The Weekly Bulldogger

MONDAY, JULY 9, 1917.

It Cost Fully That Much.
 When Doc Beet was raising funds for the Fourth of July celebration, Claude Penland agreed to give $10. After the celebration Doc came around for the ten, Claude demurred. "I don't see," he said, "why I should have to stand the whole cost of the celebration."

Officers, Please Note.
 We have come to the conclusion that the sale of vinegar is traffic in illegitimate liquors. We all know vinegar has a mother but whoever heard of it having a father.

Bill's for Peace Now.
 These Pendleton Reserve uniforms are anything but comfortable on a hot day. Bill McKinney, doled up in his unit, was mopping the perspiration from his brow after the Fourth of July parade. "He looks like a General Pershing," said one bystander. "I feel like a general pershing," said Bill.

In These Patriotic Times.
 A very patriotic lady we know wished to do her bit in the way of home economy. Noting that Herbert Hoover was asking women to find substitutes for wheat bread, she ordered a sack of graham flour.

That Battle of Bunko Hill.
 Raz Humphrey says the men who staged the Battle of Bunko Hill on the Fourth were butchers. "Surest thing, you know," says he. "didn't they skin the whole city." We might add that after the skinning there was plenty of beefing.

Speaking of that same battle, Marion Jack says it couldn't be classified as a fraud because it was advertised as a sham battle. "Yes," but remonstrated Jake Welch, "where was the spectacular charge they talked so much about?"

"Oh," said Marion, "that was at the park entrance. Twenty-five and thirty-five."

We're Fading Fast.
 Pendleton is said to be suffering from an epidemic of the Pink Eye. Pendleton is much milder than it used to be. There was a time when nothing short of Red Eye would satisfy Pendleton.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Weston Wit.
 Once again we feel impelled to quote from Kernul Clark Wood, bass in his last attack. "And Hell will also be found in Hohenzollern by alphabetical analysis."

Our Song of Hate.
 A Man we hate,
 Is Jimmy Johns,
 He has a man
 To mow his lawns.

A Double Shot.
 Art Means of Reth was badly burned on the night of the 3rd while trying to shoot off bombs for the entertainment of Art, Jr. The next night he came up for the "stupendous fireworks spectacle" at Round-Up Park. "No more fireworks for me," he said after it was all over. "Burned one night and stung the next."

You Can't Do One Without the Other.

The county court was holding its monthly term.

"What's the court doing today?" said a caller at the court house as he poked his head in the door.

"Discussing roads," said Commissioner Cockburn.

"That's what we're all doing," said the other, who had misunderstood. He thought Mac said, "Jus' cussing roads."

The Wad That Is Tight.
 (Dedicated to the tightest of them.)
 O, the wad that is tight,
 Is a nuisance alright,
 When we dig up the cost of a war,
 He swings on to his wheat,
 In a manner complete,
 And has little sand in his craw.
 If wheat he don't raise,
 He'll in devious ways
 Provide for his own precious maw.
 So to 'ell with the wad,
 May he rest 'neath the sod,
 From the kick of a mule to his jaw.
 "SILVER GRAY."

PUNISH BELGIANS, REPRISAL.

LONDON, July 7.—A dispatch to the Times from the Hague says that as a reprisal for the alleged ill-treatment of Germans by Belgians in German East Africa the Germans by Belgians in German East Africa the Germans have seized 22 distinguished Belgians and removed them without warning, to their notorious punishment camp in Germany.

SIMPLICITY

LOW

OPERATING COST

Means putting your hauling on a "better business basis." Over 150 lines of business houses have found this "better business" way by going to G. M. C. truck headquarters to buy their trucks.

Trucks to stand the wear and tear must be made simple; must be made with driving parts enclosed to keep out dust; must have few parts; must be easily accessible in case of repair.

G. M. C. Trucks are so constructed.

Don't be fooled by the idea that while the first cost of a truck is low that the operating cost is or will be low. Generally the opposite is true. It is the cost per ton mile over a period of years that governs the price of your truck.

G. M. C. Trucks are noted for low operating cost, using little fuel and giving years of service.

Come in and see us, we like to talk Truck.
