R. E. STURDIVANT HURT IN RUNAWAY

TEAM ATTACHED TO HAY MOWER RUNS AWAY, THROWING DRIVER ON HIS HEAD.

Heavy Rain Storm Hits Ukiah Wednesday Afternoon; Bert Martin, Wife and Three Children Narrowly Escape Death in Serious Runaway.

(East Oregonian Special.)
UKIAH, Ore., July 19.—J. H. Mettler, who has been ill, left for Hidayay Springs Sunday to camp for a while hoping to be benefited by the change.

Frank Welch and Bert Smith of Pendleton were in Ukiah last Wednesday night and while here visited with Mr. Welch's brother, Charley Welch, who lives near here, and his sister, Mrs. W. W. Caviness, who is spending the summer here.

A runaway occurred at the Sturdivant Bros. ranch a few days ago. While R. E. Sturdivant was cutting hay the team became unmanageable and broke and ran, throwing Mr. Sturdivant off. He struck on his head and shoulders, rendering him unconscious for some time but with no serious results. The mowing machine was badly broken and was brought to the blacksmith shop.

Ben Colvin, wife and daughters of Ritter, drove over to Ukiah and back home Saturday afternoon for mowing machine repairs.

Mrs. Canfield and grandson of Hidayay, were in town Saturday shopping.

C. S. Stuart and Noel Warden, Pilot Rock men, were in town Saturday, repairing the telephone lines.

Mitt Williams of Bridge creek, was a business visitor Saturday.

Walter Allison, fanner and wife, have just returned from a trip in the mountains and he reports that there will be lots of huckleberries but they will be late like all other crops on account of the late season.

Bert Martin, wife and three children came near meeting with a fatal accident Tuesday evening when returning home from a neighbor's.

When crossing Bridge creek canyon which has quite a steep grade, they were down a cut off when one of the horses began kicking and running the wagon striking a log and was turned over with Mrs. Martin and two children on a baby, beneath it. With the aid of a traveler, the wagon was lifted off of them, when it was found that the children escaped with only a few scratches, but Mrs. Martin had a bad cut on her forehead. Dr. De Vaul was immediately sent for and was on the scene in a short time, but found that no one was seriously hurt, although it required several stitches to close the cut on Mrs. Martin's forehead. Fortunately the horses broke loose when the wagon went over or it would have been much worse. In their mad flight to get away they only went a short distance till one of the horses was killed, but no one knows just how it was killed.

Will Be Fire Guards.
George Caldwell, who recently disposed of his interests in the hardware business, has accepted a position as fire guard and in company with Mrs. Caldwell left for Lookout mountain Sunday to be absent two or three months. Judging from the amount of provisions he took with him his friends need not look for him back before next spring.

Levi Eldridge of Pilot Rock, who has been south in Grant and Harney counties buying mules, returned Saturday evening on his way home with one hundred head of choice mules which he purchased on the trip.

L. C. Scharrf and F. H. Moss of Pilot Rock were in Ukiah Sunday on business.

J. H. Moore and daughters were in town Saturday trading.

Buck Welch moved his haying outfit to what is known as the Porter place near Albee to cut the wild hay crop there, which is now ready to cut.

Charley Hynd and wife made a trip to Pendleton and back by auto Sunday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Louis Urdahl of Portland, who came to take a vacation at the Hynd ranch.

Mrs. Urdahl is a sister of Mrs. Hynd. Miss Claudine Ledgerwood and her brother, Leo Ledgerwood of Cable creek, left Saturday for Gurdane, to visit their sister, Mrs. Bun Moore.

Mrs. Sanford Chilson and infant daughter visited Monday with Mr. J. D. Kirk.

Miss Helen Meenus of Bridge Creek is visiting this week in Ukiah with her sister, Mrs. Walter Allison Charley Grossen of McMinnville, Oregon, who owns a timber claim four miles from Ukiah, was in town Saturday trying to dispose of his claim.

Many Visit Springs.
Among those going to the springs Sunday for the day were J. H. Warden, Frank Chamberlain and wife, Dr. De Vaul and daughter, Helen and Jerome Schmit.

A half night dance was given at the Kirk hall Saturday night.

Men are at work putting in the new telephone line between Ukiah and Dale and when complete nearly every farmer between the two places will have telephone communication.

Walter Kirk, who has been working near Echo, returned to Ukiah Tuesday.

Dry Spell Broken.
The long dry and extremely hot spell was broken Wednesday afternoon when a heavy electric storm passed over this section of the country and a heavy shower fell, which will help the late grain and cool the atmosphere, but much more rain is needed.

Nate Haines of Ritter passed through town Wednesday with a large drope of beef cattle which he will ship to the Portland market.

Harry Bays, Mr. Justice and Wm. Allison came down from Oriental Wednesday for supplies.

Ed Thrasher and wife and Clyde Elsieck, wife and daughters Lela and Fona, visited Wednesday night at Hidayay Springs.

Herbert W. Copeland, eye specialist of Pendleton, is in town to remain for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Maggie Walker and daughter of Dale are in town today with pack horses after supplies.

Mrs. Robert Linsner, who underwent a serious operation some time ago for appendicitis, is seriously ill at her home in Ukiah.

Better Banking Service for Farmers
A vast fund, now aggregating a thousand million dollars has been assembled by Act of Congress to stand back of the farming and business interests of the country.
This fund is the Federal Reserve Banking System, of which we are a member, and it enables us better than ever before to supply our farmers with the credit and currency they need for harvesting crops and to protect them against disorganized markets.
If you are not linked up with this system as one of our depositors come in and let us tell you how it helps you.

A TREATMENT FOR NERVES

Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I kept it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBATH, West Danby, N. Y.
Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, headache, dizziness, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from choice roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.
