MOTION PICTURE NEWS
 What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

A LION AMONG LADIES.
 Such is George Walsh's role in his new picture, "The Book Agent." Two, three or a dozen men have, thus far in George's photographic work, been unable to best the King of Smiles.
 Just in the new production a mere hand of woman's fingers succeed in doing what scores of men have failed in. They conquer George, from head to heel, and drag him into the school study. The strength and power which he has exhibited in a hundred thousand feet of film are his no more.
 George is satisfied.

Coming soon, "In Again, Out Again."
 The initial Douglas Fairbanks-Artcraft picture, "In Again—Out Again," which has just been completed, presents various new departures in the way of humorous incidents of the Fairbanks variety together with a rapid fire theme which will keep the audience on edge from start to finish. The story has to do with the capers of an energetic youth who falls in love with a pretty maid from the Jersey side of the Hudson river and contrary to the general rule, finds it more difficult to get into jail than to get out of it.
 Dropping two stories we find the Noseys. Thought that statement would make you "sit up and take notice." This "dropping" was merely a literal one. The characters of the Noseys, however, are very real and their name is a rather suggestive one. They are merely small items in the big bill of laughs which you will receive after seeing "Tille Wakes Up," which is the latest Marie Dressler feature. It will be at the Alta theater today and from present indications the "standing room only" sign will have to be displayed.

Butterfly Flutters at Cosy
 Mary MacLaren, the discovery of the famous Lois Weber, is the featured player in the Butterfly picture "Money Madness" which will be seen at the Cosy theater on Thursday and Friday.
