WAR CENSUS FACTS TO BE REMEMBERED

Get This Out and Put It Where You Can Find It.

War Census Day, Tuesday, June 5, as named by President Wilson in his official proclamation.

Who Must Register. Every male resident between the ages of 21 and thirty years, inclusive, this includes aliens as well as Americans, Japanese, Chinese, Italians, Germans, English, Americans, and Americans and men of any other nationality who are of the designated ages, must register. Aliens will not be drafted for war duty, but, of course, a complete record of them is desired.

Who Is Exempt. No male resident between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive, is exempt from registering. Those to be exempted from military service will be determined later, but first all must register.

Where to Register. Registration must be made in the HOME PRECINCT of the man registering. Register at your regular voting places.

Hours for Registration. Booths at regular voting places in each precinct will be open on war census day from 7 o'clock a. m. to 9 o'clock p. m. Don't wait until the last moment. Register early.

Registration of Absentees. If you find you will be unavoidably absent from your home precinct on war census day, you should apply at the earliest possible date to the county clerk of the county in which you may be at the time, whether in Oregon or elsewhere, who will fill out your registration card. He will then mail you the card, which you MUST give to the registrar of your home precinct, in care of the sheriff or your home county in time to reach the registrar by war census day. If you live in Portland, or a city of over 30,000 population in another state, mail the card to the registrar in care of the mayor.

But remember, the burden of having your card reach the registrar of your home precinct by War Census Day is on YOU.

Registration of the Sick. Men of military age who are too ill to go to the voting booth to register, must send a competent person before the census taker, and secure instructions from the federal regulations which these officials will receive from the government.

Penalties. The penalty for failing to appear to register, or for giving false, misleading or incorrect answers, is IMPRISONMENT. There is no alternative of a fine.

Our little misfortunes would not amount to much were it not for the unnecessary comments of our friends.

SPORTS

Miss Opal Rice of Hill's district, and Miss Edith Malson of the Mullerkauff district, expect to leave the last of the week for their homes at Portland. Both have been retained as teachers in their respective schools for the next term.

DEAR GIRL HAS CHANCE. CANTON, May 19.—"Wanted—A dear girl for general housework." This application was received today by Superintendent Sherlock of the State City Free Employment bureau from a Canton man. He does not specify what he fears she will hear.

RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONARIES CARRYING FLAGS

This photograph shows a scene of the Russian revolution at its height. Two soldiers who had gone over to the revolutionists were placed on an automobile to patrol the city. In order that they might not be mistaken for adherents of the czar and the revolutionists they carried red flags on their bayonets as they leaned forward in the automobile.

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

Comevals Pasha in Hair; Sally-in-a-Hurry, Pastime Today. Woman's tresses prove convenient as well as beautiful in the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, "Sally-in-a-Hurry," starring dimpled Lillian Walker, which is at the Pastime theater for the last time today.

Ecstasie Jensen who plays the part of a thief masquerading as a member of the best society, steals a beautiful pearl necklace at a dinner and when threatened with capture hides her booty in her black curls in a most effective manner.

Sapho, Final Showing Today. Hugh Ford, who directed the Famous Players-Paramount adaptation of Daudet's classic "Sapho" in which the talented Pauline Frederick is starring, found the screen interpretation of "Sapho" one of the most interesting in all his varied experience. "A thorough study of the original story as well as an investigation of the methods employed in the stage version convinced me," he said, "that we would have to effect certain important changes in the construction of the screen play. To this end, we have tried to lighten every tragic or especially dramatic part of the story with little touches of humor. Also, the ending, which in the original was rather dramatic and left an unpleasant impression of the whole production, has been changed completely and we have made Sapho, who in the book simply continued her former mode of life after leaving the young Jean Gaimp instead of doing this, turn Red Cross nurse and devote the rest of her life toward doing good and making reparation as far as possible for her early dissipation. Miss Frederick has given a marvelous interpretation of this character and we are sure that her thousands of admirers will find this one of the best, if not quite the best picture in which this famous star has ever appeared."

"Sapho" is the Paramount picture at the Alta theater for the last time today.

Last Showing of "Pots and Pans PEGGY" Today. Wayne Aray, who plays Gladys Hulet's chauffeur-lover in "Pots and Pans Peggy" to be shown at the cosy theater the last time today, has had wide experience on the speaking stage, playing prominent parts in New York productions of David Belasco and Charles Frohman. Aray was born in Rock Falls, Ill., and grew up there. Probably his first stage appearance was as one of the grave diggers in "Hamlet." The theater was over a stable. There was no trap-door in the stage so they cut a hole and let him stand on a load of hay in the barn beneath, leaving him exposed from the waist up to the audience.

It is reasonable to suppose that it would have been a great success if the man who owned the hay had not driven away in the midst of the scene carrying Aray with him.

GIVE LIBERTY LOAN BOOST. Great Falls Subscribers $255,000.—Enthusiasm High. GREAT FALLS, Mont., May 19.—The meeting of bankers, financiers and members of the defense council held here this evening subscriptions were made to the Liberty loan bonds to the extent of $255,000. Despite the fact that there were but few over 100 persons present at the meeting the enthusiasm was great and the response most generous. One hundred and thirty-six separate subscriptions were received ranging from $50 up to $100,000, the latter by the First National bank.

WAR'S "PINCH" COMES NOW TO MILWAUKEE. MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 19.—The free lunch, a popular feature of Milwaukee saloons since their establishment, is doomed. The death knell of this time-honored institution, so dear to all beer-drinking Milwaukeeans, has been sounded through the action taken by the Wisconsin Retail Liquor Dealers Protective association. High cost of foodstuffs and the curtailment of the grain supply are given as the reasons for eliminating the lunch.

TENDER HORSE MEAT AT 7 1-2 CENTS A POUND. PORTLAND, May 21.—Toothsome teabone for 7 1-2 cents, and the nice cuts of meat for 5c. Think of it, you victims of the H. C. of L. Not beef, of course, but tender horse meat from the plains of eastern Oregon are offered here at these prices. The Eastern Oregon Horse Market, 250-ward Kinser, proprietor, opened here this morning and he reports business fine. He sells horse meat from 4 to 7 1-2 cents a pound. The horses were rounded up by Warm Springs Indians on their reservation east of the mountains and were shipped to the Portland Union stockyards the latter part of last week. The horses were wild and too small for use on farms or by the government. Kinser is said to have the only exclusive horse meat market in the west. Because of the introduction of horse meat on the market here, the city now has an ordinance providing for the inspection of horse meat by the municipal meat inspector.
