RUTH MAC TAMMANY
WINS GREAT HONORS
IN NEW PRODUCTION

At Pastime today and Wednesday, Ruth MacTammany, as "The Girl from Rectors" in the new five-reel Mutual feature of that name, possesses the piquancy and charm that are essential to success of the part she plays—that of Louie Sedain, an innocent young French girl with a wonderful talent for dancing, who has invaded New York in an effort to win fame and fortune by her art.

Miss MacTammany is one of the cleverest young actresses on the stage and in "The Girl from Rectors" she is afforded splendid opportunities for the exercise of her talents.

Pearl White, Helen Holmes and Keystone Comedy at Cosy Tuesday and Wednesday.

Pearl White in "The Fatal Ring," has 10 more days in which to secure the ring Helen Holmes in "The Railroad Raiders" creates sensation upon sensation and the Keystone comedy, "Villa of the Movies," is certainly a riot.

Two Big Hippodrome Vaudeville Acts and Mary Miles Minter at Alta on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Special permission was obtained from the United States government authorities to photograph scenes in "Somewhere in America," the Metro wonderplay in which Mary Miles Minter at the Alta theater Tuesday and Wednesday. The pictures of the aeroplanes and motorboats being assembled and prepared for service in France and on our coasts were taken at College Point, where Director Dowland and his assistant, Mr. Kutler, were at one time threatened with arrest for taking certain scenes which were not in their permit.
