

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The marriage of Miss Grace Chell and Mr. Friendly Barnes was solemnized at the apartments of the bride's mother at 709 Garden street, last Monday at 4 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Clevenger of the Baptist church in the presence of relatives and a few immediate friends of the family.

Mr. Barnes has been connected with the O. W. R. & S. R. E. Co. for a number of years with headquarters at La Grande where they will make their future home. An extensive wedding trip had been planned throughout the eastern states but owing to a scarcity of men on the road due to the war Mr. Barnes was unable to get a vacation at this time.

The visit of Kenneth Bartlett of Estacada, member of the Oregon Champion football team and a sergeant in the University of Oregon ambulance corps, which will leave soon for the front, was made the occasion of an informal dinner party last evening at the Delta by local members of his fraternity, Beta Theta Pi. Mr. Bartlett left on the midnight train for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James John, Jr. arrived home yesterday from Portland where they had been for over a week. They made the round trip by auto.

A charming wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the Catholic Rectory when Miss Olive Cecelia Wilson became the bride of Fred Stanley Lyons. The young couple were attended by Miss Helen Whittemore and Michael Dolan of La Grande, the impressive ring ceremony being read. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wilson of this city and a graduate of the 1917 class of St. Joseph's Academy. The young couple left yesterday evening for their home in Portland, where the groom has a position as telegraph operator. A host of good wishes follow the young couple on their journey. The wedding guests included a few friends and relatives.

Mrs. J. J. Beeler of Weston, accompanied by Miss Anna M. Gaarde, was the guest of Mrs. M. J. Marsh on Monday, June 18. Miss Gaarde, who has been the guest of Mrs. Beeler the past few weeks, en route to her home at Portland, took advantage of the day in Pendleton to renew acquaintances and found the town improving delightfully.

A charming social session was enjoyed by Degree or Honor members and their friends yesterday afternoon, about 16 ladies being present in Moose Hall. Needlework formed the chief diversion of the affair with dainty refreshments rounding out the pleasant hours. Captain No. 1 and her attendants acted as hostesses, the tables being beautifully decorated with quantities of roses.

The guests included Mrs. C. E. Owens of Adams, Mrs. Ed Dupuis of Nolin, Mrs. Sullivan of this city, Mrs. A. Thomas of La Grande, Miss Ida Anderson, Miss Vera Taylor of Pendleton and Mrs. Bull and daughter of La Grande.

Mrs. G. A. Gilmore, Mrs. Stanland, Mrs. C. E. Stewart and Mrs. E. Davidson, all of Huntington, spent last night at the St. George and left this morning in their car for Portland.

Mrs. Willard Bond has as her house guest Miss Lois Many of Portland.

Miss Helen Raymond returned this morning from a short visit in Walla Walla.

J. F. Morley of Astoria is a Pendleton visitor.

J. L. Carter of Long Creek is a Pendleton visitor.

T. G. Smith of Echo is registered at the Golden Rule.

Supervisor W. W. Cryder returned today from a trip to Seattle.

THIS is a summons in which every man, woman and child in this community should be interested. It is a Call for Co-operation—an appeal to our community Spirit—a plea for us "to get together." Each week we will show in cartoon and tell in story the needs of our community—what is holding it back—the things we must overcome to progress and how this can be accomplished by co-operation. We will "Knock the Knocker" and "Boost the Booster." We may hit some of you pretty hard—the truth always hurts—but it's our most powerful ally for advancement. If you are interested in the progress and future of our home town you can help by reading these editorials each week—and co-operating with us in making this a big—better—happier—more prosperous community.
