THE SONG OF THE LORELEI. Hear the Rhine Maids calling! From their lips is falling Soothing lullaby, "Peace! peace! peace!" they cry— Luring lorelei. 'Tis the song of crafty sirens, From dark, sinister environs, Hearken not, but fly The luring lorelei. He who hearkens to it Bitterly shall rue it— False, false lullaby! Death lurks beneath their cry— Luring lorelei. Heed it, and Earth's sons and daughters Whelmed shall be beneath Rhine's waters; Hearken not, but fly The luring lorelei! —Anne Virginia Caberton of The Vigilantes.

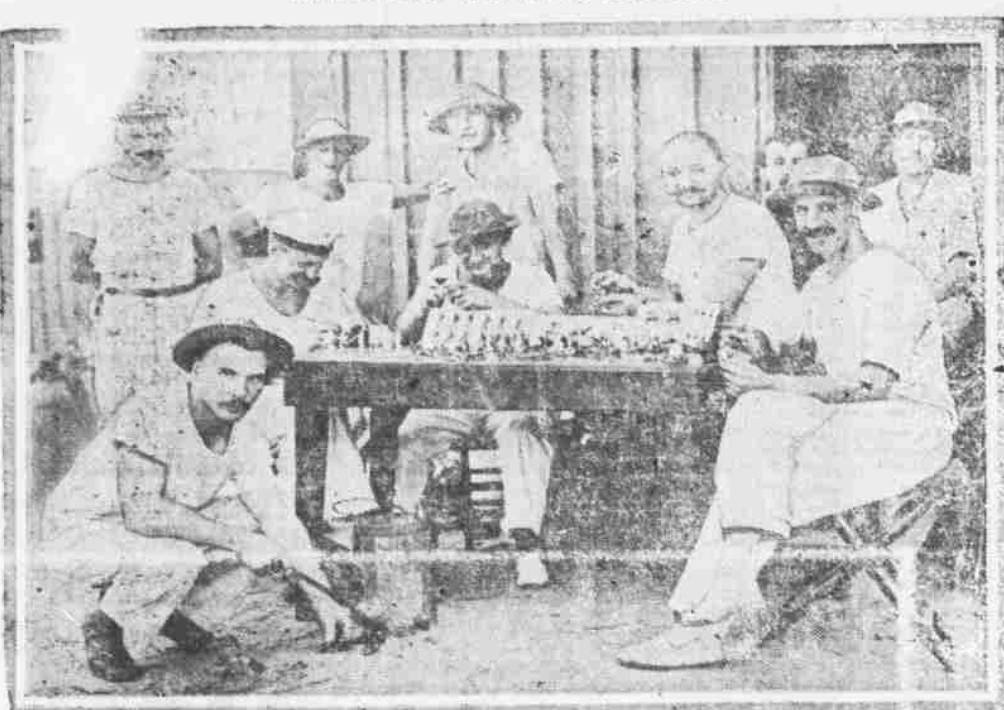

IN RUSSIA

FOLLOWING news of the complete failure of the attempted revolt by Korniloff, the would-be man-horseback in Russia comes the announcement that the republic of Russia has been officially proclaimed. It marks progress towards the stability of democratic government in that great country. If the Russians as a people were dissatisfied with the revolution they would have taken up with Korniloff's move. He had the prestige of being the head of the army and beyond question he had the backing of many belonging to what might be termed the Russian Tory element. But the Korniloff revolt collapsed completely. The obvious answer is that Russia does not wish to go back to czarism or to a dictatorship of any sort. The people desire political freedom. They deserve it and the cause of the allies in the war against Germany will be strengthened if democracy prevails in Russia. A democratic nation may, as a war maker, be handicapped in some respects, but in the end it generally produces results that justify democracy. It is significant that the democratic countries of the earth are now steadily growing stronger in a military sense while the autocratic power against which they fight grows weaker daily. Russia as a democracy may be slower getting into action than was the former despotic government but with the people themselves enlisted in the cause their work will be more continuous and steadfast. It will be recalled that in a military way the old despotism accomplished but little.

ONE WAY TO PREPARE

GOVERNMENT officials, including the president and the commissioner of education, are urging that students not called by the draft keep their collegiate work going wherever practicable to do so. The need of special trained men for the future is emphasized and particular stress is placed on attendance at a school where military science is taught. In this state the students at

INTERNED GERMAN SAILORS

German sailors from the raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, now interned near Fort McPherson, Ga., are spending their prison days making toy soldiers for the kiddies of America. Inside their wire barricades they have erected a forge where they melt the lead which they then pour into tiny moulds. When it cools, out pops Sammies and polias, and sometimes bulky Russians, but never British Tommies. The sailors share the prejudice of the land-brethren in their dislike for things English. The toys are sold through army canteens to Uncle Sam's soldiers, who in turn use them for souvenirs or send them home to the youngsters. From the proceeds the Germans buy tobacco and other incidentals.

O. A. C. are to be provided with uniforms free of cost, quite a consideration for students who are often hard pressed for cash, and in addition certain classes of students are to be paid $100 a year by the government. The reason for this is found in the fact the military instruction given is of value to the government. The students drill each day, under West Point instruction, and the training given is equivalent, as far as it goes, to that secured in the army. Young men not called by the draft and who for any reason feel they should not enlist at this time may combine education with patriotism by attendance at school where such instruction is to be obtained.

The blame for all strike trouble does not rest upon the shoulders of the workers; there are cases where employees by excessive obstinacy cause the tie up of industries essential to the country.

Willamette valley hops are selling at record prices; what has happened to that long familiar argument about prohibition destroying the hop industry?

This is the week when most every traveller tries to have an engagement in Pendleton.

Great Faith in Chamberlain's Cough and Diarrhoea Remedy. "Chamberlain's Cough and Diarrhoea Remedy was used by my father about a year ago when he had diarrhoea. It relieved him immediately and by taking three doses he was absolutely cured. He has great faith in this remedy," writes Mrs. W. H. Williams, Stanley, N. Y.—Adv.

GIRL ELEVATOR OPERATOR. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—San Francisco's first girl elevator operator made her appearance in a building in the downtown business district today. She is Mrs. H. Toye, wife of the manager of the building. "The day is coming when women will have to do this work, and I thought I might as well start in," she said. Kerensky comes up smiling, looking for the next crisis. He is far away the world's foremost wrestler with crisis.

28 Years Ago Today (From the Daily East Oregonian, September 17, 1889.) Mr. Charles Hermann has been appointed general manager of the Oregon & Washington Railroad Co. It is a deserved promotion.

D. W. McDonald, the faithful and well informed Mud Creek correspondent of the East Oregonian, is in town today.

The town clock arrived Saturday evening and is now being put together in the tower. No visitors are allowed during this interesting process, the tower door being kept securely locked.

Mike Sheridan, O. R. & N. section foreman at Pendleton, and one of the oldest bosses in Oregon, won $700 at the last drawing of the Louisiana state lottery, 81757 being the lucky number.

Dr. Vincent is making preparations for the building of a new and handsome residence on his Court street property.

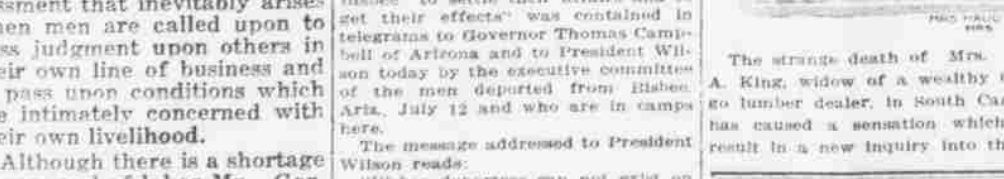

Henry Hoffman, a jeweler, cut him self accidentally last evening in George Durvean's saloon and is now laid up at the Golden Rule suffering from the results of his rash act.

Experience the Best Teacher. It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.—Adv.

MEN PLAN COMEBACK. Wire Governor and President of Return to Bisbee. COLUMBUS, Sept. 17.—Announcement of their intention to return to Bisbee "to settle their affairs and to get their effects" was contained in telegrams to Governor Thomas Campbell today by the executive committee of the men deported from Bisbee, Ariz., July 12 and who are in camps here. The message addressed to President Wilson reads: "Bisbee deportees can not exist on half rations. We are proceeding to Bisbee without protection or funds. If we are again deported and some killed or injured we feel that you had a chance to protect us and would not do so. Common American citizens here now convinced they have no constitutional rights."

ROOST UNIVERSAL TRAINING. Roosevelt Urges Humphrey to Make Speaking Campaign. SEATTLE, Sept. 17.—Colonel Roosevelt has written to former Representative Will Humphrey of Washington urging him to make a speaking cam-

millionairess whose death causes inquiry

The strange death of Mrs. Maud A. King, widow of a wealthy Chicago lumber dealer, in South Carolina, has caused a sensation which may result in a new inquiry into the circumstances of her death. A coroner's jury at Concord, S. C., found she had come to her death accidentally when a revolver, placed near her, exploded. Mrs. Melvin of Chicago, her sister, is shown standing in the photograph.

Fiery Eczema and Skin Eruptions

Readily Yield to This Old Remedy. Successfully used for fifty years. Eczema and similar skin troubles come from a disordered, impure condition of the blood, and they can only be cured by giving the blood a thorough cleansing, and removing from it all traces of impurity. This is why S. S. S. has been used so successfully in hundreds of cases of Eczema and other skin eruptions. This wonderful remedy is without an equal as a blood purifier, being probably the oldest blood medicine on the market. It has been sold by druggists for fifty years. You are invited to write to-day for complete and full advice as to the treatment of your own case. Address, Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. H Atlanta, Ga.
