SOCIAL PERSONAL

Mrs. A. Thomas of Pendleton, is in the city, having attended the Women of Woodcraft convention. Mrs. Thomas left La Grande six weeks ago to take up her residence in Pendleton, and she is finding her visit very pleasant here renewing acquaintances with old friends.—La Grande Observer.

Lovely summer blossoms in dainty tones of pink and blue made an effective foil for the several scores of smartly gowned maids and matrons who called at the Willard Bond home yesterday afternoon between the hours of three and five to meet Miss Lois Macy of Portland, who is the houseguest of Mrs. Bond. Low bowls of pink roses, tall spikes of blue delphinium and clusters of baby breath formed the pretty decorations of the reception and living rooms, while the dining room was attractive in pink roses and filmy pink tulle. Mrs. Charles Bond presided at the serving table, being assisted by Miss Jane Murphy, Miss Thelma Thompson and Miss Peggy Boylen. The punch bowl was in charge of Miss Barbara Stanfield and Miss Mary Clarke. Miss Macy is a charming young girl and her visit promises to be marked by a number of delightful affairs.

Paul De Ford is expected to arrive tonight to spend Saturday and Sunday with his wife and little child, who are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Siebert, 515 Marie street. Mrs. De Ford and child will accompany Mr. De Ford on his return to their home in Portland.

Mrs. Thomas Fitz Gerald and Mrs. Alfred Fitz Gerald have returned from a three weeks visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peringer have as their houseguest Mr. Peringer's nephew, Cecil Peringer, of Bellingham, son of a prominent attorney of that city.

The meeting of the Floral Association, originally scheduled for tonight has been postponed one week because of the Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Weitenhiller, who are motoring from Crane, Oregon to Spokane, were the guests yesterday of Mr. Weitenhiller's sister, Mrs. A. F. May in this city. They also stopped en route to visit a brother in law, the Rev. Floyd Ross, at Milton.

Carl Cooley has returned from a trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoch, former residents of this city but now living in Portland, are enjoying a short visit in Vancouver, B. C., according to word received here.

The marriage of Floyd E. Payne, of Athena, and Miss Peggy Groom of Portland, took place Wednesday, June 29th, at the Congregational church of Portland, Rev. J. J. Staub officiating. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Groom, old pioneers of the Walla Walla valley, and was a graduate of the Waldburg high school in the class of 1915. During the past year both the bride and groom have been attending business college at Portland. Mr. Payne is the eldest son of Mrs. Lola Payne and was formerly a student at the University of Oregon, where he was well known in college athletics. The young couple will make their home in Portland.

H. L. Camp of the firm of Camp & Dufur, architects of Portland, is here today on a business trip and to visit his daughter, Miss Camp, of the Pendleton Drug Co. Mr. Camp has been at Feppner where his firm has two buildings being erected for the Garrigan estate.

Mrs. Al Bolin of Elkhart is among the visitors here today.

Lawrence Bryant of Duncan was at the Golden Rule last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron E. Coon left today to spend the summer in Portland.

Harry Straw, well known Hermiston business man, was in the city yesterday.

H. W. Hicks, traveling passenger agent for the O.-W. R. & N. Co., is here today.

S. E. Ross, a sheepman of Brunzell, Idaho, is here looking after hay contracts.

H. H. Lewis, prominent Echo merchant, was a business visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.
