NEWSPAPERS ARE AN ARM OF GOVT. SAYS CLARKE LEITER

Clarke Leiter, editor of the La Grande Observer, spoke of the topic "How Best the Newspapers Can Serve the Nation in the Present Crisis" at the opening session of the State Editorial Association yesterday. In part Mr. Leiter said:

"The newspapers have already demonstrated their patriotism. Irrespective of politics they have been conducted in a high and patriotic plane. No nobler service has ever been done by the press of any nation than the recent unanimous support of the Liberty Bond sale and the Red Cross fund by the newspapers of the nation."

"There is much yet to be done. The newspapers must continue to inculcate a lofty spirit of patriotism, to encourage the people to conduct their daily affairs along sane and normal lines, to avoid hysteria and to drive their business and work forward full speed ahead."

"Newspapers are educating the people on food conservation, on thrift, all matters of prime importance."

"They should stand for encouraging the workers. Should frown on the idlers, the worthless, the vagrants."

"They should assist in the organization of county councils of defense."

"They should stand back of the government."

"They should print the news freely, but should while preserving the freedom of the press, accept cheerfully the censorship of military secrets."

Arm of Government.

"The newspapers are an arm of the government. By their patriotism, by doing their bit cheerfully, they will come out of the war with honor and deserve the applause of the people, whose servants we all are."

LIVE NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

VANCOUVER, July 11.—Trouble followed James J. Jones, 40, even to the altar. Jones, four times married and four times made single again either by death or divorce decree, found that Mrs. Lulu Brown, also previously experienced in married life, was willing to accompany him to the altar. The party rented a taxicab in Portland and came here for their license and wedding. C. A. Olson, taxicab driver, rolled with his party up to the office of Justice Derr, Constable Vessey acted as witness. After the ceremony, the constable followed the newlyweds from the office to the street, and just as the party was preparing to leave he arrested Olson for violating a Washington law affecting taxicab drivers. "Their troubles are just beginning," mused a bystander.

EGEGNE, Ore., July 11.—Eight thousand five hundred acres of burned over land in the Mount Hebo district in Tillamook county, Ore., have been replanted in young fir, according to totals compiled today by Forest Examiner H. M. Johnson. Three hundred and two thousand trees were planted this spring. About 450 trees were planted to the acre.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 11.—William Tuttle, Portland shipbuilder, today recalled the time when Charles E. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin and personal representative of Herbert C. Hoover at the National Educational convention here, was a clerk in his father's grocery store at Minden, Neb. Young Van Hise was a good clerk, Tuttle declared.

HELENA, Mont., July 11.—Montana horses are too fast for Hjalmer Woien. He was employed as a farm hand by the Gillette Ranch company at Hogan. He tried to ride a locoed horse and lasted about a minute and a half. Today he has filed suit for $11,990 against the Gillette Ranch company, alleging that he was permanently injured.

HOOD RIVER, July 11.—Old New York is nearer heaven than ever before. Instead of being gold-hearted the great city is good-hearted.

This today is the opinion of Billy Sunday, now resting up on his ranch here. He recently completed a campaign against the devil in New York and came west to store up strength for his next revival.

"The distance from New York to Heaven is not so great as it was 19 weeks ago," said the Reverend Billy. "No longer will the people of the rural districts of the Middle West think of simply the 'Great White Way' when they hear of New York. Now they will think of New York as the city that rolled up the greatest record for God."

"Never before did the newspapers show their power and sympathy with religion as much as they did during the New York campaign, and thus they added tremendously to the success of the campaign."

"It's now up to the churches, pastors and trail-hitters to keep the fight going until the old devil is completely routed in New York."

"Let your best lust get into the game and hit hard and steadily until the winning ball is scored."

Billy will open his next campaign in Los Angeles.

EDITORIAL CONVENTION DESCRIBED BY D. C. SANDERSON IN POETIC WAY

At the banquet at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital given last evening in honor of the visiting newspapermen considerable fun was created by D. C. Sanderson of Freewater who during the day had perpetrated a "pome" on the events of the convention. It is as follows:

"Twas July the thirteenth in the year seventeen,
The editors gathered, the fat and the lean,
The Pendleton city with hosts good and true,
The doors were wide open, there was nothing taboo.

The homes of the city, wide open were thrown
And added again to their state-wide renown
As a city which yearly throws open its gates,
To the only great Round-Up in the United States.

Or eating and drinking they gave us galore,
And never an editor could eat any more,
That we could not stay longer was surely a pity,
To enjoy the great welcome of Pendleton city.

From Willamette valley and down by the sea and green
The Rogue river country and meadow and lea,
From Baker and Salem, Eugene to La Grande,
The editors came, all bearing the brand.

A rattling good shot, with fame as a sniper,
The old Oregonian sent us a Piper,
A man whose good speech was torn into tatters
Rejoiced in the high sounding name of MacWatters.

The journalist school hoisted up a big derrick
And sent us an Allen whose surname was Aric,
The man who presided was Eddie E. Brodie,
Who in Salem last winter was never a toady.

The secretary as ever, was good old Phil Bates,
Who carries a thinker under his pate,
The way to produce a national world beater
Was made clear to us all by Editor Leiter.

A price cutting series by Voorhies and Fisher,
Called the hearty applause of every well wisher,
While the money which merchants all want to make
Was ably brought out by Lee D. Drake.

Then away to the wheat fields, beautiful and green
The editors were taken in many machines
To every hay junket there's always a "but,"
For the editors wound up in the place of a nut.

LIBERTY BONDS FALL FRACTION BELOW PAR

NEW YORK, July 12.—Liberty bonds sold at 99 and 49-50th on the stock exchange today, one lot of $10,000 going at that price. This is the first time this issue has dropped below par since the day on which trading in the bonds began.

The stock exchange authorities recently announced they favored free and unrestricted sales and the present recession, representing 20 cents on $1000, is attributed to reports of further Liberty Loans next fall and spring.

A lot of $24,000 of bonds sold at 99 48-50th.

Liberty bonds sold below par on the stock exchange today, one $500 bond selling at 99 and 46-50th, the lowest price yet recorded for the issue.

From Williamette valley and down by the sea and green
The Rogue river country and meadow and lea,
From Baker and Salem, Eugene to La Grande,
The editors came, all bearing the brand.

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST
Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, rous breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

To-morrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject of sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of nothing inside is not new, as millions of people practice it. Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.
