

MARSHAL JOFFRE'S ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK

ARRIVAL OF JOFFRE IN NEW YORK

General Joseph Joffre, marshal of France and hero of the Battle of the Marne, as he stood on the vessel which conveyed Joffre, M. Renee Yviani and other members of the French war mission across the Hudson river from Hoboken to New York. Joffre is gazing in admiration at the skyline of New York with its tremendous buildings, for the first time. Standing on the marshal's right is R.

A. C. Smith, dock commissioner of New York, and a member of the mayor's official reception committee. The marshal is facing toward Clarence Mackay, also a member of the reception committee.

Social and Personal

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Social and club news for this department should be given to the East Oregonian, by phone or otherwise, during the forenoon. Such news turned in after 12 o'clock noon, will frequently have to be held for publication the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Horne were hosts last evening at a prettily appointed dinner party honoring Miss Meryl Parlett and Robert Hughart of Spokane, whose wedding will be solemnized at 3:45 o'clock this evening.

Miss Irene Shea arrived last evening from Portland to spend several weeks with friends here. At present she is the guest of Mrs. Clark Nelson.

The piquancy of a real "surprise party" added zest to the afternoon of bridge for which Mrs. James B. Perry was hostess yesterday afternoon, honoring her daughter, Miss Jennie Perry on the occasion of her birthday. Guests sufficient in number to make up three tables of the game were in attendance, the high score favor being captured by Mrs. C. O. Rinehart. Quantities of vivid yellow blossoms and purple lilacs were used in pretty effect about the rooms. The guest list included Mrs. H. J. Kavanagh, Mrs. G. M. Rice, Mrs. C. P. Colesworth, Mrs. C. S. Jerard, Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, Mrs. Harold Young, Mrs. James Johns, Jr., Mrs. C. O. Rinehart, Mrs. Westbrooke Dickson, Mrs. Arthur Means, Miss Arlie Roussain and Miss Edna Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Raymond were called to Walla Walla this morning by the serious illness of their son-in-law, Emmet Reas.

The First Aid class of the girls National Honor Guard will meet tonight at 7:30 at the city hall.

All the fascinating appointments of a children's party including charming favors for the wee guests are in evidence at the pretty affair over which Little Miss Virginia Dale Gulick is presiding this afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stisher, on Jefferson street. Gorgeous lilacs in lovely profusion deck the rooms while the dining table is centered with a great cluster of "baby breath" and ornamented with teddy bears suspended from the chandeliers. The small guests who are accompanied by their mothers, include Billy McKinney, Doris Mable, Burke Hayes, Betty Bond, Mary Bond, Marion Moorhouse, Mary Schaefer, John Chloupek, Shirley Thompson, Virginia Williams of Portland, Bobby Burroughs, Helen Henderson, Bobby Mayberry, Tony Chloupek, Jean Francis, Mary Louise Dickson, Peggy Chessman and Homer Welch.

Perhaps the most enjoyed social event for some time was the little first grade pupils of the Lincoln school. The dolls in attendance were Ross Howland, Elizabeth McKiernan, Billy Ferguson, Helen Peters, Catherine Averill, Daisy Fletcher, Dotty Dimple and Plain Dolly McDermid, Bita and No Name Hubbell, Irene Rissinger, Clara Rosenberg, Carolyn Gorham and Black Chloe, Dorothy Grulich.

was unable to attend owing to a respiratory ailment. Bob Sperry brought his battleship which sailed quite gracefully on the kindergarten table. Glen Rosenberg entertained with his singing top, Clarence Thim and Haden Kimbrell gave exhibitions with magnets, Eugene Patton, Leonard Kearney, Orville Beard and Fred Warnstrom told riddles. As the final festivities subsided were sung and games played. The out of school guests included Edgar Averill, Helen Hubbell and Elizabeth McDermid. Those who assisted in serving refreshments were Dolores Headlee, Florence McDermid, Henrietta Rosenberg and Robert Sperry.

Mrs. Clarence Penland was a charming hostess last Friday evening at a dinner party honoring Miss Meryl Parlett, bride-elect and Mrs. Harley J. Curl (Miss Mayree Snyder) who is visiting here from her home at Tillamook. Covers were laid for twelve.

Miss Meryl Parlett, a much feted bride-to-be of this evening and Mrs. Harley Curl, popular visitor, were again complimented yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Raymond Hatch entertained with a charming little sewing party in their honor. Needlework and music formed the diversions, a dainty luncheon being served at the conclusion of the afternoon. Those hidden were Mrs. Charles Heard, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Blydenstein, Mrs. Charles Norris, Mrs. Roberta, Mrs. Maye Hager, Mrs. R. Snyder, Mrs. J. E. Snyder, Mrs. B. Parlett and Mrs. Clarence Penland.

Mrs. Harley J. Curl who has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder for the past ten days expects to leave tomorrow for her home at Tillamook.

Miss Harriet Callbeck of Hermiston, whose engagement to William Seramel of this city was recently announced was the motif for a delightful miscellaneous shower last evening, the young ladies' Bible class of the Christian church being hostesses at the Callison home, 592 Jackson street. A large number of pretty gifts each bearing a card of advice regarding its use were presented the honor guest in a huge basket. After an enjoyable evening delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Hazel Strain, Miss Maud Ferguson, Miss Alice Doane, Miss Irene Saunders, Miss Elsie Morton, Miss Florence Morton, Miss Opal Callison, Miss Venice Callison, Miss Ardis Callison, Miss Lucia Callison, Miss Ethel Freeman, Miss Edna Hogue, Miss Nellie Horton, Mrs. S. A. Reetz, Mrs. John Morton, Mrs. S. G. Blair, Mrs. M. L. Peters and Mrs. Callison.

The members of the Research Club will be entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. J. T. Richardson.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wells, 487 Cobble street, when Miss Vera Wells became the wife of Joseph F. Hendricks. The impressive ring service was used, the Rev. R. E. Gornall of the M. E. church officiating. The bride who was attired in a becoming traveling suit with a corsage of bride roses was attended by Miss Ethel Hanley of La Grande, whose bouquet was of Cecil Brunner roses. George R. Wells, brother of the bride acted as best man. Only relatives and immediate friends were in attendance. Mrs. Hendricks is a member of one of the early pioneer families of this region while Mr. Hendricks is a native of this region.

GARDEN NOTES OFFICIAL

For the lot that cannot be watered Golden Bantam sugar corn, Minnesota No. 13 or Northwest Dent field corn, Navy or Mexican beans and American Wonder or Irish Cobler potatoes can be planted, says R. W. Allen of the Hermiston experiment station.

If the lot cannot be watered don't give up your good intentions of planting a garden. Good results can be obtained by planting one of the hardier vegetables just mentioned. Good cultivation and proper conservation of moisture will produce a good crop.

Get out your hoe, don't let the sun bake your soil. Stir the ground lightly where the seeds are planted and cultivate those crops which are above the ground. Now is the time to hold the moisture. A hoeing now will mean less watering later.

See the heavy stable man and make arrangements to have a loan of barnyard manure hauled up to your garden plot. The summer vegetables will do much better with liberal applications sown in the rows just before planting.

Write to the Agricultural College at Corvallis, Ore., for bulletins on gardening in Eastern Oregon.

Frank Emdahl came in this morning from Helix. S. B. Chandler, traveling agent for the N. P., is here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook are among the Helix visitors here today.

Dan P. Smythe left last night on the midnight train for Portland.

Mrs. Ruthers and daughter, Irene, came in from Helix on the morning train.

Marie Gordon and Margaret Fowler of Walla Walla are at the Hotel Pendleton.

Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, former prominent Pendletonian, spent yesterday in the city on business.

Prof. Howard Drew of Helix made a trip to Pendleton last night to attend the Royal Arch Mason lodge.

Mrs. Prudence Killian of Spokane is here today enroute home from spending a few days at her Vancycle ranch where she let the contract for a large barn.

Miss Ethel Hanley of La Grande, who acted as bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Vera Wells, returned to her home on No. 18 last evening.

HOLLWEG REFUSES TO TALK

LONDON, May 15.—Hollweg refused to discuss Germany's war aims in the Reichstag, according to a wireless from Berlin. The Chancellor refused to answer interpellations on Germany's peace aspirations, declaring the statement would not serve German interests.

REVIVAL CLOSING TOMORROW NIGHT

DR. HENRY WILL SPEAK ON "PENDLETON AND THE ETERNAL ROUND-UP."

Sermon Last Night a Penetrative Message Upon "Sowing Wild Oats"; Replete With Illustrations and Convincing Arguments.

Wednesday evening closes the revival campaign at the "Happy Canyon." Tomorrow at 3 p. m. the subject will be "Heaven and How to Get There," and in the evening "The Nightmare of Lost Opportunities."

Last night Dr. Henry preached a penetrative message upon, "Sowing Wild Oats." The text was Gal. 6:7, 8. This text has assumed the place of a proverb today. It is a universal truth which holds everyone within its grasp. The fact that one rears what they sow is one that is operative with equal certainty in both directions whether the seed be good or bad. Furthermore, everyone is a sower and every life a seed plot. The only way to escape sowing is to cease to live. Our every thought, word and deed leaves its impress upon the souls of other men.

Only Two Fields. In this sowing there are only two fields—there is no man's land. We either sow to the flesh or to the spirit. Unfortunately, it seems easier to sow to the flesh. A wrecking company put a big sign upon the large building upon which it was working. With the words "Watch it go." When people saw to the flesh we have the sad spectacle of "Watching them go."

Sowing to the spirit through the grace of God is the way God develops full-fledged Christians. The choices of preceding years decided the quality and quantity of the moral elements to be found in character at the harvest. One choice culminated in the inveterate gambler, moral leper and drunkard. The human derelict understood the far-reaching influences of his debauching career, when in his dying agony he asked that his influence be buried with him. But that was an impossibility. Law of Harvest Sure. The law of the harvest is sure. Every man who lives sows and knows that he must reap the natural consequences of his sowing. Not only like in kind but with increased quantity will be the harvest. The sermon was replete with illustrations to the point. One man set apart from his childhood by his parents for the ministry, who was thoroughly educated in college and seminary, but who sowed to the flesh, until degraded and ashamed he fled to Australia. Twenty years passed and he was converted. Then he concluded he would gratify the desire of his parents and enter the ministry. But this he could not do, for when he endeavored to do anything in the church he could not because of the "rotten memories." He could not extricate himself from the harvest of his sowing. Dr. Henry made a striking comparison between Col. Ingersoll and D. L. Moody. They were born and both died about the same time. Yet the contract of their sowing is seen in their influences which persist. Dr. Henry made a clinching plea, based upon the law of habit and the crystallization of character, for decisions for Jesus Christ.

BREEZE GOT THE MONEY. Any One Can Keep Three $1 Bills If They Find Them. WICHITA, Kan., May 11.—The wind blew fruitfully the other day in Wichita. Mrs. Sam Sanders of White-water, who had been shopping, did not close her pocketbook securely and at the corner of Main Street and Douglas Avenue a $5 bill and three $1 bills were blown out. They rose high in the air and John Young, a police captain, and others went in pursuit. A block away a negro overtook the "five." The others had disappeared. Taking the "five" to Mrs. Sanders, he returned it with a bow. "Thank you," said she, "you can have the others if you find 'em." TWO FISHERMAN KILLED MONSTER DEVILFISH. Southern California Coast Scene of Fierce Battle. Santa Monica, Cal., May 12.—After an hour's life and death battle in the ocean off the Malibu coast, Dick Hernage and Oak Oak of Santa Monica, slew one of the largest devilfish ever captured off the California coast. The fish was taken to Santo Monica and later to Los Angeles. It weighed 160 pounds and its body measured 17 feet in diameter. The monster came to the surface near the boat in which were the two men. When an effort was made to catch it the fish wrapped its tentacles about the boat and nearly succeeded in capsizing the craft before being put to death.
