MEACHAM MILL RESUMES WORK

CASEY LUMBER PLANEER HAS FULL FORCE AGAIN AT WORK.

Roads Over Mountains in Bad Condition yet; Auto and Buggy Attempt Trip But Are Forced to Stop at Meacham; Other News Notes.

(East Oregonian Special.)
MEACHAM, May 14.—The Casey Lumber Co. has run the planer here again all of the past week with a full force. They had been shut down for several weeks on account of car shortage and bad weather conditions.

Geo. Green went to La Grande on Wednesday to visit his sister, Mrs. Beacham, who is very ill.

R. Fagan went to La Grande on Saturday night on business.

Those going to the dance at Kamela on Saturday night were: Mr. and Mrs. John Casey and Miss Rhoda Mangers.

Mrs. Fred Riddle and children arrived home from La Grande on Sunday.

Either spring or summer seems to be on hand now for we have had several nice days lately but the creek is very high and over the banks where the land is low, but not to cause any damage. Rains of the last few days caused it to rise rapidly.

On Tuesday, two men attempted to drive a car over the mountains from Pendleton to La Grande, but got as far as a few miles from here, and had to desert the car and walk to Meacham and go on the train. On Sunday the first light buggy and team arrived as far as here, from Pendleton, but unable to go any further. They had to ship their outfit from here and proceed by train. They report the roads not very favorable for auto yet awhile.

Miss Ruby Hilyard returned to her home at Telocaset on Monday.

Mrs. R. Fagan and Lorene made trips to La Grande on Wednesday and Saturday.

RETURN SEATTLE MAN'S MEDAL
Ledy Wanted to Give it to First Gunner Who Sank Submarine.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Louis Levy of Seattle has one perfectly good diamond studded medal going back to him by mail. He got up the medal with much care and sent it here to be given to the navy department for presentation to the first gunner of the navy who pointed a gun which sank a German submarine. Representative Miller took it to Secretary Daniels, who, while commending the spirit behind the gift, says that it is unthinkable, or something like that, to have a civilian give medals to officers or men of the navy.

A Symbol of Health.
The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Fathers and mothers worry over a child with a chronic cough. Knudt Lee, Wannaska, Minn., writes: "For several years my daughter had a bad chronic cough. In a few days the trouble entirely disappeared and has never returned." Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough. Tallman Co.

LIVE NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

ASTORIA, Ore., May 14.—Why wait for a submarine? The gunners on a foreign steamer arriving here the other day grew tired of waiting for one of Kaiser Bill's underwater boats so practiced at whaling along the coast. One whale near the Oregon coast was "kicked" three out of five times.

TACOMA, Wash., May 14.—Tacoma evidently isn't going to have a park board election this year, although the charter provides that the vote shall be taken. No candidates yet have appeared. No person has even made inquiries about the election, according to Secretary George Gosser of the park board. The election date is June 5.

HARD WORK FOR WOMEN.
It is a question if women doing men's work deserve particular sympathy, for it is doubtful if there is any work that is harder than everyday housework. Overwork tells on the kidneys, and when the kidneys are affected one looks and feels older than the actual years. Mrs. A. G. Wells, R. R. 5, Rocky Mount, N. C., writes: "I cannot praise Foley Kidney Pills enough for the wonderful benefit I have derived from their use for a short while." Tallman & Co.

inquiries about the election, according to Secretary George Gosser of the park board. The election date is June 5.

PUYALLUP, Wash., May 14.—The call of spring was too much for a score of students at the Puyallup high school. They kidnaped their teacher "the day" at Maplewood Springs, a gambling o'er the green. And oh, the fragrance of the May flowers; the buzzing bee; the budding leaflet—oh, la, la. But today—great sobs of grief—these selfsame students are marching before the principal with funeral step, explaining why they shouldn't be expelled.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 14.—"What do you mean by firing the German flag?" demanded the broad shouldered policeman on the front porch of Mrs. A. D. Goodfellow, 390 Jefferson street. "Where do you see a German flag?" she asked. "Right here," answered the cop, and he pointed to a flag hanging from the porch of the Goodfellow home. "We've had several complaints that a German flag was hung from this house and this is a German flag all right." He ordered her to take down the flag. She refused, advising the officer to go somewhere to find out what a German flag looks like. The banner was the British flag and is still flying from the Goodfellow porch.

MIRSOULA, Mont., May 14.—Local authorities are stamping. They arrested August Siropel on a charge of grand larceny, and Siropel can't read or write; nor can he talk nor hear. He can't even understand ordinary sign language. For 30 years Missoula has known him as "the Dummy." The authorities are trying to find some way to prosecute Siropel, but "the Dummy" probably does not even know why he is arrested. It is impossible to explain the nature of the charge against him, or to arrange for him to enter a plea. He had $5 and a watch, alleged to have been stolen, on his person when arrested. There's only one person who can converse with Siropel. He's Robert Fredericks, State University of Montana student, now with the aviation corps in far-off Texas.

ASTORIA, Ore., May 14.—After almost a century in a one location, the Evening Budget has moved from its pioneer location and today is occupying large and more modern headquarters.

ASTORIA, Ore., May 14.—Astoria's recent smallpox epidemic cost $1123. Today the city is building an isolation hospital, preparing to handle such emergencies with greater ease and less expense the next time.

NATIONAL GUARD SHY 222,000 MEN

WASHINGTON, May 11.—State National Guard organizations which have not yet been mustered into the federal service are at less than one-third their required war strength, the bureau of military affairs of the war department announced tonight. This fact became known following a survey by the bureau of every National Guard organization in the country. About 222,000 more men will be needed to put them on a war footing.

The bureau received reports showing a widespread lack of officers as well as men.

The National Guard which had not come into the federal service May 1 contained a total of 4,928 officers and 107,119 enlisted men, according to reports from all states except Indiana, Illinois and Texas. The reports do not include the National Guard troops that have been mustered into the federal service and are now on duty.

WANDERS FROM COAST TO COAST TRYING TO ENLIST

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Longfellow's "Evangeline" still wanders. From coast to coast, lingering here and there to grasp of the forbidden fruit, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow also wanders in a vain attempt to enlist in the United States Marine Corps and be "first to fight." Longfellow has been rejected for enlistment on account of physical disability in six widely separated cities during the past month. The Marine Corps issued a bulletin today to all its recruiting stations to be on the lookout for the modern "Gambriel" and not accept him for enlistment.
