. Margaret Felling, Mrs. E. T. Wade, Mrs. James H. Gwinn, Mrs. Samuel H. Forshaw, Mrs. John Vert, Mrs. H. H. Hattery, Mrs. E. E. Judd, Mrs. H. D. Jones, Mrs. J. N. Burgess, Mrs. Charles Gredlich, Mrs. W. J. Clarke, Mrs. Wilson E. Brock, Mrs. R. D. Sayres, Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., Mrs. H. D. J. Gray, Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Mrs. H. E. Bickers, Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt, Mrs. W. W. Caviness, Mrs. Sylvan Cohn, Mrs. Mary Lane, Miss Neva Lane, Mrs. C. A. Vurpillat, Mrs. Gideon Brown, Mrs. Eugene Avison, Mrs. A. T. Park, Mrs. Sibbie Page Morton, Mrs. I. U. Temple, Mrs. R. Raymond, Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. M. I. Stockman, Mrs. F. L. Ingram, Mrs. Jesse, Mrs. J. J. Hamley, Mrs. L. D. Idelman, Mrs. W. F. Matlock, Mrs. Wesley Matlock.

The Missionary Society of the Christian church was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lester Boyd, 501 East Court street. After a short business period, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Patton, leader of the program and the following numbers were given: A splendid reading by Mrs. M. L. Peters and an interesting talk by Mrs. Hoover on summer schools and conventions, an instructive paper on Mexico by Mrs. Reetz and late news of Mexico by Mrs. Morton. The much enjoyed afternoon was brought to a close with several musical numbers. Division No. 2 had charge of the program. Light refreshments and a pleasant social hour followed.

The Butter Creek Social club will be hosts at another of their enjoyable dances this evening.

Mrs. Van Pearson, the well known nurse, who has been seriously ill in the hospital for the past several months, is able to be out today for the first time, much to the joy of her many friends.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Oliver Huff entertained at a prettily appointed tea, a charming spring motif being carried out by the use of pink tulips and carnations. Mrs. Huff was assisted at the tea table by Mrs. Virgil Fendall and Mrs. Stanley Jewett.

Of interest to many Pendleton folk are the invitations just issued by Mr. and Mrs. William Burkhardt of Mankato, Minn., for the wedding of their niece, Miss Helene Thekla Herboth to Mr. Roy E. Moore, which will be solemnized Wednesday, May 3 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Burkhardt residence, 1506 S. Second street, Mankato. Mr. and Mrs. Moore are to be at home after June 25 at 554 West 173 street, New York City. Miss Herboth was a prominent member of the musical set during her residence in Pendleton two years ago and made a large circle of friends here.

Twenty auto loads of young people comprising the Glee Club and orchestra of the Pendleton high school together with a number of friends journeyed to Weston last evening where the "Princess Bul-Bul" the successful operetta given here a week ago was repeated before a large audience. The presentation again registered a distinct hit and much praise was bestowed upon the participants and their instructor, Miss Nellie Ambal. About $16 was cleared above expenses. Following the operetta the Pendleton folk were guests of honor at a much enjoyed dancing party.

Among the cars making the trip were the S. R. Thompson, E. J. Murphy, Tom Terjeson, Harlan Fell, George La Fontaine, Allen McLean, Dave Nelson, Reuben Lase, Fred Stroble, Eugene Hampton, Wesley Matlock, Harvey Gerrant and Donald Robinson autos, which carried the cast. The auto truck also took up a load of students.

Mrs. James A. Fee and Mrs. E. R. Aldrich will entertain the Current Literature club next Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sturges are spending the week-end in Walla Walla.

Last evening at the convocation of Pendleton Chapter No. 25, R. A. M. the Royal Arch degree was conferred upon Earl Bartholomew, H. S. Denison and William P. Hirt, all of Freewater. This is the third team composed wholly of Master Masons from the Milton lodge to be made Royal Arch Masons by the local chapter during this year.

On Monday evening in Warren's Music House the following interesting program will be given at 8:15 o'clock by Thelma Saling and Kathryn Froome piano pupils of Nellie Whiting McDonald, assisted by Edna Saling, violinist; Gavotte (Buch-Saint-Saens); Thelma Saling; Sonata in F Major (Mozart); Kathryn Froome; Scherzo (Holliday); Legende (Torjussen); Hungary (Koelling); Thelma Saling; Rondino (Kreutzer); Mignonne (Friml); Edna Saling; Erotic (Grieg); Danse Caprice (Grieg); Wedding Day of Truidhaugen (Grieg); Kathryn Froome; Scandinavian Dance (Peterson); To the Spring (Grieg); Album Leaf (Grieg); La Regatta Venetiana (Liszt); Thelma Saling; To the Rising Sun (Torjussen); Drifting (Friml); To a Water Lily (MacDowell); Military Polka (Chopin); Kathryn Froome; Second Symphony (Danciel); Miss Edna Saling; Mr. E. A. McDonald; Duo, Song, Bolis (Victor Straub); Thelma Saling; Kathryn Froome.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church entertained the Women's Missionary societies of the Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Boyden, 115 Lewis street.

In the absence of Mrs. Hubbell the president of the united societies, Mrs. Hauemann presided. The minutes of the last meeting was read. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises of song and prayer. Mrs. Matthews read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Richardson gave a talk on the organization and work of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, and of the efficient and helpful work of Robert Elliott Spear. Mr. Taft's tribute to foreign missions was read. The work of the Home Mission Board since its beginning in 1878 in dealing with the boarding, day and missions schools and mission stations in Alaska, Cuba, Porto Rico as well as in the United States. The recitation by Little Miss Corinne Baker was much appreciated.

Interspersed between the talks were several beautiful musical numbers including a solo by Mrs. Forshaw, a trio by Mrs. Hager, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Hatch, and sacred music on the Edison.

About 70 ladies partook of the dainty refreshments and a silver offering of $5.06 was received.

S. D. Peterson, Milton attorney, was here yesterday.

Joe Bagwell is in today from his farm near Helix.

Bert Cartano of Athena spent last night in the city.

I. W. Durrill of Echo made Pendleton a visit yesterday.

Joseph A. Monese, Echo sheepman, was in the city yesterday.

Bert Casady of John Day is registered at the Bowman.

T. S. Tillson was up from his home at Umatilla yesterday.

L. L. Matlock of Heppner is registered at the Pendleton hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nizer of Boardman are at the St. George.

A. M. Johnson of Athena is among the Saturday visitors in Pendleton.

Frank Saling was in Pendleton yesterday from his Stanfield stock farm.

Charles Alsbach, Helix real estate dealer, came in on the morning N. P. train.

Adolph Molitor, who is running bowling alleys in Walla Walla, is here today.

William Hodgen, well known Freewater farmer, is making the city a visit today.

Francis Beebe, one of the high school teachers at Helix, is spending the day in the city.

William P. Hirt and Earl Bartholomew of Freewater were overnight visitors in Pendleton.

Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen and Mrs. Henry Barrett of Athena spent yesterday shopping in the city.

W. L. Thompson will go out to Holdman today to address the Farmers Union meeting on the road bond measure.

Will Gray of Spokane and Charles Gray of Portland are here visiting their brother, Harry D. Gray, who is ill in the hospital.

J. M. Coy, traveling passenger agent for the Northern Pacific, is speaking in Pendleton one of his regular visits. He anticipates a summer of heavy travel.

START REPAIR WORK ON GERMAN LINERS
NEW YORK, April 14.—Repairs on some of the German liners seized here by the federal authorities upon declaration that a state of war existed with Germany, were begun today by a squad of a hundred machinists under the direction of government experts.

Attention Ladies

Mr. C. R. Young, the great living exponent of demonstrating the Electric Washing Machine, will, with his assistant, make a practical demonstration of the Thor Electric Washer at our office, Tuesday, April 17th from the hours of 2 to 4 p. m.

Mr. Young has arranged with Miss Butler and her corp of domestic science students to serve lunch during the demonstration.

All ladies interested in the Electric Washers are cordially invited to attend this demonstration.

Pacific Power & Light Co.
"Always at Your Service"

The Drink for Every One--

UNFERMENTED
NON-INTOXICATING

BRAN-NEW

An Absolutely Pure Drink
Brewed in Pendleton

A Wonderful Cereal Beverage
Pure and Wholesome

A delightfully refreshing cereal beverage, made from the world's very choicest cereals, by an entirely new process that preserves and enhances the healthful, nourishing qualities of the golden grains. "BRAN-NEW" is thoroughly pre-digested, insuring against fermentation in the stomach. It is not a near-beer, nor is it a substitute for any other product; it stands entirely on its own merits. "BRAN-NEW" is at all times satisfying. "There's new vigor and strength in every drop." "BRAN-NEW" is intended for the home and fireside, a pure, nourishing family drink that every member of the family can enjoy. Served cold with a sandwich, a salad, cracked crab, oysters or a Dutch lunch, or as an accompaniment to the evening dinner, "BRAN-NEW" will captivate the palate of the most critical connoisseur. "BRAN-NEW" may be had at cafes, hotels, soda fountains and grocery stores.

Delivered in case lots to any part of the city
Wm. Roesch Bottling Co.

Pendleton, Oregon.

Telephone 328

AN AUTO IF YOU GUESS HER NAME

This girl is the most popular young lady in the world. She is truly the darling of the screen, and this photo shows her as she will appear in the next Artcraft picture, "A Poor Little Rich Girl." To all who can guess the last name of this well known screen star we will give an automobile awaiting every guess is accompanied by a certified check for $500.