LA FOLLETTE PREVENTS AGREEMENT ON VOTE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Charging an attempt to gag the wealth conservation advocates, La Follette prevented a unanimous agreement to fix the date for the senate to vote on the revenue bill. La Follette's stand, if unchanged, makes practically certain the application of the cloture Friday, bringing a vote by next Wednesday. Underwood denounced the money slacker. He declared he has no patience with the man who hesitates to respond with dollars to the country's needs.

LULL CONTINUES ON ALL FRONTS EXCEPT ITALIAN

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Except for the Italian drive across the Bainsizza Plateau, toward Trieste, the lull on all fronts continued. Paris reported a local attack along the Chemin Des Dames, gaining a fifth of a mile over a fifth of a mile front. Halig reported only artillery fire. The Italian statement declared 27,000 Austrians were imprisoned since the offensive started.

VACCINATION HARD ON MEN OF TROOP D

(BY S. F. STARR.) CAMP WITHTYCOMBE, CLACKAMAS, Sept. 1.—Sergeant Coleman, who was admitted to the hospital a few days ago, is improving gradually and is still unable to leave his bed.

Corporals Sebasky and Bowers have been confined to their beds the past few days, but are now able to be up and will probably be able to resume their duties in a day or so.

Privates Earl Abbott and Harry Newman are suffering severe results from their vaccinations. Sergeant G. A. Winship is improving slowly from an attack of fever caused by the action of his recent vaccination. Private F. Hall is acting as troop clerk during the illness of the sergeant.

The fact that Troop D may train at Char'otte, North Dakota, has caused considerable comment among the troopers of course, the closer they get to Germany the happier the boys will be, but they would rather stick closer to Oregon and the Round-Up.

Rev. Snyder Talks to Boys. At a recent lecture the speaker, Rev. Snyder of Pendleton, said: "It is up to some one to get the Kaiser, and I believe that the boys from Oregon will have to do it." He went on to say that they were the best set of boys that he had yet spoken before and encouraged them to get "Dutch Bill" and bring his sea'p' back to Oregon even if it does cost a few lives.

An unofficial rumor spread throughout the squadron this morning that the Oregon soldiers would parade in Portland Monday. Though nothing certain has been given out, yet the troopers are preparing to show themselves on Labor Day.

Many Visitors at Camp. Troop "D" boys are frequent visitors at the reception park, commonly termed among the boys as the Pull Pen. In this place civilians come to see the men in uniform. There is generally a large crowd present every day.

Corporal Inman returned from Pendleton this morning, where he spent a few days with his wife who is rather ill.

Private Calfee left for Pendleton yesterday on receiving a telegram that his wife was ill. Private Warner also left for the same city to attend to some business.

DISTINCTION ANNOYING TO THE GERMAN PRESS

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 1.—President Wilson's reiterated distinction between the German government and people has caused much irritation in German editorial comment. The Boerschen Zeitung declared the people must not permit themselves to be driven into dangerous internal conflict by their enemies.
