Despite the war and the onrush of prohibition, more whiskey, beer and tobacco were consumed within the past year than in any previous year, a fact that should give the nation pause—whatever that may mean.

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

Alta Tonight

Louise Huff and House Peters will be seen at the Alta tonight in the Pallas-Paramount production, "The Lonesome Chap," a thrilling story by Emma Rochelle Williams prepared for the screen by Harvey Gates. The cast supporting the stars in this production includes such clever artists as Eugene Pallette, John Burton, Betty Jonson and Senor Ruzi.

Commencing tomorrow, the Pastime theatre will present America's most popular male star of the screen, "Doug" Fairbanks in his initial Aircraft picture, produced by his own company, "In Again - Out Again." A typical Fairbanks picture, "In Again - Out Again" presents the smiling "Doug" at his best in a subject of rapid-fire theme and hundreds of hearty laughs. Never before has the athletic one had a better opportunity to give his admirers so much of his inimitable self and various surprises are in store for his many friends who will visit the Pastime theatre. Supported by Arline Prety, the popular screen actress and an equally efficient cast including Arnold Lucy, Helen Greene, Homer Hunt, Walter Walker, Albert Parker, "Bull" Montana and others of similar popularity "Doug" is given capable assistance in the presentation of the plot, which displays a satire of unusual humor.

William Courtenay and Marguerite Snow in "The Hunting of the Hawk," at the Cosy theater, Sunday and Monday.

CAST

Deniseway..... William Courtenay
 The Girl..... Marguerite Snow
 The Other Man..... Robert Clugston
 The Cosy theatre, is justified in claiming that "The Hunting of the Hawk" in which it is to present William Courtenay, is even better than "Kick In" the photodramatization of the famous A. H. Wood's melodrama in which Mr. Courtenay was seen recently with Mollie King.

The Alta Theatre, Sunday and Monday, "Sleeping Fires," the Famous Players-Paramount picture starring Pauline Frederick, will be the attraction at the Alta Theatre. In this picture Miss Frederick has a role that, while it is entirely different from anything she has ever appeared in, will remind one of the parts she took in "The Women in the Case," in that it is a sympathetic role, as against the adventures type.

A TIME FOR SACRIFICE

President Draws Lesson from Red Cross Week.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Red Cross week and its significance in the war was characterized by President Wilson in a message read at a dinner here today to stimulate the organization's work throughout the country, as a rare privilege to prove usefulness and the spirit of sacrifice.

"I am interested to learn of the dinner which the Red Cross committee has planned for tonight," the president said. "During this week the American people will have a unique privilege of manifesting America's unselfishness, as well as the real spirit of sacrifice which animates our people. I am sure the people of New York will do their part, but I hope they will measure the generosity of their gifts by the urgency of the need."

After a toast to President Wilson had been drunk, Charles E. Hughes, the toastmaster, emphasized the necessity for a "great auxiliary army of relief, since a great army and navy is being equipped."

as child's play, as it plainly evidenced in D. W. Griffith's masterpiece "Intolerance," which is coming to the Arcade for three days, commencing Monday, June 25th. In this gigantic spectacle Mr. Griffith has refought faithfully and authentically the battle waged by Cyrus and his Persian hordes on Belshazzar of Babylon. Each and every detail in connection with the life and custom of the people of Babylon, to the minutest detail up to the time that the victorious Cyrus took the ancient city, is produced by Mr. Griffith according to the most authentic records.
