REMONSTRANCE MADE TO PAVING E. WEBB

Signatures of 68.55 Per Cent of Property Owners Secured; No Action Taken on Chief of Police Appointment. A remonstrance to the proposal to pave East Webb street from College to Court was filed with the council last night. It contained the signatures of property owners representing 72.34 per cent of the property involved. However, signatures representing 3.79 were removed, leaving 68.55 per cent. Whether or not the council will recognize this as sufficient to hold up proceedings remains to be seen. No action was taken last evening, but the council has pledged itself to recognize a 68 2/3 per cent remonstrance. Bids were received last evening for the paving of Madison street from Jackson to Wilson and Willow street from Court to Webb. The Warren Construction Co. was the only bidder. The Madison street bid was $2194.97 and the Willow street bid $4176.19. It was reported at the meeting last evening that the proposition of replacing the brick at railway crossings on paved streets with stone blocks is being considered. A petition was presented last evening for the installation of a fire alarm box at the corner of Blaine and Washington. It was referred to the fire committee. Though Mayor Best brought up the matter of naming a successor to the late Chief of Police Nash, no action was taken, the council showing no desire to be in a hurry. The mayor stated there were many applicants.

MOTION PICTURE NEWS What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

FEATURE FILMS TODAY. Pastime—Genevieve Hamper in "Tangled Lives." Alta—Edith Storey in "The Island of Regeneration." Cosy—Violet Mersereau in "Little Miss Nobody." Arcade—Dark. Pastime Today. William Fox is presenting today at the Pastime a film version of the trials and tribulations of the modern society woman featuring Genevieve Hamper. The picture is called "Tangled Lives" and is one of the most noteworthy achievements lately from the Fox studio. In addition will also be shown a Foxfilm Comedy in two acts called "The Film Spoilers" with Charles Conklin. Little Miss Nobody. Well known Favorite, Violet Mersereau at the Cosy Today and Tomorrow. This Bluebird Photoplay, written by two well-known newspaper men and magazine writers, Alfred Solomon and Robert F. Rodin, was adapted for the screen by John C. Brownell and produced by Harry Millard. It gives Violet Mersereau one of the most congenial parts she has ever had and has been pronounced by the professional critics who have seen the advance showings, a "sure winner." It tells the story of a little waif, brought up to druidery in a mountain road house, of her unexpected and romantic change of the plans against her happiness, and of the exciting results of her innocent plot, which nearly ends in a tragedy. In a charming comedy drama, the scenes of which were mostly laid in Ireland, Marie Doro will be seen at the Alta on Friday and Saturday in the Jesse L. Lasky production "Castles for Two" a story written especially for the star by Beatrice De Mille and Leighton Osmun. The theme is unusual in its charm and action and the star is surrounded by an excellent cast which is headed by Elliott Dexter and includes Mayme Kolson, Lillian Leighton, H. B. Carpenter, Billy Elmer, Jane Wolf, Harriett Sorenson and others. Powderless Faces, Threat in France. Parisiennes Panic Stricken Over New Rule Restricting Uses of Rice. PARIS, May 4.—The new regulations prohibiting the diversion of foodstuffs for other uses than as rations are causing a tremendous stir among Parisiennes, because they prevent the manufacture of face powder from rice. Frenchwomen face an epoch of shiny noses, since the importation of luxuries is prohibited and the existing stocks are slight. They have already started laying in supplies. As a result many shops are sold out and prices have been raised. It is estimated there are 26,000,000 women in France and 16 per cent use powder, averaging two grains daily. In four million grains of face powder there are 6,000 kilograms of rice. A ration amounts to 20 grains, so the women of France have been wasting 100,000 rations of rice daily. Miles, Jr., Would Fight. BOSTON, May 10.—Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, today enlisted the support of Governor McCall in an effort to have his son, Capt. Sherman Miles of the field artillery transferred from his post in Hawaii to this country. Gen. Miles says: American forces soon would be sent to France, and he was anxious to have his son take an active part in the campaign against the German.

$100,000 WORTH OF OPIUM IS SMUGGLED IN LEMONS U. S. Agents Made One of Biggest Raids on Chinese Store in Pittsburgh. PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 9.—With the seizing of $100,000 worth of opium and other drugs, and the arrest of two suspects here last night, Federal authorities today said that one of the most powerful smuggling rings in the country had been brought to light. United States Revenue Agent Boyd and a squad of government and city detectives raided the store of Quong Yuen Long & Co., at No. 428 Third avenue, last night, and arrested Nio King, the proprietor, and Charles Nio, alleged to be the manager of the store. They were turned over to the federal authorities today to face charges of violation of the Harrison Drug Act. The raid was one of the biggest ever made in the country. The opium is said to have been smuggled into this country from Mexico in shipments of lemons. It was found in trunks and safes. Search of the store also revealed thousands of dollars in currency in several safes and scores of tin boxes and bottles containing drugs.

GIRLS RALLY TO DEFEND FLAG WORN ON FACE: High School Misses to Appeal to School Board.

NORWALK, May 9.—If boys can paste flags on their collars, why can't Monroeville high school girls wear them on their cheeks and arms? They are going to take this patriotic question before the school board.

A group of the girls came to school yesterday morning with Old Glory in miniature decorating places on their faces and lower necks made conspicuous by their sailor collars. The girls appeared very lovely, set off by red, white and blue beauty spots. Lots of people said so. But the principal ordered the flags removed.

Regrettably they complied but at an indignation meeting planned to carry the dispute higher up. It is rapidly being demonstrated that the "divine right" of kings is neither divine nor right.
