The drive against Lemberg is gaining ground hourly. The suddenness of the Russian attack and the vigor of the new Russian armies have completely demoralized the enemy. Teutonic defenses are so broken the Russians use cavalry in the advance. Great numbers are taken prisoner. The pursuit of the enemy continues, the war office statement said.

Full Meeting of Reichstag Scheduled for Today is Postponed Because of Party Differences; News Heavily Censored.

NO CRITICISM DIRECTED AT MILITARY EFFORT AS YET

LONDON, July 11.—Hollweg has decided to fill the vacancies in the German cabinet with certain members of the Reichstag, and create a new ministry of labor, appointing a socialist to the post, according to the Exchange Telegraph dispatch. ZURICH, July 11.—The full meeting of the Reichstag scheduled for today was postponed because of the party differences, according to Berlin dispatches. Hollweg is reported conferring with the leaders of all factions. One dispatch reported all Prussian state ministers had resigned.

AMSTERDAM, July 11.—A coalition cabinet in Germany is impending, according to dispatches quoting the newspaper Germania.

The Berlin Tageblatt asserted the political situation continues complicated because the majority of the parties are unable to agree, apparently confirming the report of negotiations for combination of all forces in the ministry.

It appears likely foreign Minister Zimmermann, Vice Chancellor Helfferich, Colonial Secretary Solf and possibly one or two other ministers will be effected by the shakeup. Minister of Marine Cappelle's position is described as uncertain.

Hollweg will remain, it is universally predicted. KAISER BACKS HOLLWEG. The Tageblatt revealed that Liberal leader Strossmann, at Tuesday's secret meeting of the Reichstag violently attacked the chancellor. The Germania is quoted as announcing the center party overwhelmingly approved Martin Ehrhard's efforts to force the Reichstag to go on record for a statement of Germany's war aims.

Hollweg has the backing of the Kaiser. CENSORSHIP IS HEAVY. Several German newspapers are quoted as stating that Chancellor Hollweg has pledged the Reichstag Zimmermann and Helfferich would go. All dispatches from Germany are heavily censored.

Just what is transpiring behind the scenes is problematical. It is certain the submarine war and food situation with Germany is playing a big part. To date nothing has indicated the military situation is the subject of criticism. All parties seem satisfied that Hindenburg has the west front well in hand and the Russian offensive is expected to wear itself out.

The public generally is demanding more satisfactory results from submarine, or abandon the warfare which alienated the neutrals. In three days around Doulna the Russians captured 150 officers, 16,000 men, 80 guns and a quantity of other material the war office announced.

AMERICAN PUBLIC WARNED.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Official warning is given the American public that it must not regard the German situation as offering great hope now. Press reports and official information show there is practically no criticism of Germany's military effort. Germany can sacrifice Zimmermann, Helfferich and even Hollweg without swaying the actual conduct of the war as long as there is no complaint against the war lords, Hindenburg and Ludendorff.

Authorities say the situation is strictly internal politics which does not now present a real alternative. The bottom, however, that the issue of democracy is working in Germany and sooner or later there will be a popular uprising against Hohenzollernism.

While Germany struggles with domestic difficulties, the allies are preparing to give her a dose of shell fire and brimstone. Official advice indicate a big offensive is shaping on the French and Italian fronts.

Kitts continue are threatened and soldiers expect what the machine guns look like, etc.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM AND THE REMOVAL OF MAIN STREET WIRES AND POLES BEING CONTEMPLATED

Dr. Vincent, Local Manager of Pacific Power & Light Co. Anticipates Both Improvements May be Made This Fall.

A new lighting system for Pendleton and the removal of electric poles and wires from Main street are improvements being contemplated by the Pacific Power & Light Co., according to Dr. F. W. Vincent, local manager, and he anticipates that both improvements may become realities this fall.

The proposed new light plant provides for installation of 600 candle-power lights at all intersections on the business streets and also one at the middle of each block. The lamps are much more brilliant than the present ones. In addition the plan includes the installation of 150 lamps of 250 candlepower on street corners in the residence districts. This number would provide a lamp for almost every street intersection in the city.

The plan would cost the city about $500 a year more than the present system. The chance would cost the company $7000 or $8000, according to Dr. Vincent's estimate. The decision rests with the city council. For several years the company has been contemplating the removal of
